

J. SHEWELL & SON

BUSINESS DIRECTORY LEGAL

J. P. TELFORD, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR IN SUFREME COURT NOTARY PUBLIC, Commissioner, etc.,

MONEY TO LOAN. Fire Insurance secured. OFFICE, OVER GRANT'S STORE LOWER TOWN, DURHAM.

W. L. MCKENZIE, Loan and Insurance Agent. Conveyancer, Commissioner &c. Loans arranged without delay. Collections promptly made. Insurance effected. MONEY TO LOAN stlowest rates of Interest office one door north of S. Scot's Store, Durhard

J. T. FOSTER. Dornoch, Ont. COMMISSIONER IN HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE. CONVEYANCER, ETC.

DEEDS, MORTGAGES, LEASES, WILLS, ETC. ATTENDED TO PROMPTLY, NEATLY AND CHEAPLY.

MEDICAL.

DENTISTRY. T. G. HOLT, L. D. S. HONOR Graduate of the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario. Teeth ex-tructed without pain by the use of nitrous exide gas, or vitalized air. Particular attention paid to the filling of the natural teeth. Office and Residence next door West of Post Office. y.614 DURHAM.

MISCELLANEOUS.

HUCH McKAY.

LICENSED AUCTIONEER, for th County of Grey. Sales attended to promp and at reasonable rates. Residence Durham Out

JAMES LOCKIE,

TSSUER of Marriage Licensev. Auc. 1 moneer for Countres of Bruce and Grey Residence-King St., Hanover.

AUCTIONEER.

I icensed Auctioneer, for the County of Grey. barges moderate and satisfaction guaranteed Arrangements for seles can be made at the REVIEW Office, Ducham, or at his residence D. McCORMICK.

DAN. MCLEAN.

T ICENSED AUCTIONEER for Co. of Grey. All communications addressed to Lamlash P. O. will be promptly attended to. Residence Lot 19, Con. 8, Township of Bentinck.

A Farm for Sale.

250 ACRES belonging to the Estate of the late James Burnett, 125 acres under cultivation, rest hardwood bush, being Lots 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, Old D. R. in the Township of Artemesia, County of Grey, two miles from Flesherton Sta- Cheap and Reliable. Guaranteed to tion, three miles from Priceville. For effectualy rouse the most inveterate further particulars apply to A. H. BURNET, Hopeville, WM. McFARLANE, Or to MRS, BURNET, Durham.

There's Big Money!

Following Properties at Prices Asked Lots 211, 242, 243, con. 3, S.W.T. and S. Road, Township Melancthon-174 acres timbered. Lots 241 242, con. 4, S.W.T. and S. Road, Melancthon-100 acres a bush Lot 21S, con. 4, S.W.T. and S. Road, Melancthon-50 acres good bush. Lot 29, con. 5, Melancthon-83 acres

Lot 16, con. 5, Bentinck, 100 acres known as the Jas. Bamford farm-well improved close to Lamlash. Lot 1, Durham Street, North Priceville. Lat 3, Kinross Street, North Priceville. With other splendid Farms in Ontario and the North-West, Toronto and Hanover properties for sale or ex-

MONEY TO LOAN at very lowest rates on good land

FIRE, Life and Accident Insurance. Claims of all kinds collected-Old notes H. H. MILLER, The Hanover Conveyencer.

BOULDIN & CO' FOR SALE The EDGE PROPERTY.

SEE OUR HARNESS. In the Town of Durham, County of Grey, including valuable Water Power-

Brick Dwelling, and many eligible building lots, will be sold in one or more lots. Also lot No. 60, con. 2, W. G. R., Township of Bentinck, 100 acres adjoining Town plot Durham. Mortgage taken for part purchase

Edge Hill, Ont. Outfit free. Apply to JAMES EDGE,

Farm for Sale.

STOCK, TOT 5, con. 1. W G R, Bentines, 120 acres, more or less, good land, well Serseries of 700 acres at Fonthill, Out. watered, soul dw-lling house and stable 20 Wates for particulars at once. premises, Perm very reasonable. Apply to STONE & WELLINGTON. Executer, Durham , '112

Or the oft repeate

Vol. XVI. No. 41.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may

Harris, Tenn., says:

think there is

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We

No Better Medicine,

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better.

Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but concluded, at last, to take his advice and try a box. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me.

I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 210 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."-H. H.

AYER'S PILLS

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Every Dose Effective

Fancy Goods,

EMBROIDERIES

and SILKS.

Wall Papers

at reatly reduced rates

MISS GUN'S.

NEXT Door TO PARKER'S.

S DAY CLOCKS

With cathedral gongs, in very hand-cases and in many Styles.

ALARM CLOCKS

Lower Town, Durham.

JAKE KRESS

opposite the Durham Bakery.

Furniture

Of the Best Quality Cheaper

THAN EVER.

First-Class Hearse.

HARNESS MAKERS.

UPPER TOWN.

We are the only Firm furnishing

STRICTLY FIRST CLASS

CANADIAN GROWN

CLOCKS &

X tolling the

X ceptionally

X cellence of our

X quisite stock of

WATCHES.

Watchmaker & Jeweller,

in all COLORS

Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

WOOLS.

and have induced many to use it.

prevent serious

consequences.

Indigestion,

costiveness,

headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate

certain func-

DURHAM, Co. Grey, Thursday, October 11th, 1894.

CHAPTER V.

the finding of those dead bodies will make noise, and it is not impossible that the work may be traced to us; in which case our silence would weigh against us. I shall re-

Michael might not have advised such a course; but now that his master had presented it, he thought it a good one. And Cinthis, too, finally came to look upon it in the same light. She had learned what had transpired, and her gratitude for Orlando's escape had partially overcome the disposi-

"Certainly," she said, after due deliberation; "you must go. If you openly avow the truth, the duke will not dare to do you open harm; and as for his secret hate, I do not think that this event can increase it. In short, I do not believe that Manfred can have any greater disposition to harm you on account of this, than he has already had,"

"You speak wisely," said Orlando: "and your voice has decided me. My course is plain, and I shall follow it, trusting in God

At a proper time our hero arrayed himself in full knightly costume, with the jeweled cross upon his breast, and the conquer-he proceeded to the ducal palace. When he entered the audience chamber he found quite a crowd collected, and the duke was just questioning some of the guards concerning the death of Matteo and his companions. The event had created quite an excitement, though it was not the cause of

"If Mattee has been slain, depend upon it, he deserved it," remarked a man who wore

This gave him new heart, and he approach-

"The event is not new to me, my lord,"

"Ha," cried the duke, with a slight start

"if such be the case, I will give thee pri-

"No, my lord. I prefer to speak public

y. The matter is one of public interest, and I would have my statement made in the presence of those who have already heard something of the event. I think such is However much Manfred may have wished to hush the voice of the knight, he dared not, after this, refuse to hear his statement

before the audience; so, with as good grace

"Thus did it transpire, my lord; and

"It is most marvellous, added the duke.

well say that, my lord. But," he continued casting his eyes around the chamber, "per haps your highness has been deceived touch been a robber? May he not have been in

"Call for the evidence, and you shall fire of passion starting from every feature.

"Who speaks? Who dares to interrupt

There was no answer to this; but as the duke cast his eyes over the multitude he could plainly see that the mass of those present were ready to echo the sentiment of the unknown speaker. And again he wrestled light hiss in his tone-for he could not quite hide all feeling-"I must accept your version of this strange affair, because, by virtue of your knightly vows, you are subject to a higher tribunal should you perjure yourself.

But, fair sir," he went on, with a softening manner, "I do not doubt your statements;

"Is my presence required further?" in-

"No. We would be glad to confer with you on other subjects, but other business is

With a low bow Orlando withdrew, and as he passed from the chamber, a large number followed him out into the court, some to greet him on the score of old acqueintance, and some to gaze upon him who had overcome the prince and the captain in the joust, and captain following close upon his heels.

upon our hands and time presses."

and I thank you for your promptness in giving me information."

nired the vouth.

