

LOCAL NEWS.

Murchell Cor. unavoidably left over. Highest price paid for lard and tallow at C. McArthur's.

Parlor Sculpt at the residence of Mrs. ...

What People Want

CHRISTMAS NUMBER.

SANTA CLAUS

just such a difference between them as there was between the parts of the house they lived in.

This Canada of Ours.

MID heartfelt praise the standard raise of Canada, our glory— Bid her 'Godspeed,' she who's decreed to live in song and story!

ABERDEEN.

S. held a social on Friday to raise money for the pupils of that weather looked rather with now and then short wards night it seemed to doubtly this kept num-in want the very latest fashions, or neckties call them complete stock-

Table with 2 columns: Item description and Price. Includes items like 'worth 12c for 10c', '10cents', '5', '3', '8', '100s. for 25', '$1.00', '1.00', 'worth 35c. 25', '71s. for $1.00', '25', '25'.

$5.00 for $3.00, $8.00 for $5.00, 10.00 for $7.50

INS, RES,

LEY.

ns!!!

HOES

Call and the lowest

GS. R, ham.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO

ven made of India rubber, and motherly little Betty all the while putting on the supper and smiling demurely at them as if they were so many frigidome sisters.

Page Ned and Betty sat in front of the fire after smiling lovingly at each other until it was quite certain that the little ones were sound asleep.

A PRECIOUS HAMPER

A PRECIOUS HAMPER

fell on his knees on the floor and began to search. Betty asked for no explanation. She put the hamper on the floor and searched too.

The little brown house Ned Joyce lived in had been a country cottage once; but

ST. BERNARD - REMORE.

"Oh, you'll never find it!" said Mr. Steens, adding with his most unpleasant laugh: "And your presents were all selected, too, eh?"

forward, he passed down into her face and demanded!

"Didn't you get that twenty dollars last night from a little fat man who was in a terrible fright?"

"What luck?" he piped in his thin voice, "for me to find his twenty dollars, I'll see that he doesn't get 'em before Christmas."

Yes, Ned Joyce had commandeered that turkey. He had very bravely gone into the butcher-shop and said:

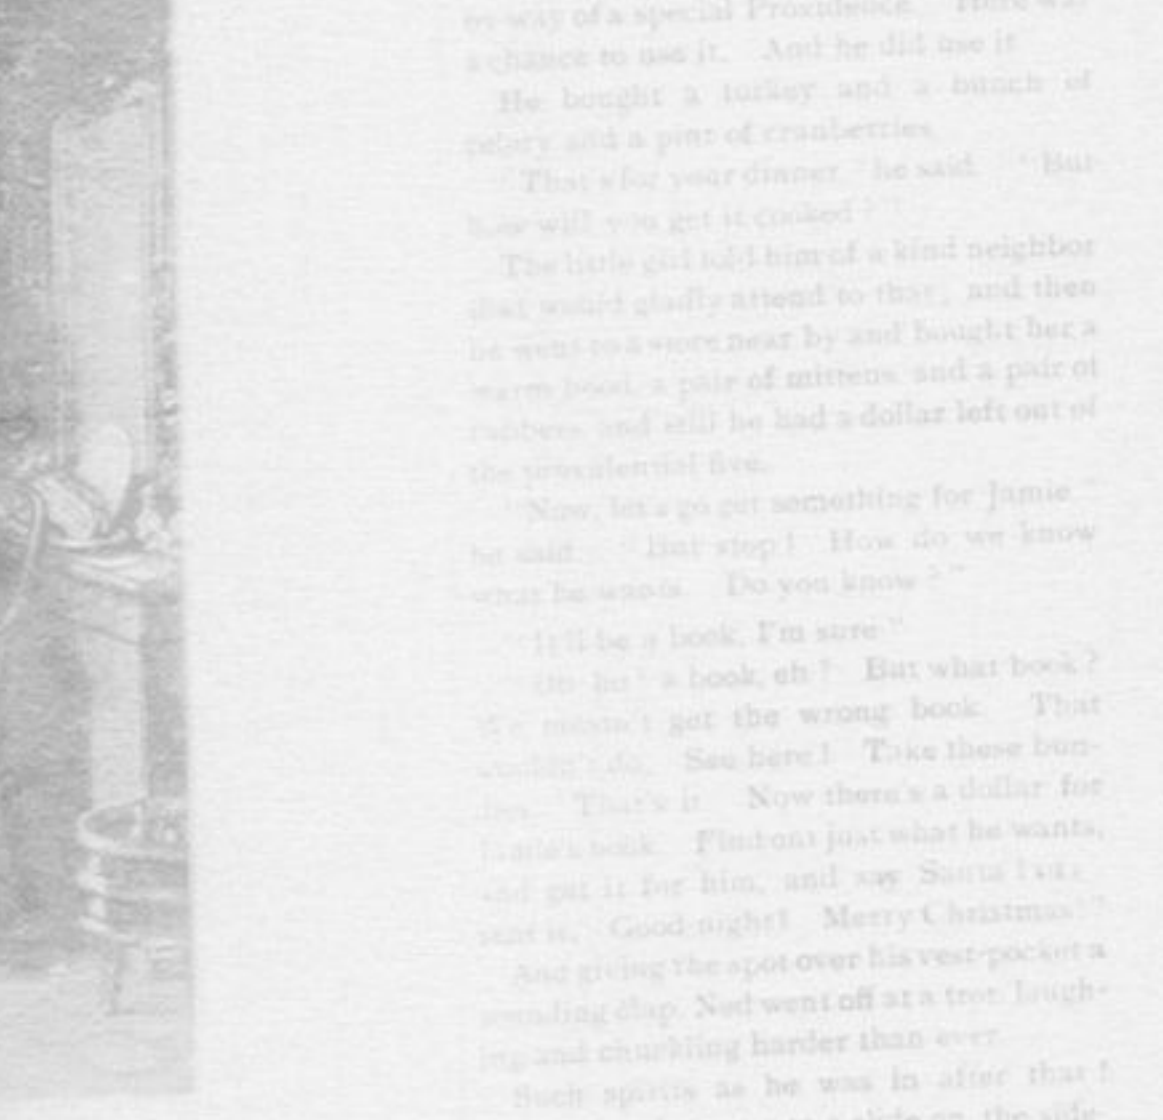

IN TROUBLE

fresh oysters at J. A. Hunter's, price at McKinnon's.

fresh oysters at J. A. Hunter's, price at McKinnon's.

fresh oysters at J. A. Hunter's, price at McKinnon's.

THE KISSING WELL.