THE REVIEW.

Durham, October 26, 1882.

The Imperial Parliament has reassembled. A movement is on foot to erect a monument to the late William Lyon Mackenzie.

The Hanover Post has made an attack on the Review of Pontiac in regard to the taxes in Hanover.

The feeling of the electorate in Manitoba is becoming decidedly antagonistic to the Dominion Government. Manitoba will make a strong fight for her rights, and they will get them.

The Thornbury Standard is advocating the turning of the Beaver River at its mouth in Thornbury, so as to keep their harbor open. The reasons why this should be done, as advanced by the Standard, are logical and forcible, and ought to lead to the result desired.

The London Free Press of yesterday gives a "deplorable" picture of the territory in dispute by the award of the Boundary Commission, and concludes the article by saying that "it has not so much value as the price of a ton of gunpowder late in the fall, when the price is almost over."

As far as the interests of Ontario are concerned, if the territory in dispute is as worthless as Tory papers try to make out why in the name of common sense does the Dominion Government set at such a mean shabby manner in regard to it, by refusing to ratify the award? If the land is worthless would it not be worth while landing it over to the Ontario Government even without any award, and thus get a worthless piece of territory of the hands of the Tory Dominion Government, and thus at the same time destroy one of the strongest pleas of the Ontario Reform Government for their re-election to Office? We need not point out the shallowness of the Tory clap-trap in this connection.

TOWN MATTERS.

From the minutes of the Town Council, as published, it will be observed that the Council has passed the obnoxious and com- pletely Market By-law, and a motion whereby the $1000 lately received by the Town from the Ontario Government out of what is known as the Land Improvement Fund, is to be once disposed of, and thrown away in such a manner as it might as well be thrown into the river for all the benefit it will be to the Town. Besides this, unless the ratepayers say no, there will be the yearly salary of a Market Clerk and other expenses to be met, and all for what?

All because a few tradesmen think that by getting a compulsory market by-law in force, and putting the town to all this ex- pense and loss, they can force the trade from one part to another of the Town, thereby injuring property and business in that part, and force the farmers to trade with a few in another part for their own special benefit at the expense of the rest of the town. The days for pursuing such a course successfully are past. What do the Town Council take the farming community for? Do they think that threatening them with fine and imprisonment and putting obnoxious restrictions upon them will en- courage them to come to Durham—that by preventing them from selling to the best advantage to whom and where they please will benefit and help the prosperity of Durham? We say it will not! There is not a farmer who trades in this Town but when he has his load of grain ready, but can drive to a free market, sell it, and return home in good time the same day, and many of them as soon as the by-law is put in force, say now that they will drive elsewhere with their grain—farmers who live quite close to this town. If the Council had taken this money and spent it in building sidewalks on some of the muddy streets, or build a bridge on Lambton Street, and perhaps prevent the Town from paying the costs of several more law suits, there would be some wisdom in such a course, and perhaps not so much selfishness shown. Such a course would have been a benefit and not an injury to the municipality. How has the Council acted in regard to street improve- ments? We ask the ratepayers to look where the Council's roads, and except in the North Ward, will find the im- provements near their own doors, and the rest of the Town way to the logs, ap- parently, for all they care.

Waterford Star.—We have repeatedly asked zealous Tories during the last fortnight why Sir John has allowed wheat to go down to seven shillings a bushel, instead of eleven, but they uttered not a word, though even a casual observer could see they were silent.

The farmers who voted for the N. P. last June, now that the long evenings are upon them, might spend a profitable hour or two in the study of some political economy. It might help them to find the reason why prices for the grain they have to sell are so low, while everything they have to buy is so high.—Guelph Mercury.

The campaign in East Grey may be said to have commenced. Mr. R. H. Peville, tender Mr. Landers meeting at N. P. Mr. Miles will take majority in Euphrasia and Proton. Mr. Landers in Artemesia and Osprey while in Holland and this Township we think it will be pretty close work.—Thornbury Standard.