Orlando Vendorine," he said, with a with himself, and gained the victory.

as he could command, he directed him to or's scarf upon his shoulder, in which state for the triumph of right."

much mourning.

the garb of a merchant.

well rid of a villain, too."

than he had before felt.

was befitting to the rank.

the tilting ground."

vate audience."

the proper course."

may determine."

There must be some mistake."

as a cloak for gross crimes ?"

in a distant part of the room.

proceed.

make my statement. What think you?"

tional derangements, the best "I attack no man," he said; "but I shall remedy for defend myself to the utmost. I know you; which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegeand I know your business." table, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal tle, and was all ready to meet his huge opfamily medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in phartwo or three armed men emerge from the shadow of the paling; and as near as he macy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, could judge from the glimmering of their armor, they were companions of the bravo.

CHAPTER VII.

MEED OF MORE PLOTTING. "What is this!" cried Orlando Vendorme, starting back, and gazing sharply out upon the strangers who had arisen from behind

"They are nothing to me," returned Mat-"Lock out for yourself." Our here had but a moment for thought. but during that moment his thoughts comprehended considerable - comprehended enough to convince him that the men behind the fence were companions of the villain before him. Matteo had not turned his head; he had not looked behind him; and vet he showed by hiz speech that he knew ust what the youth had seen. How could he have known this if he had not known But the question was no sooner answered in his own mind than he was called upon to defend himself ; for while he yet gazed to see if the strangers were inclined to advance, the brave attacked him. "Insolent cur!" the guardsman shouted, raising his sword, and preparing for the blow, "you have sealed your own doom. This is the fate of those who interfere with Mattee was probably astonished when he found that his sword spent its force upon empty air; but he was not long in recovering himself, and his next blow was given with more care and precision. He did not hit his mark, however; and a fierce oath escaped him. Our hero very quickly discovered that his antagonist was a mere lout at handling the sword; though his immense physical power gave him fatal advantages over ordinary swordsmen. " Forbear " cried Orlando, after the third passage. "I want no more of it." "Ha, ha-you don't, ch! But I do.

must have your life-Ha! Take care-here And so it is was; but not as Mattee meant, He fancied that he was about to cleave the head of his opponent; but instead thereof the point of the youth's sword entered his body directly below the arm, passing through his heart; and, in a very few moments more, his gigantic body tumbled over upon the ground; but not, however, until he had cried out in sharp agonizing tones that Before Vendorme could fairly recover himself from his shock, the men whom he had seen behind the paling, three in number, rushed inupon him with their swords drawn; and as they came near he saw that they were what he had supposed them to bemembers of the ducal guard. "Hold!" he shouted, starting back against the edge of the platform. "What means this violence! Who are you!"

"We'll bet you know who we are," returned the foremest of the guardsmen, stopping for an instant when he reached the body of his fallen companion. "I think for once we'll take a dead prisoner into our hands!-Look, my brothers," he continued, addressing his followers, "this wrotch has slain our lieutenant, and he acts as though he meant to serve us the same. There's no With fierce oaths the three stout soldiers set upon our hero, and the appearance was, that they would soon overcome him. They evidently looked to see him fall at once; but in this they were disappointed. Still they were very good swordsmen, and so keenly lid they ply their blades that the youth had as much as he could do to defend himsolf. Had he but taken the precaution to wear his shirt of mail, he might have laughed at their blows while he swept them from his path; but as it was, he was forced to defend every part of his body with his own

"Saint Peter!" cried one of the villains, 'can we not hit this fellow? Let me take a fair sweep at him. There!" If the rascal had kept his tongue to himself his furious onset might have accomplish ed something; but his boastful words had caused his companions to fall back so that he might have room; and thus, for the moment, he was the youth's only antagonist. His sword came down with a powerful sweep, but was caught and turned away, and before he could recover himself he was pricked through the neck. At this time the other two lunged forward, and they might have borne the young armorer down had not the play been suddenly interrupted. "Orlando! Orlando!" cried a voice from the gate-way, accompanied by the sound of rushing feet. "Ha!-here! Quick, It was Michael Totilla, and just in season. As he came near he saw how the case stood; and, without hesitation, he drew his sword and cleaved one of the villains heads clean from its shoulders; and in a moment more the remaining ruffian was sent to earth with his skull almost severed

