which was given in the Massey M Hali last night, under the patronage His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Lieut. Col. Ma and the officers of the regiment, w seat was filled, and it is estimated there were at least 5,000 people in hali. Much of the youth, beauty fashion of the city were there, and sprinkling of scarlet tunics added ma to the gaiety of the scene. The feat of the programme was Mr. W. E. Ra say's "Trip Around the World," illu ated by colored scenes which were exlent, and Mr. Ramsay gave a descript of each of the places. This was done a very racy style, while he also introd ed a miscellaneous collection of hun ous stories, sayings and songs of kinds, from comic to sentimental, was quite "Kiplingesque" in this styl every little thing reminded him nother story. His droll stories quaint sayings were irresistibly min provoking, but in his songs, particula those of a comic, character, he a simply inimitable, and his audies roared with laughter. Another attr tive feature about his songs, was, the they were all new; with the solita exception of "The Village Blacksmit none of them having been sung be