The Sale of Lands for Taxes, of the County of Grey, takes place at Owen Sound on Monday next, Oct. 30th.

The ratepayers in Shelburne will vote on Monday next for or against a by-law to raise $2,500 for village improvements.

The North-east quarter of lot 11, con. 6, St. Vincent, containing fifty acres, was sold to Mr. James A. Laycock for $1,800.

OUT OF SEASON.—Mr. Alex. Whyte tells us that he picked ripe raspberries on a lot near Allan Park on the 15th of the present month.

POTATOES WANTED.—We shall be glad to receive a few bags of potatoes from some of our subscribers in payment of their subscrip- tion.

J. J. HAZEBROEK, threshed 1 bushel of fall wheat in twenty seconds and one of spring wheat in 22 seconds at T. Nichols, Normalby.

We are sorry that the Rev. J. Sanley has determined on resigning his charge and leaving Durham. He offers his horse, buggy and harness for sale. See Adv.

The REVIEW will be given from now till the 1st January, 1883, for $1 cash. We shall commence the publication of a first class story in two weeks. Now is the time to subscribe.

The new granary for J. H. Hunter, Esq., M. P. P., is about completed, and is a very substantial building, and reflects credit on the builder. Mr. Hunter is away on a trip to Dakota, but is expected home in a couple of weeks.

FARM BY AUCTION.—Mr. W. J. Mathews will offer his farm of one hundred acres, Lot 24, Con. 5, Bentinck for sale by auc- tion, on Tuesday, Oct. 31st, at 2 o'clock p. m. This will be an excellent chance to secure a good farm. John Moody, Auctioneer.

Mr. THOMAS DONOHOY has removed from this town and bought out a grocery business in Hanover. He also intends to go into the flour and feed business. We are sorry to lose so enterprising a townsman, but he has our best wishes for future prosper- ity.

LARGE SALE.—A credit auction sale of farm stock, implements, and household furniture, will take place on Lot 9, Con. 9, Traveston, Glenelg, on Monday, Nov. 6th. Sale to commence at noon. Terms twelve months credit. Hugh Travers, proprietor, High McKay, auctioneer.

Mr. JOHN E. BOSS, the genial and an- tiquarian forman of the McKay fanning mill works, was found not to be behind the mark and waited into the construction of a fanning mill which he completed in about 26 hours. It is one of the best in the collection, and reflects much credit on the artisan.—Fasley Advocate.

RE NORTH WELLINGTON ELECTION.—Aylesworth for the respondent moved ab- solute a rule nisi to dispose of the prelimin- ary objections. H. J. Scott, for the peti- tioners contra. This petition was filed in the high Court of Justice, Q. B. Division, and the security was paid in to the junior clerk of the Q. B. office. Evidence taken in the election cases allowed to stand in this case, which were argued and judgment reserved.—Globe of Wednesday last week.

The Times says George Jackson Esq., the defeated of South Grey, is spoken of as likely to be called to fill one of the vacancies in the Senate. Mr. Jackson, if he would not add to, certainly would not detract from the dignity of the venerable body called the Senate, and it might be as well that this part of the Province were re- presented in that chamber. We fear, though, that there are too many more im- portant aspirants to admit of Mr. Jack- son's appointment.—Meaford Monitor.

SURPRISE PARTY.—On Tuesday evening of last week, a large number of the citizens of Flesherton met at the residence of Mr. M. Richardson, to do honor to Mr. W. F. Doll, prior to his taking up his abode in Markdale. The party first assembled at Mr. Hooper's, and then proceeded by twos and threes to Mr. Richardson's, carrying with them baskets containing all sorts of good things. They took full possession of the house, and soon were busily engaged in social chat, and all kinds of parlour and other games. This was kept up until 11:30 when lunch was served; after which the company joined outside in a circle, and with great gusto, sang that grand old song, "Auld Lang Syne." Then came the "Auld Lang Syne" after which the company dispersed, after wishing Mr. Doll all success in the future.—Flesherton Ad- vocate.

