Japan's war expenses are said to be about $1,000,000 per day. At that rate the $20,000,000 day negotiated a couple of months ago, will not go a great way...

The law of finding is not generally understood, but it was declared many years ago, and it will not be the case and the decision. A visitor to a store found a wallet containing a sum of money...

PROTON CENTRE. The snow has made its appearance, and although we have had a very dry fall yet a great many have not got their tunics up and are not prepared for winter.

Quite a number around here have scarlet fever and diphtheria. If they don't catch more cold all seem to be getting over it nicely.

Mr. W. Bryce had a logging bee last week also Mr. J. Jackson. They both got a fine piece logged considering the weather. Mr. W. Bryce gave the young folks a party in the evening at which every one enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. T. Wilson, of Luther, was the guest of Mr. A. Rodger, last week. Mr. McEneaney, who has been visiting friends in Honake for the last few weeks has returned home.

Mr. J. Jackson, of Luther, formerly of Proton Centre, was visiting at Mr. P. Fullerton's last week. Messrs J. and F. Riddle passed through this place last week and gave us a call.

The cart has once more started to take the lead in traffic through Proton Centre. Messrs George Woolsey and William Bryce took in Mr. Forest last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Bateleur were visiting friends in Hopville on Sabbath last.

THE REVIEW

Durham, Nov. 15th, 1894.

The China-Japanese war news does not present any new feature. There have been no engagements since the Japanese slow closing in upon Port Arthur.

As we go to press the news comes that Port Arthur has fallen into the hands of the Japanese, almost without a shot being fired. So soon as the Japanese had passed the outer forts the Chinese threw down their arms and fled.

Lord Mayor's day in London, England has generally been a noble one, on account of the pageantry, and the crowds which gather to see the show.

Mr. Moody has now been engaged for about 35 years in evangelistic work and in that time he has labored incessantly on both sides of the Atlantic.

The election of last week in the United States has resulted in a decided victory for the Republicans. The causes are several and are not far to seek.

After dealing with the Behring Sea question and the failure of justice in sentencing the "Maine" the corporation will be in such a way that the amended bill became more burdensome to the people than the N. P. had not the prospect of personal gain, turned their backs upon Mr. McKenzie's Free trade policy.

On Friday the ratifiers of this town will have the first opportunity they have ever had of voting on a by-law looking towards fire protection.

willful assent. With some this assent is evanescent, with others it is permanent, and so it has ever been since the days of Noah.

After the usual devotional exercises Mr. Moody addressed the great multitude on the subject of prayer, in a simple earnest way.

He discussed his subject in a free and easy way under the heads of humility, unity, faith, submission, resignation, perseverance, petition, forgiveness and thanksgiving, in prayer.

Markdale Standard.—The late Carr was a man of peace, yet appears to have had the sympathy of Warring Kenney, Mayor of Toronto, who called a message of sympathy. Who was an editor cut it make a joke? Almost three generations of Durhams have utilized that bill as a toboggan slide. The small boy and girl take their toy and girl toy and out in town these nights. It is dangerous, but old my it is nice. "Go," but be careful!

Another large shipment of boots and shoes to hand which will be well according to the price. We offer them. At Ramsey and Moulton's. We are indebted to Mr. Arthur Ginn, of the McGill College, Montreal, for a copy of the McGill Yearbook. It is replete with College information, class reports, sports, etc. and well as usual college matter. It is well printed on excellent paper.

You may eat cheap food and not be seriously hurt by it; but you cannot take cheap medicines without positive injury. If you use any substitute for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, you do so at the peril of your health, perhaps of your life. Just of having Ayer's, and no other.

Last week's Canadian Green has a very good cut and descriptive of a press of Mr. Jas. A. Hunter, one of Durham's pushing business men. Nothing is omitted. As lawyer, newspaper editor, and as in West Grey was prominent in the program. Mr. Campbell is in request whose teaching "most do encourage," in Conventions, Normal Schools, &c.

Mr. N. W. Campbell returned Friday evening last, after two weeks' official work in Meaford, Thornbury, &c. He attended the Conference of the Ontario and as in West Grey was prominent in the program. Mr. Campbell is in request whose teaching "most do encourage," in Conventions, Normal Schools, &c.

Common sense should be used in attempting to cure that very distressing disease, catarrh. As catarrh originates in impurities in the blood, local application can do no permanent good. The common sense method of treatment is to purify the blood, and for this purpose there is no preparation superior to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We have received a copy of the Northern Bus. Cot. Journal, published by C. A. Fleming, the Principal of the Fleming Institute, Owen Sound. It is replete with his energies and has done a College in Winnipeg on the same lines as the "Northern Bus." Although business education there are few places equal to Mr. Fleming's Institution.

The Board of Directors of South Grey Farmers Institute met last Saturday at the Midway House to make arrangements for the winter meetings. Vice President Irvine in the chair. The Annual Meeting will be held in Durham and another meeting in Ayrton, the dates of which will be given later. The Subjects chosen for Durham meeting are "The comparative advantages of feeding for beef or for the dairy" and "The culture of fruit best adapted for the district." Both of these are of great interest under present farming conditions here, and another subject to be introduced by Rev. Binnie, of Glenzie, is also of great consequence—"How best to improve Township roads." At the Ayrton meeting one subject will be "How best to conduct dairy operations the year round" a subject which, at the house of the Wenzler's, famous butter makes as they are, and prove interesting. Another Subject is "The depletion and remedy." Committees were appointed to make arrangements for both meetings.
