Brutal Attempt on a Little Girl near Flesherton.

A week or so ago a seedy looking tramp came to Mr. Wm. Flesher—a farmer who lives on the Toronto and Sydenham road, between Flesherton and Markdale—seeking employment. Mr. Flesher, who required another hand during the harvest, and not knowing but that the tramp was a deserving object for charity—instead of the scoundrel he afterwards proved to be—engaged him. On Monday last Mr. and Mrs. Flesher went to Markdale on business, leaving their children at home to "take care of the house"—the eldest of whom was a bright little girl only twelve years of age. In the course of the day, while Mr. and Mrs. Flesher were yet absent from home, the tramp came to the house, sent all the children outside except the eldest, and then set to work to perpetrate his hellish designs. One of the children outside becoming cognizant of the state of affairs, went off crying to a neighbor's house near by, where, fortunately, her uncle, Mr. Robert McGruthier was working, to whom she communicated the facts already mentioned. Mr. McGruthier at once went to Mr. Flesher's house, arriving just in time to save the little girl from being outraged. He struck the tramp a blow, but before he could close in with him, the scoundrel made good use of his legs and escaped. As it was raining hard at the time, Mr. McGruthier went into the house and put on a coat before giving chase. By this time the tramp had a good start, and although others joined in the chase and scoured the country in all directions, he is still at large.

The tramp is described as a short, stout man, about forty years of age, shabbily dressed, and having rather a dissolute appearance. He claims to be a sailor, and said he lived near Meaford, "when at home." He'll be living in a stone mansion, with iron bars across the windows, one of these days.—So be it.—Flesherton Advance.

A PRACTICAL JOKE.—The door step of the house on the south-east corner of Shuter and Dalhousie streets have been occupied nightly for about a month by a loving couple who seemed greatly to enjoy each other's society. Envious eyes were, however, cast upon these young hearts that beat as one; and a little plot was entered into for the purpose of locating them at their favorite place of resort. On Tuesday a practical joker plastered the lovers' seat with cobblers' wax, and awaited developements in ambush on the opposite side of the street in the evening. Just as the shades of night fell upon the scene the lovers hove in sight, and within a few moments afterwards squatted in the same old spot. The ambushed jokers crushed their handerchiefs well into their mouths and laughed inwardly. A few hours passed pleasantly, the wax, in the meantime, silently doing its duty and sticking closer than a brother. Finally, the witching hours of midnight reminded the lovers that it was about time to make a move homeward, and involuntary the pair attempted to rise; but for some unaccountable reason they were unable to do so. A second and third attempt resulted in a failure, as if some mesmeric influence had overpowered and transfixed them to the doorstep. The young lady, whose keen ear had caught the echo of convulsive laughter on the opposite side of the street made a desperate effort to free herself, and did so, but at the expense of a brand new dress, samples of which remained behind. Her terrified companion also struggled manfully for liberty, being apparently desirious of carrying off the doorstep. By the fair ones assistance, however, he tore away, leaving his mark also behind him. As they retreated they were followed by the jeers of the band of jokers who had set up the job. It is almost needless to say that the doorstep is likely to remain unoccupied for some time.—Mail.

Don't be alarmed at Bright's Disease, Diabetes, or any disease of the kidneys, liver or urinary organs, as Hop Bitters will certainly and lastingly cure you, and it is the only thing that will.

At the last meeting of the Waterloo Township Council no less than $220 had to be paid for sheep killed by dogs.

N. C. Polson & Co., druggist, &c., Kingston, express themselves as surprised at the sale of Burdock Blood Bitters in that locality, where patent medicines are hard to introduce, but, say they, "the gross last ordered a few days since, will convince you that the demand is good, and that it is giving satisfaction to our customers" o231.

Justice Carey Taking Pay for His Time.

A young man came into Justice Carey's court, at Carson City, Nev., with the rim of his hat drawn down over his eyes, and remarked:

"Do you know me?"

"I think," replied the court meekly, "that you're the chap I sentenced for stealing about a year ago."

"That's the hairpin I am," replied the other shortly, "and there is $20 for my fine."

"But you served your time in gaol," said the judge, "and owe no fine."

"That's right, old boy, but I'm about to commit an assault and battery, and I guess I'll settle now. You're the man I propose to lick."

"Oh! that's it rejoined the court pocketing the coin; "then you can start in and we'll call it square."

The young man advanced to the judge and let out his left.

The judge ducked his head, and, rising up, lifted the intruder in the eye with a right hander, and sent him over against the wall. In a moment the court was climbing all over the man, and in about three minutes his face was hardly recognizeable. The man begged the court to let up, which he finally did. As the fellow was about to go out Carey went after him with:

"See here, young man, I don't think the fighting you did ought to be assessed at more than $2.50—here's $17.50 in change. I ain't charging you anything for the fighting, but just for my time. Next time I won't charge you a cent.

The rough took the change and the next train for Virginia City.

Scrofula is a depraved condition of the system often hereditary, and characterized by indolent tumours, glandular affections, bad blood and a low condition of vitality that tends towards consumption, which is really scrofula of the Lungs. Burdock Blood Bitters cure Scrofulous diseases from a pimple to an abscess, by purifying the blood, correcting the secretions and giving a healthy tone to each organ.—e231.

A typographical error caused the Chicago Tribune to tell the truth for once. It stated that a certain Chicago physician felt the patient's purse. There is nothing new about the statement however: doctors do it everywhere.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The best evidence of the superior merit and virtues of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for the cure of Summer Complaints, is that its popularity and demands is greatest where it has been longest known.—e231.

A seam of coal discovered at Hare's Crossing, near Odanah, Man., is said by old miners to be the genuine article.

The indications of the approaching season seem to threaten an unusual amount of the various forms of bowel complaints. Our readers would do well to supply themselves with some reliable remedy like Doctor Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, as a safeguard against sudden attacks of Cholera, Morbus, Colic, Dysentry, &c., that unless promptly treated are often suddenly fatal.

Herbert Spencer, who is now at New York, is reported as stating that it is not impossible that he may on his return to England record his impressions of the country and people on this side of the Atlantic. His sole purpose in visiting the American continent is to recruit his health.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR
Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

In diseases of the pulmonary organs a safe and reliable remedy is invaluable. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy, and no other so eminently merits the confidence of the public. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, of such power as to insure the greatest possible efficiency and uniformity of results. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt relief and rapid cures, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily. In ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful.

Low prices are inducements to try some of the many mixtures, or syrups, made of cheap and ineffective ingredients, now offered, which, as they contain no curative qualities, can afford only temporary relief, and are sure to deceive and disappoint the patient. Diseases of the throat and lungs demand active and effective treatment; and it is dangerous experimenting with unknown and cheap medicines, from the great liability that these diseases may, while so trifled with, become deeply seated or incurable. Use AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and you may confidently expect the best results. It is a standard medical preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is as cheap as its careful preparation and fine ingredients will allow. Eminent physicians, knowing its composition, prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proven its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.