"By the mass, my good Michael," said Orlando, as soon as he had time to take breath, " this is a curious work." "Indeed it is, my master," returned the artizan, gazing around him. If I mistake not, yonder lies the huge body of Matteo."
"Yes," replied Orlando. "He attacked ne first; and as I slew him, these other three followed his example." And thereupon the youth related minutely all that "I came just in time," said Michael, after he had heard the story. "I feared there might be some danger when Cinthia told me that you had gone out; for I knew there had been people lurking around the house; so I came away after you as quickly as pos-sible; and my instinct was true. They meant to finish you, surely." "Ave. And who, think you, planned

:his thing?" queried Orlando. "It must have been some one who held control of the guard," replied Michael, "Certainly; and I think the duke is the prime mover. But what shali we do now?" This was a question which Michael did not feel competant to answer. "You have but to command," he said, "and I will obey; but I can give no advice in this case.'

Orlando reflected awhile, and finally he "I think I will go home and sleep upon it, and in the morning I shall be prepared to decide. We will let these bodies remain OOD OPENING and permanent situ will Can you recommend anything bet-Atlan to the right party: salary or com- ter"

"Then let us return."
The armorers reached their house without further molestation, and as they did not wish that Cinthia should know what had transpired, they said nothing of the bloody fray, but conversed as thought nothing un-usual had happened; and so they retired to their rest without awakening any suspicion in the mind of the auxious wife. On the following morning, Orlando had made up his mind to go to the duite gud make a plain statement of what had transpired, wit is lighter so, he said. "Of course

"I don't know. I car only assure you that I feel it. Did you not mark how the crowd stood by him? how they gloried in his deeds, and how they followed him from the chamber? I dare not trust such inflammable material with my people. These Milanese are a passionate set, and ripe for mischief. And, my captain, I do not trust much to their love for me." "True, my lord."
"Nor in their love for you, either, de

"True again, your highness. I know them as well as you do." "And do you not believe that they would glory in following such a champion as this Orlando Vendorme, if they should once fall into his lead?" "By my soul, I do."
"And," pursued the duke, "his knightod would give him good character for such "You speak my own thoughts, my lord."

"Then we must have him. We have failed "But," interrupted de Castro, smiting his fists together, "we will not fail again! I have a plan, safe and sure." "Mind you," said Manfred, "there must be no noise-no outward sign; for I know that the youth hath powerful friends." "Rest easy, my laid. I have it in my mind, and the execution shall be swift and secret. There shall be no second escape. The upstart shall disappear as quietly as t sun goes down at the close of day."

CHAPTER VIII. THE END OF A DARK JOURNEY. Orlando Vendorme returned to his shop, where he found Michael and his wife extremely anxious. "Not wholly on your account have I worried," said Cinthia, after our hero had taken a seat. "My husband is somewhat implicated, and I have feared for him." You need fear no more," returned Orlando. "The duke has heard the whole truth, and he has dismissed the case. If there is danger beyond this, there must be another pretext for it." "For myself," remarked Michael, "I have no idea that Manfred will cherish vengeance, but for you I have not the assurance. "I understand you," said Orlando, "and I am prepared to have a care for myself, I know that the duke hates me, and I know that the prince hates me, and I know that Huge de Castro hates me, and furthermore, I have become convinced that they will try to remove me from their way. Why they should feel thus—why they should regard me with such deadly hatred—I cannot un-" Aye," responded another ; " and we are "You speak truly," added a third person. "I can understand it," said Cinthia. I have heard it whispered-and I believe t true-that this same Mattee has been en-"I think it all very plain." gaged with the robbers that infest the coun-"The duke and the prince have not fortry, and that his uniform has been a cloak gotten that Rosabel of Bergamo loves you." Both the men regarded her curiously. "I think she is well cured of that folly Orlando heard all this, and he saw that the speakers were men of influence in society 1 by this time," said Orlando. and he observed, furthermore, that those who stood near, and had overheard the re-