EGGENTS.—The Harvest Home Festival held in Eugenia on Wednesday, 11th inst, under the auspices of the C. M. Church, was a success. The Church was very tastefully decorated with fruits, flowers, autumn leaves and grain, with two appro- priate mottoes, which were very highly eulogized by the different speakers. The sermon at 2:30 p. m. by the Rev. D. C. McDowell was a beautiful exposition of the third verse of third Psalm. "The Lord is a sun and shield." &c. Tea was served in the old school house. The adibles were of a choice variety, and revealed the efficien- cy of the ladies who provided them. After tea the audience repaired to the church. Mr. Joseph Pedlar was called to the chair and proved to be the right man in the right place. The following gentlemen deliv- ered short addresses:—Dr. Christie, M. Richardson, Wm. H. Oper, J. B. Sloan, R. Davis, and W. H. Prown, with a reading from Mr. Stone, and a recitation from Jas. Hanley. The singing by the Flesherton Methodist Choir was good. The meeting was brought to a close by a few remarks from Mr. Grandy, pastor of the church. The social on Monday night was well at- tended. Proceeds $48.—Flesherton Ad- vocate.

It will cost about $2,500 to buy the right of way for the Yon on the Grand Trunk at Palmerston.

SUSPICIOUS DEATH NEAR WALKERTON.—A cattle dealer named John Coupland, whose friends live at Mount Forest and Guelph, was found on the roadside near Walkerton early on Thursday morning in a dying state. He was insensible at the time, and died an hour afterwards without recovering his senses. It appears he has been drinking late and had an attack of delirium. He left the hotel at Paisley Wed- nesday evening, and was seen by a farmer near where he was found running along the road carrying his hat in his hand.

A. O. U. W.—The Flesherton Advance of last week in referring to the death of Mr. John McDougall, purser of the 'Asia' says that Mr. McDougall was a member of the Ancient Order of United Workmen and that although he only joined the Order a few months ago his family now re- ceives $2000. The Advance says that the outside Mr. McDougall could have paid into the funds of the Order would be $25. This is largely in excess of the sum actu- ally paid as we learn from the officers of the lodge that the amount paid was only $18. The case of John McDonald the mate of the 'Asia' is exactly similar both having joined the order at the same time December 5th, 1881. Since the 'Asia' disaster a large addition has been made to the membership of the Owen Sound Lodge.—Advertiser.

ILLICIT STILL.—On Monday the Col- lector of inland Revenue for Grey obtained information that he might do some work on the Collingwood Mountain. He ac- cordingly came to this town and enlisted the services of Chief Lewis, and the two went to the farm of one Hugh McDonald, on the Mountain. They made a thorough search, and in a cypress pit in a black ash swamp, they found a slanty inside of a mash tub and 2 lbs of malt, but the worm was missing. To the disappointment of the worthy officials, they found no whisky, and had to content themselves with smashing the apparatus and confiscating the malt. When going to the still the officers passed a man who exercised himself while he went to borrow some tobacco. From his appearance they concluded that he was of the swamp angel species, and an- other interview was sought for, but the man had evidently retired to a haven of rest in the swamp, and he has not since been heard of or seen.—Collingwood En- terprise.

FOR 20 years the American Agricultur- ist, now in its 48th year, has been recog- nized as the leading agricultural journal of the world. Notwithstanding its past wonderful career, it now enters upon a new era, and proposes to excel its past accomplishments—moving forward to fresh conquests. The October number appears in a New Cover, New Dress, New Type, New Engravings, with New Artists, and additional Editorial Writers making alto- gether the most superb periodical of the kind ever issued. From this time forward the American Agriculturist is determined to avail itself of the best brain power, and the first artistic talent in the country. The proprietors have but to point to its past record as a guarantee of our promises for the future. Never before in its career was the Journal so prosperous as now, and at no time since the first year immediately following the war have subscriptions come in so numerously as they are now coming. We confidently believe that the American Agriculturist is the best paper in the United States for local journals to club with, being exclusively Agricultural in its character, as it is, and thus competing with no local Journal. Price $1.50 a year, or 15 cents per single copy. Orange Judd Company. David W. Judd, Vice-Presi- dent. Samuel Burnham, Secretary. Clubbed with the REVIEW for one year $2.00.

