To the Electors —OF— SOUTH GREY.

GENTLEMEN:—I desire to intimate that I have accepted the nomination of the representative convention held in Durham on the 2nd of March and ratified by the representatives of Artemesia assembled in convention at Flesherton on the 19th of May inst., and am now in the field as a candidate for the suffrages of the electors of South Grey at the approaching election for the House of Commons. The Dominion Government has not in my opinion administered the affairs of our country in such a manner as entitles them to a renewal of support.

I exceedingly regret that our annual expenditure has assumed such an alarming and rapid rate of increase. During the past session, the Dominion Government asked Parliament to grant them $28,000,000, to carry on the affairs of the country for the coming year. This sum be it understood, is nearly $5,000,000, more than the Hon. Mr. MacKenzie required for the same service. If this ruinous rate continues, our taxes which have been doubled since 1878 will be found quite inadequate to provide for a continuance of this extravagant outlay. I have to inform you that our national debt has increased over $20,000,000 since the advent of the present party to power.

The failure of the Government to ratify the boundary award has for the present despoiled Ontario, of 97,000 square miles of valuable territory, north west of Prince Arthur's Landing, a territory rich in minerals, mines and timber. The timber alone is estimated to be worth $125,000,000 and is capable of yielding sufficient revenue to govern this Province for many years to come. The contract made with the Pacific Railway Syndicate establishes in the North-west a monopoly, which has no parallel on the continent of America. By this contract, a system is inaugurated similar in many respects to that which has disturbed the peace, marred the happiness and blighted the prosperity of Ireland for many generations past. The policy of the Government in dealing with the lands in the North West appears to be conceived in the interest of the speculator and against the actual settler; for while the former can purchase land at one dollar per acre, the actual settler is compelled to pay from $2 to $2.50 an acre for the same quality of land. From the Bureau of Statistics we learn that in the year ending 30th of June, 1881, 120,000 of our people left Canada to find homes in the United States.

The system of letting contracts under the present Government is sufficient of itself to alienate the support of candid men, by whatever name they may be known politically. Take one instance—I might name more—McDonald & Charlebois, of Montreal, emminent contractors, tendered for the Port Moody section of the Pacific Railway. Their tender was $209,225 less than Mr. Onderdonk, "a Yankee contractor," yet Mr. Onderdonk, whose tender was $209,225 more than the Canadian firm received the contract. This is, I suppose, what the Government calls, "Canada for the Canadians." If I mistake not, the people of Canada will call it by another name.

The boasting of the Government over the success of their policy has become proverbial, yet as the hour of their trial approaches their conduct belies their professions. They do not appeal to the people for a free and untrammeled expression of opinion at the polls, with the same electoral divisions as the Hon. Alex. Mackenzie appealed to in 187?, but have resorted to a trick to deprive a majority of the electors of Ontario of the franchise. This has been done by carving up the Ridings and arranging them so that a minority of the electors may elect a majority of the members. By such means the government hopes to secure the election of men who will keep them in power in defiance of the sovereign will of the people, and of British "fair play." In order to accomplish this object, fifty Ridings have been changed and twenty-five Counties emasculated in Ontario alone. They also created six new contituencies and gave Ontario four more members while many people think we have already too many.

With this brief sketch of the record of the Dominion government for the past four years, permit me to call your attention to the claims upon which I ask your support I shall, if elected favor that system which gives equal rights to every class; equal and just taxation to every class; the maintenance of Provincial rights, honesty, economy and efficency in our administration of public affairs; the greatest good to the greatest number.

I am in favor of giving FREE GRANTS of our wide domain in the Northwest to actual settlers, so that the sons of the pioneers of this country may find free homes provided for them in that district on condition of settling and improving the same. I am persuaded that a liberal policy, such as this, is better calculated to develop the material prosperity of that vast territory than the present policy of handing it over to foreign landlords and Railroad Syndicates.

I shall vigorously oppose the building up of monopolies out of the public revenus and will combat to the utmost of my power any system that makes any man, or any class of men, rich by impoverishing all other classes. As a result of protection in Canada for three years, we find it stated that Mr. Redpath, a sugar refiner in Montreal, has realized such enormous profits out of the tax-payers of this country as enables him to spend millions abroad in the purchase of the grand palatial residence of the Ex-Empress of France at Chiselhurst; yet Sir Leonard Tilley told us that the monopolists would spend their money in this country for the benefit of our poor and laboring classes.

If elected I will gladly enrol myself as a follower of that distinguished scholar and able statesman, the Hon. Edward Blake; a gentleman of spotless character and exalted patriotism; "Canada's own and ablest son."

In conclusion let me ask you to consider well the great issues at stake in the pending contest, so that when the time arrives, you may discharge the sacred trust committed to you by the franchise in a manner that will redound to your own and your country's good.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
your obedient servant,
GEO. LANDERKIN.
