The Board of Directors of South Grey the Middaugh House to make arrangements for the winter meetings. Vice President Irvine in the chair. The Annual Meeting will be held in Durham and another meeting in Ayton, the dates of which will be given later on The Subjects chosen for Durham meeting are "The comparative advantages of feeding for beef or for the Cairy" and "The culture of fruit best adapted for the district." Both of these are of great interest under present farming conditions here, and another subject to be introduced by Reeve Binnie, of Glenelg, is also of great consequence "How best to improve Township roads." At the Ayton meeting one subject will be "How hest to conduct dairy operations the year round" a subject which, at the home of the Wenger's, famous batter makers as they are, must prove interesting. Another Subject is "The depletion of our foresos, its climatic influence, and the remedy." Committees were appointed to make arrangements for both meet-
