War in Egypt.

(Condensed From the Globe.)

London, July 21.—The Porte is slowly e ming round to western ideas as to its du ties at this crisis. It now begins to withdraw its opposition and to make a show of yielding to the "Identical Note." This has proved a hard morsel for the Turkish Ministry to swallow. The Porte, however, states its willingness to send troops to Egypt, provided the conditions are somewhat modified.

Alexandria, July 21.—Arabi still continues to issue proclamations justifying himself. His first, published immediately after his evacuation of Alexandria, says that all the murders of Arabs and Egyptians have been committed at the Khedive's instigation; that while the English killed with the sword, and shot in revenge the Egyptians who were left to guard the city, the Khedive remained at night with his women afloat among the English ships, and returned to shore in the day time to order and countenance the slaughter of his people, "wherefore, I issue my orders to continue raising soldiers." His second proclamation is as follows:—"The Khedive has imprisoned his Ministers at Alexandria in order that they may be mere instruments in the English hands. The telegrams despatched by Rageb Pasha authorizing the cessation of military preparations were forcibly extorted from him and are therefore invalid. An irreconcilable war exists between us and the English." In another he denounces the Khedive as a traitor to Egypt, and to the religion of Mohammed, and accuses him of having deserted to the Christians for the purpose of securing for them the permanent occupation of Egypt. He calls on the natives to renounce the Khedive, and to join the army of the faithful, and fight until every foreigner is expelled.

London, July 22.—The troopship "Euphrates" left Portsmouth to day. She took 1,698 men. The captain received sealed orders before sailing. It is presumed her destination will be Alexandria, not Malta.

Bombay, July 22.—Two transports sailed to-day with a battalion of foot, a company of the Madras sappers, and 218 Highlanders for Egypt. They will pick up a Battalion of Highlanders at Aden.

The confidence in himself which Arabi Pasha possesses is really wonderful. He has presented the ultimatum to the Sultan, threatening him with deposition and the appointment of a member of a rival race as Caliph of the Moslems if Turkish troops intervene in Egypt. The Khedive has yielded to the pressure brought to bear by Admiral Seymour, and proclaimed Arabi a rebel, deposed him from office, and summoned the army to the defence of their Sovereign, at the same time assuring them that English and French intervention is merely to restore order. In reply to this proclamation Arabi has formed a Ministry at Cairo, and is rapidly recruiting his forces. An advance was made by a small force of British on Saturday, and a portion of Arabi's line, which afforded him a means of advance on Alexandria, blown up. He is now able to advance at one point and that opposite the strongest portion of the defences of the city. Reports from the interior convey news of horrible atrocities committed upon Europeans and Copts, as the native Christians are called. At Port Said measures have been taken for the protection of the Europeans there. The water supply in the Mahmoudieh Canal is carefully husbanded, and, supplemented by the condensers of the fleet, will probably hold out for a considerable period. A spy and messenger of Arabi has been captured on a steamer from Constantinople and important documents secured. He has confessed and given much useful information. The organization of the British expedition is being hurried forward, but offensive operations will not probably be commenced for three weeks.

Alexandria, June 23.—Cherif Pasha escaped from Cairo, and has gone to Port Said. The Khedive summoned him to Alexandria. An eye witness from Tantah states that 85 Europeans were tortured, disembowelled, and torn to pieces, the women violated and tortured. The soldiers participated in the atrocities. Order will apparently not be re-established till Arabi Pasha is disposed of. His influence has been productive of fresh massacres, and his acts have plunged the country into what is hardly less than total anarchy. The Khedive is still apparently enacting the part of a mere cypher, though according to the despatches Arabi's having denounced him as a traitor to Egypt and as one who favors the English in preference to his own countrymen ought to have shown him by this time that the man has thoroughly broken with him. There are those, however, who will think Arabi and the Viceroy understand each other and that there is no enmity between them.

Port Said, July 23.—Seventeen war vessels of different nationalities are in the harbour. Admiral Conrad has consented to assist the English in keeping order in the town, and protecting the lives and property of Europeans in the event of an outbreak. The French are prepared to land 600 men and the English 400. News come from the interior that in the villages all Europeans are being brutally murdered, even the natives who acted as their servants being butchered. At Cabib a whole family was taken from the train, put under the wheels, and so cut or crushed to pieces.

SUMARY OF MONDAY'S NEWS.

The British troops had another brush with Arabi, their object being to occupy Ramleh, which they succeeded in doing without the loss of any men. Arabi's position at Kaffr-el-Dwar is now untenable being commanded by British guns. In the House of Commons Mr. Gladstone moved for a vote of credit to defray the expenses of the British expedition. He defended the action of his Cabinet, and pointed out the necessity which existed for restoring order in Egypt and maintaining the neutrality of the Suez Canal. In the last named operations he is in complete unison with France, which supplies a force of 6,000 marines for the protection of the canal. The Duke of Connaught will command the Household Brigade.

July 25.—There is no appreciable change in the state of affairs at Alexandria.

The Government has chartered the "Grecian" and "Canadian" steamships of the Allan Line. Each is capable of accommodating a regiment. The transport "Nyanza" has been fitted up as a condenser for Alexandria. She can condense 32,000 gallons of water daily.
