Mr. Wm. Watson, of North Egremont made a good sale the other day of a yoke of 2 year-old steers for $50 but they were good, and he is a good feeder.

IN OLDEN TIMES.—People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

A large crowd enjoyed the S. S. entertainment at the Methodist church last Thursday. The chief feature of the evening being a large boat load of good things sent by Santa Claus to the S. S. children. Where all did so well, and how could it be otherwise with Mr. Parker and Miss Orchard at the helm, it would not be right to particularize, but the little girls sang and looked like angels, while the boys rendered their parts well. A good dialogue with a moral by four ladies was well done. Mr. Pomeroy filled the chair very acceptably.

Mr. John A. Conkey the popular senior clerk of the McFarlane & Co. staff leaves this week for a few days at his old home stead, in Artemesia. On Monday next he will leave for Toronto to take his final six months course at the Ontario College of Pharmacy. It is needless to say that Mr. Conkey's always pleasant and winning manner will be much missed from behind the counter where he so busy and faithfully served as well as from the Church choir and Christian Endeavor of which he was an active member and worker. Our readers will remember his success in the past in his course of study and the REVIEW joins in with his numerous friends wishing him similar success in the future and that he will yet again return to our midst. We understand Mr. Harris, of Glencoe is his successor.

The annual Christmas Entertainment of Varney S.S. has come to be so widely known and highly appreciated that a full house always gives inspiration to the performers. 1894 was no exception many being unable to secure seats. The Rev. E. L. Flagg, pastor occupied the chair. The singing rendered by the Misses Cochrane & Co., of Durham was highly appreciated. Also the singing, reading and dialogues by the children of the school were bright, appropriate and well rendered. The calisthenic exercises by the children, under the leadership of Mrs. Flagg, were an interesting feature of the program. Wm. Allan Esq., delivered a suitable address. The fruits of the Xmas tree were then handpicked and put away for safe keeping. The proceeds, to be devoted to S.S. purposes, amounted to about $[illegible].

W. Taylor, the Sheffield Cutler, will stay in Durham a short time longer, to give all an opportunity to have their Scissors, Sheep Shears, Knives and Razors ground and made equal to new. Saws filed and set and put in good order. Lawn Mowers sharpened and repaired. Umbrellas and Parasols neatly repaired, and old ones purchased. Skates hollow ground by latest improved machinery. Razors ground honed and set ready for shaving, new Blades put into old Handles, I use no Emery Wheels so that you need not be afraid of the temper being drawn, my grindstones all revolve in water, for superior work come direct to W. Taylor, the Sheffield Cutler's Van, opposite Middaugh House, Lampton St., Lower Town, Durham.

OBITUARY.—There died in the town of Durham on the 23rd of Dec 1894, Christina Cameron, widow of the late Malcolm McQuarrie at the good old age of 97 years. The deceased, who was the last surviving member of a family of nine was born in the Ross of Mull Scotland, in 1797 and emigrated to Canada in 1834 to the township Vaughan where she was married to the late Malcolm McQuarrie. They then moved to Bentinck in 1847, where she continued to live till a few years ago. After her husband's death she removed to Durham, where she died. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Jansen both at house and grave. She was buried at the Rocky Saugeen Cemetery. She leaves one son, who resides at Vernore, Wisconsin.

The Chesley Enterprise in a recent issue tells an amusing and sharp trick played by M. Jacklin, 1st dep. Reeve of Bentinck, on the Tp. of Normanby. It is as follows: an old, dejected and worn-out horse lay near death's door as well as Mr. J's, and to save his own township the expense of a funeral gave a boy 50 cts. to drive it into Normanby to die. The Normanby Council got it killed and buried at a cost of $4, and were shortly afterwards informed by Mr. J. that they had rendered themselves liable to an action should the owner appear, as the proper course was to impound it. "No owner has appeared however and an expense of four dollars and two badly-frightened representatives was the only result of Mony's (Moses') trick. No other man would think of saving money for a municipality after that kind of manner, and as a reward for his astuteness, the big first deputy should be returned by acclamation.

