Elora Fair.

th at 11 n. m. and 6:30

vampire bats.

18 PUBLISHED Every Thursday,

Durham, - - - Ont. -TRRM4:-91.00 per yearin Advance .-

refessional and business cards one inch space and under per year. roidches or 24 lines Nonpariel measure... I preciaches do. per year. Casual severtisements charged 8 cents per Line for the first lasertion, and 2 cents per line for each a toscquent in certion. - Nonperiet measure.

Ordinary soffices of births, marriages, deaths, and Il kinds of local news, insolted free of charge. az $1, the advertisement not to exceed 12 lines. Fr .ten instructions to the contrary, are inserted | entil forbidden, and charged at regular rates. J. TOWNSEND, Publisher.

LEGAL

E. D. MACMILLAN. A apposite Parker's Drug Wore, Upper Town Money to Lonn.

A TTORNEYS at Law, Solicitors, &c. B. JACKES, B. A. R. A. PRINGLE

Frost & Frost, PARRISTERS and Attorney's-at-Law THE undersigned has a large amount Above the portal read,"The Gate of Life."

— Harper's May

Solicitors in Chancery, Conveyancers, etc., on either Farm or Village property at lowest rates penevery Thursday as heretofore. Business strictly confidential and costs of leans J. W. FROST, LL. B. County Crown Attorney. June 24th, 1880.

MEDICAL.

. Surgery, will visit Durhamegreagner, any of the leading Dentists of To-Hend Office. Wingham.

F. Z. NIXON. GRADUATE of Outario Vetrinary Col-VETERINARY SURGEON.

HUGH MACKAY.

JOHN ROBERTSON TAILOR AND CLOTHIER,

Alexander Robertson,

TAILOR, Residenceat the Old PostOffice, Lower Town

DURHAM.

fit fungranteed. Lates Fashion Regularly Received

Sewing Machines of Hamilton. his machine is capable of sowing through 17 pl of duck with the same case as any other machin can sew two ply, and the strongest Linen thread

And See Their New Anti-Galing, Easy Working, Good Enough

ALSO THE OLD Reliable Scotch COLLAR.

CHAS, LEAVENS, Harness Maker, Lambton Street, near the Post Office, DURHAM. has constantly on hand a full supply of Carriage Good Work and reasonable charges Collars a Specialty. Durham, Dec. 8, 1881.

"THE GREY REVIEW"

the Office, Gurafrata Street, Upper Town

$1.35 if not paid Within three

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Stray Animals, &c., advertised three weeks Advertisements, except when accompanied by

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

TTORNEY - AT - LAW, &c .- OFFICE

JACKES & PRINGLE, Money to

DENTISTRY.

S. JEROME, Licertiate Tuesday (Fair Day) to the end of very month, where he will be most happy to wait soon all those that may favor him with their patonage. All work entrusted to him will be perormed in the latest and most approved style. Auction Sales Attended.

DUNDALK Out Willbe at Hasting's Hotel, Shelburne, every Monday and Friday from 10 o'clock a.m. to 5 p.m. Dundalk Murch 20th 1879.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ICENSED AUCTIONEER, for the A County of Grey, Austion Sales attended to in all parts of the County, at reasonable rates. Goods sold on Commission. Land Sales carefully attended and the sale bills promptly posted up

DURHAM ST., DURHAM.

Residence-Opposite the Canada Presbyterian Church.

Catting done to Order.

Spring and Summer Fashions, regular Durham , Feb . 14, 1878.

THE inhacriber is prepared to Receiv and Make Up, on the shortest notice, and

A. R. is Agent for the Celebrated wilson B

CALL AT

BOULDEN BROS.

AMERICAN COLLARS,

New Stock of LEATHER, HARNESS, WHIPS, CURRY COMBS,

BRUSHES, BELLS, &c. Lumber, Lumber, A Good FIT Guaranteed.

HARNESS, HARNESS.