A THREATENED LAW SUIT.—On Monday night an old lady named Mrs. Henry, be- longing to Artemesia Township, Grey County, who is at present staying with her daughter in the neighborhood of Thomas Holiday's brewery in Guelph, met with an accident which promises to give rise to a law suit. On that evening while walk- ing along Waterloo Avenue she fell into an excavation for a drain, which Mr. Holiday is renewing, and which leads from Pound- creek to his brewery. Among the injuries she sustained were several lacerations about the body, a severe strain of the femur, and a blow on the jaw which knocked her two or three teeth out. The fall so stunned her that she lay in the bottom of the drain unconscious some time. On re- gaining her senses her cries brought some of Mr. Devlin's family to her assistance, and they took her home. She has since been confined to her bed and her medical attendant says it will be some time before she completely recovers. It is her intention to bring an action for damages against whoever is responsible for the drain being left open and unprotected in the darkness. This will probably raise a question as to whether the corporation or Mr. Holiday is liable. There was some discussion at the Council about this matter when Mr. Holiday petitioned for leave to open the drain, and perhaps the statement of Ald. Lampray at the time that Mr. Holiday would be responsible for any accidents that it might cause, was the only thing that led them to grant the petition.—Mer- cury.

A SWINDLING TRICK.—A couple, calling themselves Mr. Harry Pancher and sister have victimized a large number of young women at Buffalo and left for Canada. They profess to have a contract to supply embroidery to a New York firm, and advertised extensively for learners, who deposited $5 each as a security, received a sample upon which to practice, and were to be permanently engaged at a salary of $8 per week as soon as they became pro- ficient. When the girls appeared for their second lesson the couple were gone.

South Grey Teacher's Asso- ciation.

The meeting of the South Grey Teachers Association in Durham on Thursday and Friday last was the most successful they have had. Mr. M. P. McMaster of Flesherton occupied the chair. Dr. Mc- Gillan, of Toronto, Inspector of High Schools, was present, and gave several very interesting and instructive addresses at the different sessions of the Association.

On Thursday evening an Entertainment was given in the Town Hall, which was filled to the door. Dr. Jamieson was appointed chairman. Miss Patterson and Mr. Gunnar gave two duets, Mr. M. Black a recitation, Miss Sarah Rombough a read- ing, Mrs. Ashby a solo, Miss Louise Cochrane and Florence McKenzie a duet. Miss Patterson a solo, Miss Kelsey a piano solo, Mr. J. Reid, B. A., of Mount Forest High School a reading, Mr. T. Colgan gave several humorous songs, all of which were loudly applauded. Dr. McEllan gave an excellent, interesting and instructive ad- dress to the audience on behalf of educa- tion to children. An unanimous vote of thanks was tendered to the talented gen- tleman for his excellent address and valuable suggestions, moved by Wm. Ferguson, P. S. I., seconded by the Rev. Mr. Asbury.

Mr. Reynolds has taken possession of his handsome new residence, which for beauty of design and quality of finish de- cidably knocks the shine of anything pre- viously erected in Markdale, (always ex- cepting, of course, the mansion of our M. P., not yet completed.)

Messrs. Hill Bros.' elevator is drawing towards completion and will be ready for service in a few days. It is a very com- pletely and conveniently arranged build- ing and we hear it to be supplied with a steam engine.

The frame work of Mr. McFarland's new elevator is up and is the most com- plete and substantial piece of frame work we have seen in this section of country and proves that Mr. W. G. Richards is a work- man who thoroughly understands his busi- ness. We think there is no fear of any more leaky bins.