"No, no," returned Cinthia, who did not like to have her ideas disputed. "The love marks, seemed to sympathize with them. of a true woman is not so easily turned from its object. I can read her heart as plainly ed the ducal chair with more confidence as though it beat in my own bosom. know that her affections did once become When Manfred nest beheld our hero, his fixed on you, and I do not think that your subsequent misfortunes have weakened the brow grew dark and scowling, and his frame quivered from head to foot ; but when he emotion. What is the inducement presented to her to turn from you? It is the prosaw how the people made way for the youth, spect of marriage with the brutal Ludovico. and how they murmured their admiration of his noble bearing, he brought his feelings Merciful Heaven! what a choice is that! Do under control, and received the knight as you think that her emotion when she bestowed the conqueror's scarf upon you was "Ah, Sir Orlando," he said, struggling without meaning? I tell you, Orlando Vendorme, the duke and the prince have mightily to form his speech, "you have reason to fear you. I can see it. I know come just in sesson to hear news. Four of our ducal guard were killed last night upon where the trouble is. The castle of Bergame, with its belongings, is the prize, and they cannot afford to lose it." "Never mind," interposed Michael, with returned Orlando; "and it is to explain an impatient gesture; "let that be as the affair that has called me here this morn-it may, of one thing we are assured : There is danger, and our friend must keep clea-"You speak truly," said Orlando, "and I have resolved upon my course. I shall finish the shirt of mail for that young lord of Hartburg as soon as I can, and then I shall quit Milan forever!" He spoke sadly, and with his hand pressed upon his bosom. In a few moments he raised his head, and add-"And while I remain here, I shall keep myself within the old house. There is nothing to call me forth, and I shall finish my work more speedily. I think that will be the safest course." "Aye," cried Michael, "the safest by far.

"My lord," said Orlando, speaking in a Adhere to that, and there can be no danger thereupon he gave a full and particular ac-And-perhaps-when you leave Milan, you count of his meeting with Matteo-of the will allow me to go with you." "We'll see about that, Michael." unprovoked attempt of the buge brave upon his life-of his slaying the wretch-of the "I am in earnest, my master. subsequent attack by the three guardsmen "Very well-we'll see. And now I think it is time we had dinner-ch, Cinthia ?" who had been concealed behind the paling-After dinner Orlando put on his working of his killing one of them-of the opporgarb and took his place at the bench, where tune arrival of his friend, Michael Totillahe worked rapidly until late into the night. and of the final death of the other two as-On the following morning he came down, and found Cinthia alone in the kitchen. He crossed the room several times, and twice have taken this first opportunity to make the matter known to you, that you may he moved as though he would go towards pronounce upon it as in your wisdom you the shop, but he did not go. Finally he stopped near to where the housewife stood. Hugh de Castro moved to the duke's side, "Cinthia," ne said, with a hesitation that and whispered into his ear, but Manfred betrayed his emotion, "you spoke yesterday of the princess Rosabel. You said that she "It is not probable," said de Castro, loved me. Have you seen her since I was aloud, "that our guardsmen would thus banished from the city ?" "Goodness me!" cried the little woman, provoke a peaceable citizen without cause. "what a quoseion. Where should I have "Aye," responded Orlando, "you may

"I did not know--"Ah, my brother, I am sorry I spoke as I did. I did not think, when I introduced the subject of the princess, that you cherishing the character of this Mattee. May he ed anything like love for her." "And did you think that the love of a true not have been a villain! May he not have man could not be constant?" returned Orlando, with a tinge of bitterness in his tone. the habit of using the authority of his office "Forgive me, my brother! O, forgive me! I did not think what I was saying. I did not know as you ever gave your heart have witnesses by the score !" said a voice Manfred sprang from his reat, with the