$72 A WEEK. $12 a day at home easily made Costly Outfit free. Address True & Co., Building Lots

TOWN of DURYAM, County GREY, No. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, Hunter's Survey, East How are you of for Socks

important question for every- the residence of Geo, Jackson, Esq., they are very size and shape from those of a mammal) one to consider as there is nothing more in. even, have been used as a Cricket ground, and are none of it human! Here, as in the prostrats man, plunged madly on him in the principal Produce is brought.

Vol. V. No. 29.

CANADIAN

DURHAM.

Capital $6,000,000: Reserve

$1,400,000.

DEPOSITS of $4 and upwards Received,

upon which the current rate of interest will be allowed;

On fe sonable terms, and a

General Banking Business

TRANSAUTED.

feduced to the lowest figure.

Real Estate, Lonn & Insurance Agent.

Lands Bought and Sold.

All Business Strictly Confidential.

My Motto-Close and promp attention to busines

W. M. CLARK,

Architect and Builder,

MARKDALE.

Durham Planing Mill,

SASH, DOOR

Blind Factory.

ROBT. BULL

DUILDER, Durham, keeps on hand

ullstock of Coffins, Caskets, Shrouds and Trim

A FIRST-CLASS HEARSE TO HIRI

Remember the place-a short distance northe

The N. P.

Should Call and Examine

COLGANS

Also Findings in great variety. A splendid lot of

Shingles, Shingles,

J. W. CRAWFORD,

600 Bush. Fresh Lime.

Durham P. O., May 25th, 1880.

FOR SALE,

-Six of the Best-

PRIME HARNESS LEATHER.

Opposite the REVIEW Office.

nd fair dealing between all men.

Sept. 29th, 1881.

MADE

R. A. PRINGLE,

CHARGES LOW.

COLLECTIONS

DURHAM, Co. Grey, AUGUST 31, 1882.

murdering her daughter of twelve. She

THE TWO GATES. A pilgrim once (so rans an ancient tale) Old, worn, and spent, crept down a shadowed vale; On either hand rose mountains bleak and high; Chill was the gusty air, and dark the sky; The path was rugged and his feet were bare; His faded cheek was seamed by pain and care His heavy eyes upon the ground were cast, And every step seemed feebler than the last. The valley ended where a naked rock THIS BANK issues Letters of Credit on The pilgrim who had crept that toilsome very Buykand Collects Sterling Exchange; Issues drafts To find an outlet in the mountain side, Rose sheer from earth to heaven as if to mock The pilgrim who had crept that toilsome way; I ponderous sculptured brazen door he spied, And tottering toward it with fast-failing breath Above the portal read, "The Gate of Death." He could not stav his feet that let thereto; It yielded to his touch, and passing through, He came into a world all bright and fair; Blue was the heavens, and balmy was the air; And lo! the blood of youth was in his veins, And he was clad in robes that held no stains Of his long pilgrimage. Amazed, he turned; Behold! a golden door behind him burned In that fair sunlight, and his wondering eyes, Loan. Now lustreful and clear as those new skies, Free from the mists of age, of care, and strife,

Circumstantial Evidence.

POETRY

Lower Town, Durham. indisputable: A number of silent facts which had been partly cut in the deadly and inventions. Were doubt not present to an inheritance in the skies. R. DAVIS, FLESHERTON. surrounding an occurrence, and all point- scuffle. The prisoner was executed after a in the exercise of such functions, belief ing to one individual are often worth more full confession of her guilt. CONVEYANCER, Commissioner in B.R. than any direct evidence, for facts do not In one case of murder tried at Hereford, receive anything or everything without lie, and statements frequently do. Never- the strong circumstantial evidence was reason, hold it without reason and defend theless, it may be a question what are facts that the woman had been partially robbed, it a the expense of reason; but, as we sub-Deeds, Leases, Wills&c. neatly and correctly and what are not; and when the observer and in her pocket were found twenty or ject things to an exhaustive series of queshad no assistance from microscope; chem- thirty postage stamps, hastily torn off an- tions before we accept them as worthy of istry, and the other applied sciences, very other portion of the sheet, while in the belief, we cast all crudities out of what we great mistakes were sometimes made. prisoner's pocket was found the other por- believe, and place our belief of things on the From this cause circumstantial evidence tion of the sheet, the two parts not only basis of undubitable evidence and in accord obtained popularly a bad name, which has corresponding along the torn margin, but with pure knowlege. This is in substance not yet been entirely got rid of; while it also as to the letters placed in the corners set forth by a poet, when he sings the praise must also be admitted that the most re- of each stamp. markable coincidence of adverse circum- In a similar case at Norwich, the wadding of sceptical doubt, but of philosphic stances has sometimes been found to be of the prisoner's gun had been partially doubtconsistent with innocence.