I am sorry to say that while our village is thus improving that whisky drinking and its consequences are not behind. Of which fact we had a sickening proof on Saturday night when in a drunken brawl Mr. George Beatty of Euphrasia received a severe stab with a butcher knife. It ap- pears that he with some others had re- paired to that unlicensed whiskey hell pre- sided over by Her Majesty Queen Caswell (at the existence of which everybody seems to be surprised and yet it is allowed to flour- ish) and late in the night, long after respectable houses are compelled to close, were carousing in company with a number of railway men, when a quarrel arose which resulted in a general free fight in the midst of which a young man named John Doyle, of the railway party, seizing a carving knife from the upper table, plunged it into Beatty's back, inflicting a frightful wound, but the knife coming in contact with the lower corner of the right shoulder blade was arrested and thus pre- vented doing fatal injury. Dr. Armstrong was aroused from his peaceful slumbers and promptly sewed up and dressed the wound and got the patient to bed about two o'clock on Sunday morning. Doyle was arrested and on Monday morning was brought before Wm. Brown, J. P., and committed to Owen Sound to await his trial at the coming Assizes. Beatty still lies at the Caswell rendezvous in a some- what critical condition. And the world goes on as if nothing had happened.

The question now seems to be how long will such a state of things be allowed to continue. How long will death and de- struction be freely dealt out without hind- erance? what are our laws for? what are our Inspectors paid for? where is our boasted British freedom while such a man- sard as King Alcohol stalks freely and un- blushing through our land attended by his suit of trained imps in human form, and followed by so many willing dupes, and again the cry goes up—"O Lord, how long."

Town Council.

Council met as a special meeting in the Council Room on Monday evening last. Members all present except Messrs. Bull and Storey.

By-Law No. 112 to amend and consoli- date By-Law No. 112 was introduced by the Mayor.

Moved by G. McKeelnie, seconded by A. C. McKenzie, That By-Law No. 112 be now read a first time.—Carried.

By-Law was also read a second time. Council went into committee on said By- law, arose and reported By-law without amendment, then read it a third time and ordered it to be signed, sealed, and en- gaged in the minutes, rules of Council being suspended for this purpose.

On motion Council adjourned.

Proton Council.

Proton Council met as per adjournment on Friday 6th October at McDowell's Hotel, Dundalk, for consideration of By-Law for drainage of S. S. No. 1, and remained in session until Monday evening 9th.

When it was moved by James Robinson, seconded by George Johnson

1. That the drainage By Law be left over for further consideration.—Carried.

2. Moved by John Agnew, seconded by George Johnson, that the Clerk write to Co. Treasurer to erase Lot No. 5 front St. Dundalk, from list of lands for sale be- ing assessed in error.—Carried.

3. Moved by George Johnson, seconded by James Robinson, that the Clerk be paid $7 for extra services in connection with drainage By-Law S. S. No. 1.—Car- ried.

4. Moved by John Agnew, seconded by James Robinson, that the Reeve issue order for $6.10 to S. McDowell for keep and board of Elizabeth Nelson, an indigent per- son.—Carried.

5. That this Council do now adjourn to meet at Cedarville on the 2nd Wednesday in December at the hour of 10 o'clock, a. m.—Carried. James Cavanaugh, Clerk.

Artemesia Fall Show.

Several errors appeared in the prize list of the above show, held at Priceville, on the 8th inst. The following are the cor- rections:—

Drumhead Horses.—Should have been 1st J. McMullen instead of J. McMillan.

General Purpose Horses.—The 1st prize should have been A. McMillan instead of J. McMillan.

Hack Horse.—1st should have been J. McMullen instead of McMillan.

Grade Bull.—1st should have been J. McMullen instead of J. McMillan.

Aged Ram.—1st J. Yause instead of J. H. Stewart, and J. Wait.

