A Collection of Solecisms.

The lively inventive faculty of our American cousins finds a sphere for its exercise in the manufacture of graphic metaphysical phrases, and these with common vulgarisms find so easy an acceptance among our people, that we have collected a few specimens forsooth with their English equivalents:

To fix up—to arrange, settle or repair.

Hurry up—Make haste (the word "hurry" only being used in substitution in England.)

On time—in time, punctual.

He lives on King-street—He lives in King street.

All the time—Always, continually, a great deal.

Half the time—As often as not.

For sure—for certain, without fail. Inside of a week—Within a week.

To guess—to think.

It's mean—it is a pity. The word "mean" is used in England only in the sense of "contemptible."

It is the meanest day you could have chosen—it is the worst, or most unsatisfactory, day you could have chosen.

I will call Monday—I will call on Monday.

To visit with so an so—to visit so and so.

Right away—at once, immediately. Are you through?—Have you finished?

To call round—to call.

To be round—to be present.

To come along—to come, arrive.

How?—What do you mean?

That's too thin—that won't take me in.

He wilted—he gave in.

Take up a collection—to make a collection.

A soft thing—an easy appointment.

It's got to be done—it must be done.

To feel like doing a thing—to feel inclined, etc.

Like I do—As I do.

That's too bad—that's a pity.

Likely—Promising.

What the trouble is—What's the matter.

To come near doing a thing—to nearly do, etc.

To go for—to attack.—Ez.

Time is radix proves everything, and among other things it has proved the value of Dr. J. C. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral as a standard remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs. It is a household medicine with thousands of people, and deservedly so, for it has been in use more than forty years, and all who use it know that it accomplishes even more than is claimed for it.

Nearly every community possesses evidences of its great curative power, in persons who have been cured by it various throat and lung complaints, and who owe to it alone their recovery from the threatening symptoms of consumption. In emergencies like croup and sudden colds, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the remedy that every family should have at hand for the treatment of these cases as they arise.—Richmond, Va. Standard.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A destructive gale raged in England on Tuesday, causing rivers to overflow their banks and retarding traffic in various ways.

In the schools of Weimar, Germany, there is an excellent custom of taking all the pupils once a week under different teachers on an excursion of out-door study and observation.

A Cure for Headache.—Thousands are suffering martyrs of this distressing trouble. If you have pure and properly vitalized blood coursing freely through your veins; if the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels act rightly, you will be healthy. But the headache, toothache, &c., will not be cured. Black Bitters will effect this desirable condition, if properly used. Try it.—b242.

The Grand Trunk and the Pacific Railway Company are organizing for a magnificient fight. The powerful rivals are making the North West their objective point.

A Good Investment. Twenty-five cents expended to your druggist for Yellow Oil will allow more painless and more effective treatment than may be obtained from ordinary medicaments. Dr. Young's Oil cures Rheumatism, Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites, Sore Throat, Croup, Stiff Joints, Contracted Cord, and all Lameness and Inflammation.—b242.

The eighteenth Annual Convention of the Sabbath School Association of Canada was held at Brampton last week with a large attendance of delegates. The reports from the county representatives showed a highly satisfactory condition of the work.

A General Stampede.

Never as in such a rush made for any Drug Store as in the New Year's Day for Consumption, Coughs and Cold.

Trial Bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold.

Severe Coughs or any affection of the Throat and Lungs, can get a trial bottle of this great remedy free, by calling at above Drug Store.—b4.

In the new Prussian Parliament the various parties will be represented as follows:—Conservatives, 100; Catholics, 100; Poles, 20; National Liberals, 60; Progressists, 40; Secessionists, 50. The repeal of the laws against German Socialists is expected shortly after the meeting of Parliament.

By Law No. 91, for the appointment of Collectors of rates for 1882, was read the requisite number of times and then passed.

Mr. McDowell moved, seconded by Mr. Gowen, that the undermentioned parties receive the amounts opposite their respective names, for work done by them, as follows:—Joseph Nethercott, for removing 34 rods of crossway and grading, $25.16; John Pettengill, laying 20 rods of crossway, $11; Wm.