DLANS, Specifications, Estimates, &c., Furnished. Work Superintended and Inspec-ed. Charges Moderate. 158 about a quarter of a mile from the house of his guilt. Wajnut Rosewood and Gilt. Plans, specifications Askins' Patent Metalic Glass Burial Cases

SHOEMAKERS IMMENSE STOCK of FOREIGN and DO-Highest market price paid for Hides, Calf Skins | ing, and in this room was discovered a | solder, by which he identified the coffin. table smeared with blood, and a large, strong, pointed pair of seissors, almost that owing to a legal technicality, the i covered with blood. The inference was dictment in this case was ignored by the irresistible-the wretched drunken tramp grand jury, and that the country of Somer-Lath & Lime, "jabbed" into his eyes. This was the the. ure Hour. THE ROCKVILLE MILLS. Also ory laid before the jury by the prosecution argequantity of JOISTS. Lot 41, Con. 2 and a conviction seemed probable. One of the prisoners, however, a female, interrupted the proceedings by declaring that both the blood on the table and that on the scissors was the blood of a large fish which she had skinned and cleaned on the prev ions day. This explanation seemed improbable enough, but as the trial would undoubtedly last over the day and there was plenty of time to test its truth the judge directed the blood on the table and on the seissers to be carefully examine by a celebrated microscropic expert who subrequently gave evidence that the whole of the blood was fish's blood (the corpus cles of the blood of a fish being under THESE Lots are beautifully situated on high magnifying power, totally different

of the best Markets in Ontario and at no distant | weak to convict the prisoners. In all districtions on the most improved methods, lates is now erecting a commodious Store-house at the station. So x 40, three stories high, and others connoted for its splendid stores and Hotels. This is a few animal a call and improved methods, lates template buildings of a similar kind. Durham is noted for its splendid stores and Hotels. This is a few animal call and improved methods, lates is now erecting a commodious Store-house at the distriction. So x 40, three stories high, and others connoted for its splendid stores and Hotels. This is a few arithment than Manitoba Lots. The advertiser solicits an offer for one or all the Lots.

WM IOHNGTON IF

Apply at this Office er to ment in detecting truth from falsehood, ing Her Maje-ty to renounce her title to The accused was a woman, indicted for his country.

