FIRE ENGINE OR NOT .- When Mr. C. Knapp of the McAlister House, found out that the Town Council had got mad and thrown up the fire engine scheme, he just went to work and walled up the old fashioned fire traps (open fire places) and put in a good solid hardwood floor and wainskirting in the two back sitting rooms of his hotel. Mr. George Moore & Co. did the work.

A deputation of the O. Sound Presbytery visited Burn's Church Rocky Saugeen, last Wednesday for the purpose of uniting that body, Dornoch and the Sauble into one. The proposal has been rejected by Dornoch, so the congregations remain as they were. Reverends Somerville of O. Sound, Acheson, Wiarton, McNab from Kilsyth and Telford of O. Sound, composed the
