My Cousin Bob.

Let me tell you about my cousin Bob (said a friend of mine a few days since.) Let me tell you what a trick was played off before the Council delegated to advocate on him. It was a serious affair, and came the claims of that city for holding the exhinear making a bachelor out of him for life. It did not, however, for he has since got- newal of the guarrantee for accommodation ten over it, and is now married and doing

To come to what I propose telling, I must say that Bob took a great notion to Martha Potfield, who lived with her dad some people say, he was head over heels Kingston. in love with her; and as is the case with all lovers, was in a peck of trouble lest some other feller would step in and "cut Kingston. He questioned if Kingston him out."