had been seen leaving home with her child in the morning, and had also been seen to return home also in the afternoon. In answer to enquiries, she stated that her child went blackberrying in the woods her throat which had destroyed life. Sus-blown with the bullet into the body of the 'They wrought in faith,' and not They wrought in In 1880 a murder was committed in Is- deceased, and was uninjured, and on being Is the proud epitaph inscribed above liugton of a peculilarly atrocious character carefully spread out, it was found to cor- Our glorious dead who in their grandeur lie, and the body of the victim covered with respond with and undoubedly form part of Crowned with the garland of eternity. wounds, and drained of almost every drop a torn newspaper in the prisoner's pocket, of blood, was discovered lying in a ditch, and was the chief means of bringing home a man who was known to have a particu- One other case only will we mention of lar disfayor to him. This man was subse- curious "identification." The incumbent Who laid their heads upon the bloody block quently arrested and charged with the and church wardens of a certain parish in Bore witness still, and with their quivering hands erime. There was absolutely no evidence Somersetshire were charged before the Sowed every wind with sparks of flery thought. against him: but upon examination of his magistrates., and afterward "presented". Because they did beffeve, we kneel to read abode, a sack was discovered rolled up in before the grand jury of the Taunton As- Because he did believe, Columbus sailed corner of a cellar literally stiff with sizes for stealing the leaden coffins from For that new world his inner eyes had seen, blood (as it was consinered to be). On the under and ancient church in their custody. back of a working jacket-proved to be The evidence was long and very extraorlong to the prisoner-were dark red stains; dinary, showing generally that the rever. Newton believed for many a year before and the theory of the prosecution was, that | end defendant and his assistants had long | The Hand in Heaver shook the apple down. the deceased had been stabbed by the pris been in the habit of faising the old coffins Belief, not Doubt, will touch the secret spring. oner, placed in the sack and carried on his from the vault under the church, of batter. Belief is that soul attitude which sees back to the spot where the body was after- ing them in, and of selling the lead to the How the pure distance of some infinite sea ward discovered. Upon this evidence so plumbers around. They had, however, And feels the fresh spray make its roses bloom. strong it seemed the prisoner would most always been most careful to guard against. But Doubt turns from the light and only sees likely have been convicted and executed; any possible recognition of the coffins by The shadow that it casts, and follows it; but at the last moment a chemist stepped removing and secreting or destroying the The shadow still dilates on darkened eyes, forward who had analized the coloring nameplates. One of their customers, the And lengthens as the awful night comes down. matter on the sack and jacket, and who plumbers eventually gave information of In the above delineation of belief and doubt unhesitatingly declared it to be red oxide the "little game" that was being played, the reasoning of the poet is obviously based though one rose from the dead." of iron, a large quantity of which the pris- and the three delinquents were given into on philasophic doubt in direct opposition Doubt, as the love of truth, is the noble den of the County of Wellington, died at oner had in his possession for use in his custody. Great difficulty was found in to sceptical doubt, and his object is to erectness of the soul heavenward; but his son's residence, Arthur Township, on BOCT and SHOE SHOP business as a house painter! This one identifying any one of the coffins, but at show the superiority of the one in compardoubt, as the love of a foregone conclusion the 6th inst., at the advanced age of 90 circumstance falling through the one evi- length a very ancient undertaker was dis- ison with the other, as seen in the life of man to the disregard of truth, is the soul lying years. The deceased was a color sergeant dence was felt to be too weak for a convic covered who positively swore to one of and in the progress of truth. Philosophic low in the latter sense of in one of the regiments during the battle of commenced business I solicit your make the N. P. Boot, such as the long that of a certain admiral. He doubt is the friend of truth, but sceptical doubt, there are several things we would Waterloo, and as was natural was proud of ading gentlemen of the Dominion wear. I expect a real offender being afterwards discoy. said he knew it from a circular blot of sol- doubt is the enemy of truth; the aim of here note— So recently as 1873 a family of four per- which he knew to be his workmanship. the other is to subvert truth. How incom- Doubt meets us on every side and from of that event. About seven weeks ago Mr. sons were very nearly convicted of murder His story was that the admiral had died parably superior is the one to the other in every quarter. We dare not, indeed, Stephenson received a paralytic stroke and at the winter assizes for Durham on a like suddenly, and that it became necessary to the interest of truth! As has been already speak in disparaging terms of honest never recovered from its effect. During Upper Town Durham. piece of evidence. A drunken tramp had solder down the coffin before his relations shewn, the great end of doubt is to set doubt. We cannot think of the struggles his illness he was tenderly watched and entered a house of notoriously bad char could arrive for the funeral; that upon truth free from everything foreign and ad- of earnest, inquiring minds as if in themacter at Gateshrad, and his dead body was their arrival a daughter of the deceased verse to it, that it may stand forth in all selves to be condemned, and necessarily who did their best to cheer his last hours. discovered next morning lying outside the much wished for a lock of the old man's its native force and beouty; or in the case implying something greviously wrong. The deceased was highly esteemed by all house, the death having been probably hair, and that he being one of the plum- of evolving truth from collected facts or some aggravated guilt. Many of the most classes of the community, and his death caused by some strong sharp instrument bers employed, bored a hele through the given data, the great end of doubt is to earnest and established Christians have removes from our midst an old settler and which had been thrust into the corner of head of the coffin, and knowing that the supply any defect in the premises, to con- passed through that experience; but there a brave soldier.

