A terrible Colliery explosion occurred

No article ever attained such unbounded popularity in so short a time as Barlock Blood Bitters, and that too during the existence of countless numbers of widely advertised bitters and blood purifiers. It is evident that this medicine begins its work at once, and leaves desirable effect unattained.

An injunction was applied for in Mon real on Tuesday by a shareholder against the Grand Trunk Railway to restrain the Company from guaranteeing the bonded debt and interest of its new western co nnections until the liabilities under the agreement are ascertained and deter mined.

The people of Walkerton are about to do tardy justice to the founder of that town.
Mr. Walker died in indigent circumstances in Mantonlin, and was buried there. The body is to be brought to Walkerton and buried beside his wife, a lot in the Cemetery having been granted by the Council for the purpose.

The Czar of Russia has given his consent to convert seventeen imperial palaces into institutions of learning. These palaces will of course be used for higher schools, while nothing is done for the improvement of popular education. Russia has a school population of 15,000,000 and the number of children in primary schools is a little over one million.

A Country journalist utters this mild protest: A doctor will sit down and write a prescription, time five minutes, paper and ink one fourth of a cent, and the patients $1, $2, $5, $10, at the case may be. A lawyer writes ten or twelve lines of advice, and gets from $16 to $20 from his client. An editor writes a half column puff for a man, pays a man from 50 cents to $1 for putting it in type, prints it on several dollars worth of papers sends it to several hundred people, and then surprises the puffed man if he makes any charge.

Keep the Fleet Dry.

This is the time of sloppy weather so pro ductive of colds, lung troubles; neglected cold or damp feet is a great source of these difficulties. Cure your cough with Haygar's Pectoral Balsam. Pleasant to take and always reliable.

The will of a Scotch landlord who re cently died in Dumfriesshire is of a kind which British landlords are unused to making. Not long before his death he carelessly threw into the lap of his forestor a parcel in which was afterwards found gold worth $35,000. To his coachman, in a similar manner, he gave a check for $15,000; to his shepherd he gave $65,000, and to the shepherd's brother $15,000.
When the landlord's will was opened lega cacy was found for $30,000 each to the coachman and the shepherd's brother, and the remainder of the property was be queathed to the shepherd himself—a very estimable young fellow, it is said. He is thus possessed of $400,000.

Mrs. Partington says,

Don't take any of the quack nostrums, as they are regimens to the human system; but put your trust in Hop-Bitters, which will cure general indisposition, costive habits and all sorts of diseases. The improved issue from a se vere extract of tripe fever. They are the ne plus ultra of medicines. —Boston Globe.
