—We give considerable space this week to a letter from the Grand Prelate of the C.O.C.F. referring to correspondence from Hopeville which appeared in our issue of Aug. 16. We have enquired into the matter and are convinced that a great injustice has been done to the Society by remarks, which were intended be sarcastic, and which, we are informed from four sources, are not correct. If from misinformation our correspondent was led to write so, he will understand our feeling. And we will be glad to put him right before REVIEW readers, and we will be glad to put him right before REVIEW readers, and the we wive further reference to the matter till this is done. KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance. Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drug-gists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not