had been laid and held down on the table set was consequently deprived of an interand the pointed scissors had been forcibly esting and exciting criminal trial.—Leis. with equal prominence in excellence as the sake of some cherished idol, or to ward fell away. But of the Austrailian eleven, TRAMPLED TO DEATH .- A sad and fatal accident occurred on Monday by which Mr. Dongal McFayden, a farmer, of Egre mont township, met with a violent death Mr. McFayden, while in Mount Forest or the above day, bought a young horse from a Mr. Stewart, living near here, which took home and hitching it up with a mate to a wagon he and his son drove off. The coung horse displayed an ugly temper and commenced rearing and plunging wher Mr. McF. got ont of the wagon and took the animal by the head whereupon the vicious brute reared back and in descend ing the fore feat struck the unfortunate man on the breast knocking him down. The horses being partly held by the boy in the wagon, instead of passing on over the to feel comfortable by calling on William John.

Since the opening of the last case, the subsidiary evidence was too of hours after being picked up.

Of the best Weeker such into the Town for sale. Since the opening of the last case, the subsidiary evidence was too of hours after being picked up.

Dr. Voor of hours after being picked up. Dr. Yeo-Knitting Stockings & Socks manufacturing place of note. J. H. Hunter, Esq., -We remember a trial some years since mans was sent for who did all he could for Philosophic Doubt.

Prepared specially for the Review. The value of circumstantial evidence is child was a "victorine" of squirrel's hair, wrought into great principles, discoveries religion and actuated by the principles of religion, man has in himself the tille-deed would become creduality, when we would of that belief, which is the outcome, not

They lived great lives and did their deathless Who in the old time walkt their perflous way, With the grey hairs of kingly sorrow crowned: Who laid their heads upon the bloody block

Because we have believed, our knowledge comes room in which the deceased had been by ward closing the hole with the patch of main of religion or of that of science. something in the fashion. It is unsatisfactory to be obliged to state religion of all extraneous ingredients mixed biased and one-sided .- Doubt, as the love the fault on the part of the English playions superinduced upon them and makes and under all aspects to ascertain whether dently something wrong. The English them stand out in their own heavenly sig. or not it is truth; but doubt, as the aver-cricketers did well in the morning, but after nificance, so shall belief in them shine out sion of truth, is a desire to ignore truth for lunch, and champagne, and cigars, they nent part of man's nature, and when he is is a foregone conclusion in the mind and that difference existed between the teams, adorned with all the graces of the spirit, we dislike everything that appears to dis- England would rank second. If the Engthis stands out with all the convincing trust it or to come in collision with it; or lish wanted to occupy in cricket the pos clearness of a great truth; but it appears we question everything else and feel angry tion they ought to, the players must give so with sufficient distinctness to the eye of | if anything dares to touch it. Christian intelligence, even when he is (3) The doubt of this age is, in a great do no harm to some Canadian players if its manifestation than when he lives under gives itself to subvert the foundations the economy of grace. Religion, which religion, to argue down the principles has been indelibly written on the heart of religion and to obliterate out of the soul all man by the great Creator, causes him to hopes of immortality. Doubt is thus the acknowledge a Supreme Being. Now, the abherrence of the truth, that makes wise abstract idea of a Supreme Being is in its- unto salvation. self one and the same in all men; of heavenly origin and independent of all earthly modifications. The way and manner, how- Belief ever precedes the self-conscious i ever, in which men acknowledge, unfold, telligence and lays the ground work for all with a pocketful of stones, ready to shy at and represent this idea, is as various as men themselves; and, like everything human, is subject to the laws of contrast and progression. The world is one vast musenm that illustrates the nature and attributes of the Deity. gion are congenial to man under a due his recklessness has disseminated the Whole No. 233.

