POETRY
Snowflakes.
Softly, softly,
Float the feathers through the air,
Downward to the dim old earth,
Shaken on her bosom here,
Now no longer fresh and fair,
Reft of song, of bloom and mirth,
Warily, warily,
Lies a mystic veil of white
Hidden deep and still and low,
Wrapt away from sight and sound
O the violet undergrounds,
Know they of the winter's weep?