"Ave. Cinthia-mad as it may have been, I did give her my heart, and I allowed myself to dream of her as a prize to be won." "How could you hope to win her?" "She would have solved the problem ber self, if the duke had not interfered." "I know," said Cinthia "but you cannot hope for that opportunity again. "I know not why," returned Orlando, with more boldness. "If she was willing to flee with me when I was but an humble artizan, why should she not be willing to de

it now that I am elevated to the order of "But she was driven to desperation "By prospect of marriage with a man whom she despised." "And has she not the same prospect before

"Ah, my brother, you must not let your thoughts run in that channel. It is dangerous. If it does not bring destruction upon you, it will ruln your peace of mind. Let the princess wed in her legitimate sphere, and do you look in another direction." Orlando was about to reply, when he was interrupted by the entrance of Michael, and so the conversation dropped.

The shirt of mail progressed rapidly, and the workmen believed they were producing a piece of armor which could not be excelled. The body of the garment was finished, and the shoulder-pieces attached, and it was

(To be continued.) ELECTRIC ROAD. -Some of the people

THE SONGS THAT MILET SINGS. ODDS AND ENDS. What music could be sweeter than the rhythm It is important to keep the liver and Whole No. 840.

kidneys in good condition. Hood's Sarsaparille is the remedy for invigorating

The man will stand the greatest chance

To remove the constipated habit, the Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more barm than good, therefore leading physicians ecommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a recently spoke strongly on the question of the election of public officers by the p ple. Fr m his experience he declar ed it was the curse of the United States, and he hoped that Ontario would never adopt the system they had on the other side of electing their public or county

'Weary Willie" element had caught on to this, and these who want to come from one gaol to another. . And as able to escape that tired feeling caused by breaking hardheads. - O. S. Times.

meeting of McCarthyite and Patron executive committees for the county held here, the nomination of the House of Commons was tendered to P. D. Scott, ex-warden of the county. Mr. Scott, although a life long Conservative, has with his party on the trade question,

AN INTERISTING CHAT WITH THE REV. W. J. CHAPIN.

In the Strain of Pulpit Labor He had

From the Springfield, Ill., Journal.

Health.

Overdrawn his Health Account-

How he met the Crisis and Return ed to his Duties with Renewed

In the pretty village of Chatham, Ill.,

there lives a Baptist divine whose snow white hair is the one outward sign that he has encroached upon the days beyond ed him something of his career in the ministry, Mr. Chapin talked in an interesting strain, and said that, in spite of

"As my present appearance testifies, of my muscles that my fingers would absolutely no volition on my part. A-and follows that strange malady. 1

looked in vain for something to bring

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Something seemed to tell me that they would do me good and I commenced using them. they gave me addition-

again to resume my duties as a minister.

Mrs. Chapin was present during the conversation and said: "I don't think

Mr. Chapin could ever have resumed his preaching after he had the attack of la grippe had it not been for Pink Pills.

They did him so much good that I decided to try their efficacy on myself. I have been troubled for years with what our physician, Dr. Hewitt, called rheumatic paralysis, and since taking the Pink Pills I have been stronger and the pain in my right arm and hand is less acute. We keep the pills in the house all the time, and they do me a great deal of good in the way of toning up my system and strengthening me."

iams' Pink Pills.

deeds in the christian ministry.

Who lets his wife bring up the kids,

While he brings up the coal.

For saving of his soul

Through the sunny summer that Riley singui Oh, I linger as I loitor through a listle shyme-Till I know the very pattern of the shadowe at and my happy heart

th, little boy of Biley's worn and old, with your freeigled face and sunny heart of gold,
I never knew how bine the fields how event.

atimulant of joy As I hear the bubbling laughter of a for I love each blade of thmothy you feet have pressed. Oh, the sadness and the gladn breath of many springs In the rhyming, chiming melodies t -Lee Lloyd in Kate Field's Washington

CURIOUS CATERPILLARS.

Annually In France. The extensive pine forest which covers the dunes of southwestern France, stretching from the "Bassin d'Arcachon" on the north for many miles southward toward Biarritz, is the home of a curious caterpillar, Bombyx pythiocampa, of the same family as the silkworm. These insects possess a few interesting characteristics. They pass the winter in nests at the pine tree top-very snug nests, woven around a bunch of pine needles, and large enough to accommodate a family of from 50 to 200.