Shearing Ram.—Was left out; should have been 1st J. H. Stewart, and 2nd J. White.

Poultry.—Coop of Turkeys, should have been W. J. Cooney instead of W. J. Coney, Oliver of Geese, should have been 1st H. McMillan.

Celery.—1st should have been James Vause.

Winter Apples.—2nd prize should have been J. Watson.

Judges.—Horses and Cattle.—A. Mun- shaw, J. McArdle, J. Hill, Sheep, Pigs, and Poultry.—J. J. Tibbido, D. Thomp- son, J. Swanton, Grain, Roots, Dairy Produce, and Manufactures.—A. Hinslip, J. Burnett, and D. K. McArthur. Ladies Wagon.—Mrs. Miller, Mrs. A. T. Buchanan, Mrs. H. W. Phillips.

The price of wheat has dropped so much at Chelvey that Tory farmers are inquir- ing whether Sir John has abolished the duty.

Further returns from South Bruce in- crease Mr. O'Connor's majority to over 600. The previous majority in this riding was some 68.

A PIONEER GOSE.—Mr. Mark Arm- strong one of the pioneers of the Town- ship of Glenelg, and founder of Maskdale, died on Saturday October 14th. Deceased was in the 70th year of his age. His remains were committed to the grave on the 16th.

A BRAVE ENGINEER.—Through the dis- arrangement of some new contrivance the furnace door of an engine on the Pennyn- vian Railroad, drawing cars containing 600 passengers on Monday, was blown open and the cab set on fire. Engineer Siegs and the fireman rushed to the smoking car door, which was open and the car filled with smoke. The passengers were great- ly alarmed. The engine ran some distance uncontrolled, endangering the lives of all the train. The engineer realizing the situa- tion, bravely rushed back to his post, and remained in the flames until he stopped the train. He was terribly and perhap- sably injured. The flames were soon ex- tinguished. The train then proceeded with the fireman in charge of the engine.

TRAMWAY RAILROAD DISASTER.—North Adams, Mass., Oct. 21.—A collision oc- curred near 8 a. m. on Wednesday evening, between two Railway Engine cars, one of which was pushing a caboose con- taining thirty workmen along the road. The engine of the caboose badly scalding those who had escaped the collision. The drivers have completed the examination of the injured men, and find 83 hurt. All are scalded and many have cuts, bruises, and broken arms, and body scalds. Jos. Bentley, fireman of the engine, whose eyes were burnt out, and face, arms and body scalded, died to-night in terrible agony. The explosion of the engine was caused by the driver of the caboose bursting in a plate of the cylinder of the engine. The steam blew open the door of the caboose and filled the car in which were thirty- three men. In the stampede many bones were broken, the boiling water saturating the men's clothes in a moment. Peter Barry, T. Flavins, C. L. Vanhosen, and Cornelius Shave have also died and five others are not expected to live through the night.

In the falling of a lighted chandelier in a Baptist Church at Roxboro, N. C. during a service Wednesday evening several persons were seriously injured by the burning oil. The prompt action of the church officers averted the usual fatalities consequent upon a panic.

Last Thursday night a west Nicot- our Township farmer, named Thos. Cross, was on his way home in the buggy his horse was stopped on a side line by two men who presented revolvers and deman- ded Cross's money or his life. They fired off several shots, and one of them drew a knife and cut open his jacket, taking from an inside pocket $290 which Cross had collected during the day. Frightened and stunned by the suddenness of the attack, Mr. Cross was rendered helpless, and when he recovered his senses the robbers had made good their escape into the woods. Mr. Cross arrived in London early next morning, and related the facts of the case to Detective Schram. That afternoon two brothers, Lincoln and Robert Case, were arrested on suspicion of being the robbers. They live four miles from the scene of the outrage, West Nissouri, and had attended the Thursday races on Thursday. They give contradictory statements as to the time they reached home that night, and a loaded revolver with two chambers empty was found in their house.