1 Doubt pervaded with a belief in truth.— is to him the joy and rejoicing of his heart. land, and owned considerable more. He is In all our doubts concerning things, there The fine paratives and impersonal style the father of over 20 children. is always a certain amount of what may of revealed truth is to him a source of de- Storm.—The rain and wind storm on and that she had lost her: The next day be called belief in regard to them; otherlight and wonder. It is hard to make a Monday last did considerable damage in wise we would never trouble ourselves to choice of the most beautiful passages, in a Artemesia township. Nearly every fence s) entertain doubts concerning them, or to book which is so gemmed as the Bible; along the Toronto and Sydenbam road, search out the possibilities of belief in them. but it is certain that not many things con- from the school house where Mr. Morey picion of course fell on the mother, but When these two conditions of mind are tained within the sacred volume may take teaches to Flesherton, was levelled to the nothing appeared to warrant it. In her associated together in the processes of rank with the exquisite story of Joseph. I thought it is necessary to note what is the true what pocket was found a knife, wich was sub thought, it is necessary to note what is the Who taught those ancient writers their tent of the damage done to the crops, but mitted to most crreful examination, it be. Doubt is antithetic but not antegoristic to ing taken to pieces for the purpose: be. Doubt is antithetic but not antagonistic to pression, their pathos, and above all, their tween the horn plates of the handle and belief, and the design of this relation is to faculty of sinking themselves out of sight have made a study of love. Girls read and the steel linings were found a few drops of mark out what we ought to believe or of the reader, and making their narrative profit by what he says: "If a young man blood and a few hairs. The woman while investigation of them. We may to a cor. in prison, apparently suspecting that some. It is extent believe in things, while we will always be somewhat embarrassed when with you. If a young thing might be found on the knife, told tain extent believe in things, while we read his works; Macauley is always present when with you. If a young man is not interested in you at first sight, the warder that after losing her daughter may at the same time entertain serious sent when we follow the march of his the chances are five to one against you. If she had "caught a rabbit and killed it with doubts concerning them, and cur doubts shapely sentences; but the sacred writers a fellow continues to glance at you he is was found it was the rabbit's. Dr. Alfred of our behef in them. Belief may and often tianity is sufficient in itself and needs no Taylor, the very clever and acute micros. does pervade doubt, but doubt comes in with keep eved scruting and supjects what -Harper's Magazine. copist, however, on examination positively with keen-eyed scrutiny and surjects what the wisdom of God unto salvation. blood, but that the hair was squirrel's hair, In this way, doubt prepares the materials, future destiny.—Imbued with the spirit of and round the throat of the murdered which belief has laid up in the mind, to be religion and actuated by the principles of

> I say to thee, do thou repeat To the first man thou mayst meet In lane, highway or open street, That he, and we, and all men move Under a canopy of love As broad as the blue sky above, That doubt and trouble, fear and pain And anguish, all are shadows vain; That death itself will not remain; That weary descrts we may tread A dreary labyrinth may thread, Through dark ways underground be led. Yet, if we will one Guide obey, The drearest path, the darkest way,

Shall issue out in heavenly day,

And we, on divers shores now cast,

Shall meet, our perilous voyage past

All in our Father's house at last, 2. Doubt imbued with the spirit truth .- Doubt is the love of truth. doubt this and we doubt that, and so on in our investigation of things, because we think that it is not truth; but, so soon as our doubts are satisfied about anything, we receive it as truth and love it as truth. Doubt is a bridge within scepticism and faith; but a bridge is a road leading in opposite directions. We may doubt, with the feeling and tendancy which inevitably issues in unbelief or with the feeling and tendancy which inevitably issues in faith. The redeeming virtue of doubt-the suc- met in the church at Bell's Corners, on cessful condition of a right issue-is a Thursduy, 15th inst., to induct the Rev. yearning desire for truth and life, and per. Alexander Nichol, late of Ayton, into the fect docility of being taught and led. No congregation of North Luther. The Rev. man can be led out of doubt into faith or Mr. Wilson of Markdale preached a suitlife whose feeling is that of the hard mas. able sermon from Exodus xxxII. 36. The tering passion. With half the doubt of Rev. Mr. Brown, of lattle Toronto, presidthe present day one can have but little cd as moderator, and put the usual quespatience; it is sheer intellectual gladiator. tions to the minister. Rev. Mr. Macship, or anti-religious feeling full of hostile millan, of Mt. Forest, addressed the inductanimus. No man inspired with the animus ed minister on his duties, and Mr. Morriof infidelity will ever attain to faith; the son of Cedarville, the people, Mr. Nichol strongest evidence would fail to convince enters on his duties with good prospects of der in the centre of the head of the co.fin; the one is to advance truth, but the aim of (1) This is an age of sceptical doubt.— count to the rising generation the history the eye and had penetrated deeply into old admiral always were a pig-tail, and vert any flaw in the chain of argument is too much of a tendancy amongst multithe brain. The question was: How had was buried with it intact, drew that adorn and to remove all irrelevant matter, that tudes at the present day to encourage close of a cricket match lately, said he had Call and examine and you cannot fail to suit this wound been inflicted, and by whom? ment out through the hole with a wire a just conclusion may be arrived at and doubt, to invite it, to be content with it— been very greatly dissatisfied with the renew truth discovered, either in the de- yea, to make a boast of it—as if it was sult of so many of the matches in which the