Spring having arrived, each community leaves its winter home and prepares to set out into an unknown world. On leaving the nest they form a procession in single file, each caterpillar in immediate communication with the one preceding and the one following it. In this manner they descend the tall pine and reach terra firma. From this habit they acquire the local name of Chenille processionnaire, or processional caterpillar, Their principal object now is to bury not for many months been in accord themselves in the sand, and to achieve this some distance has often to be traversed before a spot suitable for the purpose can be found. Especially is this so when the pine trees happen to be situated in the streets or gardens of Arcachon, and in such a case an interesting and rather amusing sight may be seen, when a procession consisting of some hundreds of the insects, and perhaps 15 or 16 yards in length, wends its way slowly along the road. Let us detach two or three from the middle of the line, thus dividing it into two parties, and watch the result. The last of the foremost portion, feeling the loss of his neighbor, immediately stops, and this action is communicated all along the line until the vanguard is at a standstill, Meanwhile the leader of the rear portion redoubles his speed, and in a short time has caught up to the foremost party, and the touch being communicated, the whole procession resumes the march with as little delay as possible. When a suitable place has been found, the party forms into a group, and by a gentle wriggling motion digs a hole in the soft sand in which the chrysalis state is attained.—Chambers' Jour-A Turkish Illusion.

Since the veil has fallen into partial disuse the charm of the Turkish woman has also departed. Marion Crawford tells us: "The yashmak is not what it was 10 years ago and has almost ceased to hide the face at all. Strict as the sultan's ordinance is, there is not the slightest pretense of obeying it, and, in the great majority of cases, a thin white veil barely covers the forehead and is but loosely drawn under the chin.

"It must be admitted that with the disuse of that old fashioned veil a great illusion has disappeared from the streets of Constantinople. There was something very mysterious about it. Black eyes never looked so black and deep and liquid as when seen by themselves, as it were, between two broad bands of opaque white. In those days every yashmak veiled an ideal beauty, very different from the ugliness of the pale and flaccid features which its absence now generally discloses. One is inclined to doubt whether the mirror is in common use in the harem of today." Caribou Horns.

Not one out of every ten female caribou has horns. When they do have them, they are much smaller than those of the bull. The horns of the female have, however, in general many more branches than those of the bull, and they are much more regularly and finely formed. The cows carry their horns much longer than the bulls. They have been seen with their horns in the month of April. The old bulls shed theirs from the tenth to the last of November. They hardly ever carry them after the month of November: The young bulls shed theirs from the first of December until the middle of February. The younger the animal the longer he retains his horns.-Forest and

De You Save? Do you save anything? Even if i be ever so little, do you lay it byl Of course you do not! You have not the saving faculty, you say. Well, all right. Then you might as well make up your mind that you will always be a wageworker, that your usefulness will diminish as the years

REVIEW IS PUBLISHED EVERY

Thursday Morning. -AT THE-REVIEW OFFICE, GARAFRAXA,

ST., DURHAM. TERMS; $1 per year, IN ADVANCE. CHAS. RAMAGE Editor & Proprietor.

StandardBank of Canada Head Office, Toronto.

CAPITAL, Authorized $2,000,000 1,000,000 Paid up RESERVE FUND

Geo. P. Reid, W. F. Cowan,

A GENTS in all principal points in Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba United States and Ensland. only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's

DURHAM AGENCY

SAVINGS BANK

J. KELLY, Agent.

-TO ATTEND-

ONLY SEVEN IN GAOL: - There are O NORTHERNA ON only seven personers in the county gaol Jusiness offege at present; the annual influx of tramps not having commenced. As the reg-OWEN SOUND, ONT., ulations are at present only those sentenced to a second term in the same Ir You DESIRE To GET A Goes goal are put at stone breaking. The BUSINEESS EDUCATION. Handreds of young men and women havetaken in out of the winter's cold just jog along a business course during the past ten years whe the most through and complete in Canada, Then there are forty gaols the majority are is as much in the junior department as in the on-colleges. The thort hand course is thorough and nounc neat containing full particulars, Is to Milton, Ont, Oct. 1,-At a joint sens seto any address. C A. FLEMING. Principal

Has opened out a first-class Horse Shoeing Shop,

In the old stand. All hame made shoes. Also WOODWORK in connection.

