The Grey Review.

DURHAM, JANUARY 17, 1896.

The Pattern of Industry here... under consideration the organizing of a central Dominion Executive to deal with matters of Federal interest.

The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council has come to a decision on the Manitoba School Case, but judgment has been deferred for six months.

Misadventures have come single... So it has been in Toronto. The loss by fire on Sunday week in the burning of the G.I. building and other adjoining, was followed on the Thursday following by another fire which proved to be still worse in its ravages.

SCARLATINA.

In our last issue we referred to the importance of isolation in preventing the spread of the disease. Indeed all authorities seem to agree on this point, that isolation is the only effective means of prevention known to science at the present day.

It is our ordinary duty to be observed notices of the death of Mrs. Hugh McKenzie and Mrs. Hugh Rose. This has been removed within forty-eight hours of one another, from the church militant to the church triumphant, we hope and believe, two persons who were well known to each other and well known and highly esteemed by a large circle of relatives and acquaintances.

We give below the full returns by wards of the polling in Bentinck township at the recent municipal elections. We are indebted to the Post for the information:

home, and in fourteen days the child was attacked by scarlatina. Here the staffing of the chairs was the focus of infection, for the child could not have carried it with it, as the period of incubation of the virus of scarlatina is short, being only from two days to seven, sometimes being only twenty-four hours, and very rarely over seven days.

The London Statist has offered a prize of 1,000 guineas for the best paper on a custom's union between Great Britain and her colonies; the papers to be sent in before the close of the year.

The China-Japanese war is still in progress. It is said that a meeting of delegates from both the Chinese and Japanese Governments will be held at Hiroshima, Japan, on the 25th inst. to arrange about the terms of peace, but meanwhile, the war proceeds.

The Western Powers, deeply interested in Eastern Asia from a commercial and philanthropic point of view, have invited to Japan that they will not allow China to accept any terms of peace which would tend to weakening of her authority or the dismemberment of her territory.

Mr. McCarthy, addressing his constituents at Barrie the other evening, admitted that he was in favor of the adoption of the N. P. simply as a temporary measure, to give a start to manufacturing industries, and that Sir C. Tupper had said that fifteen years should be a sufficient length of time for that purpose.

Mr. Geo. Eimie then gave an address upon "The Improvement of Township Roads," he stated the objections to the statute labor system were, that a large portion of the labor was not faithfully performed, that many of the overseers were not practical road makers, the work was not being carried on from year to year upon any systematic plan, and the system did not allow the advantageous use of the best road making machinery.