Hence, just as doubt purges the truths of (2) The doubt of this age is partial, country. He had strong convictions that up with them, or of all mere human opin- of truth, views things from all stand-points ers was not far to seek, for there was evioff anything and everything which may seven or eight did not use either alcoholic (1) A deep-rooted belief in the religious interfere with it. In such cases, which drinks or cigars, and the other members nature of men.—Religion forms a constit. are frequent, in science and religion, doubt were nearly as abstemious. As long as placed in circumstances less favorable for measure, anti-religious.- Doubt too often followed. As yours was put into you, ever casts

A smallpox nurse st Paterson, N. J., has and one child has died, and his wife and (2) A well-grounded belief in the prin- remaining children have been taken to the ciples of religion .- All the truths of reli- pest-house. Fears are entertained that sense of religion. The story of the cross ease throughout the town.

Local and other Items.

The County of Wellington Sunday School Convention will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 5th and 6th, in Knoz Church Harriston, Frank Carrier, of Paisley, is training a young carrier dove. On Monday last it went from Walkerton in 17 minutes, on Wednesday from Harriston, 40 miles distant from Paisley, in 40 minutes, and on Thursday from Palmerston in the same ime. He intends training it so it will carry his paper from the city.

SAD ACCIDENT. - Mr. John Kirby, a man of advanced age, living on his farm, 12th con., Normanby, fell down from the upper part of his barn on a heap of rubbish, and is to him a great object of attraction. The hurt himself so badly that he died three Savior is to him the chief of ten thousand days after. He was one of the pioneers of he smiles at you, you may know that he is only a "masher.

ARM TAKEN OFF .- On Thursday of last week a man named James Small, of Bell's Corners, while feeding a threshing machine at the farm of a Mr. Cook, 2nd con. of Proton, had his arm drawn into the cylin ler of the machine in some manner, tearing off the limb just above the elbow. Medical aid was sent for in all haste and Dr. Esroyd answering to the summons was soon on the scene of the accident when be found it necessary to amputate the mutilated member close to the shoulder. The patient from last accounts is doing well .-Confederate.

The people of Dulnth appear determined to carry of the scheme for connecting Lake, Superior with Red River by means of a canal. A convention is to be held there on the 15th inst., for the purpose of furthering the project. It is claimed that forty miles of canal with slight improvements in existing waterways will make the connection? that the lift will be less than that of either the Erie or Welland canals, and the total cost but a fraction of the cott of either of those works. Should the scheme be carried into execution the extensive navagable waters of the North West would become doubly valuable.

Induction .- The Presbytery of Sangeon him. 'If they hear not Moses and the success. He gets $700 of a salary an a up drink and tobacco. This advice would

Two of the residents of Williamsford, alias the Sauble, have not for some time part, been on those terms of friendship generally known as "endearing." The ordinary means of reconciliation having been evhausted, one of them determined to open hostilities in a practical way, and accordingly a few evenings ago, strongly intellectual, moral and spiritual knowledge. the enemy when he came within ran, e. Instead of the enemy, however, who should pass the way but the "village parson", in this case a young missionary from Knox College, who, thinking some such fate was to store for him as befel Stephen of old till under cover of a board fence, he uitimately rushed in at the first open door be

STOMACH, TORONTO.

mend