Dr. Christoe made an enquiry of the Warden in reference to the rumors current for some days past in regard to the neglect of the goal surgeon, whereby the life of a woman confined in the gaol was endanger-

The Warden replied that he had heard of the case from the gaoler, who said the gaol surgeon with Dr. Lang had visited the woman, who was near her confinement and the gaol surgeon had told him Dr. Lang would attend to the case; but when needed Dr. Lang could not be found, and he bad to go for another doctor.

Dr. Christoe said that he understood that the gaol surgeon visited the woman on Thursday morning, and had stayed two hours, but then left her. The woman was in pains of delivery from Wednesday till A Call Respectfully Solicited Saturday, when it was thought she would die, and Dr. Barnhart was sent for, and found that the woman would never have been delivered without surgical aid, which was afforded, and she was delivered about 1 o'elock on Sunday morning.