A first-class lot of the allotted three score years and ten. His clear eye, keen mental faculties and magnificent physique all bear witness to a life well spent. This pioneer in God's Hand-made Waggons for sale cheap. eternal vineyard is Rev. W. J. Chapin, whose 72 years are crowded with noble Jobbing of all kinds promptly To a Journal representative who ask-

ALLAN McFARLANE,

the indications to the contrary, his life LOT FOR SALE had not all been sunshine and good

For sale on easy terms Westlalf of I was fortunate in the possession of a 21 on 6th con., Glenelg. For partic very vigorous constitution. But as its J. H. HUNTER, Este too often the case, I overestimated my physical resources, and when it was too late learned that I had overdrawn my

> Grand Trunk Railway. TIME TABLE.

GOING BOUTH. man. I felt absolutely worthless physi- Toronto. cally and mentally. I had lost control London 11.15 a. m. GOING NOBER involuntarily release their grip upon a Durham 3.45 p.m. pen, and my hand would turn over with Mt. Forest, bout two years ago, to intensify mat- Guelph, ters I was seized with a severe attack of Toronto la grippe. I recovered only partially London. from it and had frequent returns of that indescribable feeling which accompanies trainsfrom Darham aremade at Palmer

TIME TABLE.

GOING NORTH

McLEOD'S System Renova --- AND OTHER ---

TESTED REMED

Female kre

act directly upon the blood and nerves. postpaid, on receipt of 50 cents a box, Laboratory health account. The crisis came about eighteen years ago. At the time I was preaching the gospel from the pulpit, and I became suddenly so ill that I was compelled to stop before my sermon was finished. It was a bad case of nervous prostration, and for a time my friends and family were greatly exercised over my condition. Complete rest was imperative, and Mrs. Chapin and I Durham planned and took a long trip. My Holstein, health was sufficiently restored to Palmerston esume work, but I was not the same | Gnelph.

relief and finally I read an account of Canadian Pacific Rail al strength from the start and toned up my system from a condition of almost absolute prostration so that I was able Toronto, The improvement was simply marvel. Toronto. ous, and the credit is due to Dr. Will-

SPECIFIC and ANT For Impure, Weak and

In all cases like the above Pink Pills sumption, Gall Stores, offer a speedy and certain cure. They and Urinary Discours, He

Sold by all dealers, or sent by mail, or $2.50 for 6 boxes, by addressing the slain the giant Matteo in a hand-to-hand Manfred seemed to have little heart for the dispatch of business after Vendorme had gone; and as soon as possible he cleared his docket, and left the audience-chamber, his "By the blood of my heart," cried the duke, when he reached his closet, "what shall be done now? Hath this fellow a Shelburne. This road would tap Dur, is the persistent saver on whose side Walkerton for a time, Many believe his way. Maybe you have noticed adapted to the country to be traversed.

"He hath had most marvellous fortune," slied de Castro, smitting himself with vexa-"But the end is not yet. And yet I would see the end of this upstart, my captain,"
"You shall see it, my lord,"
"But how? I thought when Mattee was sworn to the work, that he had him most "So did I; but we were mistaken. How-ever his lease of liberty is not long."
"Mark me, de Castre; our ewa safety may epend upon a speedy removal of this Veur that this class of road is the one best that yourself .- New York Dispatch. The expense of building it would be out July and August's make of butter comparatively light as the grades may at 183 cents per it to Mr. Brill of Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y. Beware of the past that the a regular rail- have been shipping in pound rolls the substitutes and nostrums alleged to be total make at 28 cents per it.

of Hanover are agitating for an electric go by, and with it your money earn: road to connect with the C. P. R. at ing power. Very few men who made ham and Hanover and terminate at juck is. Somehow the changes come

The Holstein creamery has cleaned