Mr. Robert Austin was born in Morayshire, Scotland, in 1822. He emigrated to Brantford in 1851, and after a few years spent there as a miller, he moved to Fergus in 1855, and became owner of the mills there, operating them until well on in the sixties. In 1856, he married Miss Mary Milne whose name and character is still remembered in Durham with affectionate love. All his children were born in Fergus except one. The family consists of four boys and four girls. Mrs. Raymond, (Margie) of Emerado, N. Dakota, is the oldest. Robert, is a carriage builder in Holland Centre, and learnt his trade in this town. Mrs. Jamieson, (Mary) of Galt. Alexander and John are successful blacksmiths at Reynolds, N. Dakota. James, the youngest son, is at present a student in McCormick Theological Seminary of the Pres Church, Chicago. The other surviving daughter, is Miss Aggie Austin, who is well known in Durham, but makes her home with Mrs. Jamieson, of Galt. One girl, Mynda, died in youth. Mr. Austin came to Durham 18 years ago, and was for some time engaged in McKechnie's mill. Failing eyesight compelled him to quit milling, and since then he has occupied his time in gardening for which he had both taste and aptitude.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY.—South American Rheumatism Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by McFarlane & Co.

Mr. Frank Coleridge left on Tuesday to assume the Principal-ship of Pt. Edward public school. He has been attending the School of Pedagogy for the past term and we congratulate him on his success, being one of two who have passed for 1st class public school certificates as well as qualified for an assistant High School teacher.

TRINITY CHURCH S. S. ENTERTAINMENT.—The Town Hall was comfortably filled on Friday evening last to listen to the long varied, and interesting program prepared by several dozen young people of Trinity Church. To Misses Vollet and Meredith great credit is due, as to their exertions the success was largely attributable. The band lent their aid. Rice Meredith acted as Chairman and called off the various performers in good style. Rev. Mr. Connor's address was a graphic one, a sermon on Sin, Redemption, Sanctification, and Glory from a book of four typical colors: black, red, white and gold. There were choruses a plenty from whitecrobed girls, and solos from girls of all sizes. The little boys in recitation, song and dialogue were not behind. Little Robbie Hughes deserved his encore and will make his mark on the platform yet, while Miss Mary McCreary in the "train to Mauro' showed a dramatic power some professionals might envy. There were dolls and doll drills, a scarf drill by seven young ladies, which pleased highly all who love to see the "poetry of motion." If the unexpected gives pleasure imagine "C-main through the Rye and "We're a' nod,—noddin" on an English Church S. S. programme! The "Church Seasons" were appropriately introduced by old Father Time, (Harry Meredith.) Some would have him Santa Claus but the wings were a puzzle, some said it was an angel, but the flowing beard forbade that idea. Mr. Jones and Miss Vollet received an encore for instrumental duett. Misses Eva Mockler, Cora Moffat, Gertie Sanherland, Lewis Nesler, and Masters Tommy McClocklin and Robbie Hughes, each appeared alone and to advantage. Proceeds $21.60.

A great battle is continually going on in the human system. The demon of impure blood strives to gain victory over the constitution, to ruin health, to drag victims to the grave. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the weapon with which to defend one's self, drive the desperate enemy from the field, and restore bodily health for many years.

Hood's Pills cure nausea, sickness, indigestion and billousness. 25c.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

Mr. C. R. McIntosh, who taught so successfully for the last three years in S. S. No. 4, Dornoch, severed his connection with that academy on the 21st ult. On Xmas eve a farewell concert was held, when Mr. McIntosh was made the recipient of a handsome shaving case and plush necktie holder, as well as other costly presents. The following address accompanied them:

Dornoch, Dec., 24th 1894.

To Mr. C. R. McIntosh.

DEAR TEACHER.—We, as representatives of your affectionate pupils take this opportunity of showing our gratitude for your kind care over us, as a school, during the past three years. Your intended departure occasions in us feelings of sorrow only tempered by the knowledge that you go to more equip yourself for further triumphs in your chosen profession. We feel that we are losing a careful, energetic teacher, whose every effort has been used towards our mental improvement, you may be assured, that wherever your lot may be cast in the future, you will bear with you the kindest regards and best wishes of us, your pupils. Accordingly we wish you to accept this present as a slight testimonial of our regard. Signed on behalf of pupils by:

EARNEST CHATAM,

Broken in Health

That Tired Feeling, Constipation and Pain in the Back

Appetite and Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Chas. Stiefe
St. Catharines, Ont.

"For a number of years I have been troubled with a constant tired feeling. Shortness of breath, pain in the back, and constipation. I could get no relief, and was in a weak condition. On account of the pain I had no appetite whatever. I was tired all the time. I read a great deal about Hood's Sarsaparilla, and concluded to give it a trial. I got a bottle from an agent. I felt a great benefit from it. I got a second bottle, and I found I was getting well. I have taken three bottles, and I feel like a new man. I have a good appetite, feel as strong as ever I did, and enjoy perfect rest at night. I have much pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla to anyone in need of a blood purifier." CHARLES STIEFE, St. Catharines, Ont.
