

Thousands of... your's... stings... ms... goal... nie... stom-erally... e Cash... sh or... our... fits... registered... the above... on 2 Tp. of... a Foal... ern all busi-ATON... ade... gest... lass... aper... D.

Bring Your Roll Carding To The Durham Woolen Mills. The Work We Are Turning Out This Year Is Better Than It Has Been For Years. Try some of our own make of Yarns. Satisfaction guaranteed this year or no pay. BINDER TWINE. Don't buy until you see our 7c. Twine. Runs 560 ft. to lb. J.A. HUNTER CASH STORE UPPER TOWN, DURHAM.

LOCAL AND GENERAL. Mrs. Cliff, of Toronto, is visiting friends in town. Bright yellow sugar, 28 lbs. for $1.90 Parker's Drug Store. Second hand bicycle for sale cheap. J. A. Hunter, Upper Town. Rev. A. J. Fairgrieve, of the Dundalk Synod in London this week. Two or three new hay staves for sale cheap. A. H. Jackson assigns. Mr. W. J. Fairgrieve, of the Dundalk Herald is in town on Sunday. SERVICANT GIRL WANTED—Apply at John Cameron's, Upper Town. Mrs. John Rich of Toronto is visiting friends in Brantford this week. Mr. D. McKenzie is securing experience with Dr. Jamieson for a time. New top luggage for sale cheap! Apply to J. A. Hunter, Upper Town, Durham. Miss Henry, sister of Rev. Mr. Henry, is the guest of Miss Mary Russell at present. Kenilworth, a village near Mt. Forest was destroyed on Sunday morning by fire. FARM FOR SALE OR TO RENT—Lot 12, Con. 7, Glenzie. Apply to C. McArthur, Durham. Mr. Jabez Spittle and Charles were visiting friends around Edge Hill last week. Two good second hand buggies covered and open for sale at a bargain. Apply at once to F. Nester. Mr. Donald Campbell and family of Fenton, were visiting Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Turnbull, last week. Mr. Cassels, as Secy. of the C. E. Society, was visiting Mrs. Campbell's sister, Mrs. Henry on the occasion of his marriage. Mrs. James Watson, Normanby, and her son Robert arrived from Owen Sound on Tuesday where they had been visiting friends for a few days. Miss Russell, recently from Aberdeen, Scotland, a cousin of our Town Clerk, is spending the summer with Miss Russell and her father. We are indebted to Mr. Geo. Turnbull for some pamphlets and other material giving us a wealth of good text. Assembly meeting in London this week. Dr. Sinclair, Specialist, will be at the Middagh House, Durham on Wednesday, July 10th from 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon until 9 at night. Consultation free. We are sorry to know that Mrs. R. Henry, of Egremont, is still under the doctor's care. We hope to see her speedily around again. We regret to learn that Miss Maggie Hunter is seriously indisposed this week and will for some time be compelled to be watchful of her health. The young people of the Presbyterian Church are busy this week with brush and paint making the basement look creditable and with credit too to their amateur efforts. Garden Party at Mr. W. Rombold's on Thursday evening, June 22nd. The garden was in the gate, ice-cream, Strawberries and other refreshments on the grounds. All right. Much valuable matter crowded out this week. The Baptist Convention requiring considerable space to do it justice. We had to thank Mr. Brown for his full report. The Organizing of this District will celebrate the 12th of July in Durham this year. The last demonstration in Durham on that date was the most successful Durham ever saw. Fairday prices were held. A large number of people, to wit, owing to the almost calamitous drought. To day (Wed.) there seems some 1500 people of much needed rain. Dominion Day promises to eclipse any previous celebration here. Large sums of money are offered in prizes. Come on Durham for pleasure as many are coming just now to take advantage of our good market. DIVISION COURT—Judge Crozier on Tuesday disposed of a number of cases in the Town Hall, by case in which Donald Ferguson, Petitioner, was the defendant and John Anderson, Egremont, Plaintiff, excited great interest. This action was to recover a portion of a payment on a purchase of a quantity of land bought in bulk on the alleged ground that in quantity and quality it was not as represented. His honor where no definite statement could be given the purchaser was granted a verdict for Ferguson. An insurance case Calder v. Bell where a claim of $188.00 for loss sustained by fire had been reduced by one third on the ground of being a tenant, proved clearly that it pays to make oneself familiar with every condition in the policy. Read your policy. The L. O. F. to the number of about 30 paraded to Trinity Church with the band at their head on Sunday last. Rev. Mr. Connor preached a sermon from James 1: 27 which was thoughtfully prepared, well delivered, and most appreciatively listened to. The order of service, being the usual one, while Court Durham was 9 years old last Thursday. Beginning with 8 members with Rev. Wm. Johnston officiating at the helm then, it has increased to about 140, though over 200 have been "made," removals accounting for the balance. Strange to say there has not yet been one death. Bro. Wm. Calder is now chief Ranger, and Bro. Arch. Patterson, Secy. A big day is in prospect on Sep. 23rd when Supreme Chief Ranger Oronyashaka will be on hand and will want to see and hear the eloquent Indian. GLENDALEN PICNIC.—The 2nd annual picnic at this place was held last Saturday and was every way a success. The day was fine, the chairman, Mr. Wm. Johnston, filled the position admirably, the crowd was large and good natured, the entertainments of the best and the financial returns sufficient to meet all expenses and this was all that was aimed at. The chairman and his talented musical family rendered some of their finest selections. "God who has been especially admired. Mr. Wm. Johnston made the speech of the day, and as his memory of Glenzie goes back 45 years, he is undoubtedly well qualified to speak of its progress. Miss graphic illustration was that where he said he could, 45 years ago, carry all the children of Glenzie in a 24 pound bag, but now, with his arms extended to encircle the audience of 400 look at the progress." Charlie Saunders, of this town, gave an exhibition of wire-ropes walking which thrilled the spectators. While they applauded his skill and nerve, he will now be in request. Messrs Malone and Coffey furnished music for the large number who trip the light fantastic." Miss Delaney presided efficiently at the organ. The forenoon with swings and social chat made a most pleasant afternoon. The result of the Drawing Examinations became known last Saturday. Douglas Sutherland was the clever and lucky boy to get all five certificates at one examination; a rare circumstance. Robert Reid, Norman McRae, Lena Wolfard Lizzie Laidlaw secured all they tried for, and have now completed the course. Several of the others only lack one. The result on the whole is above the average, and while as his teacher we feel personally gratified at the result as a whole, we regret that the diligence of some had not secured the reward which their work during the season would indicate. We give the list in full, and offer congratulations to the successful one and where there has been failure we say "try again." F. is Freehand, "G. Geometriae, "P. Perspective, "M. Model, "B. Blackboard or Memory. Douglas Sutherland, all Lizzie Laidlaw, F. G. P. B. Lena Wolf, G. E. M. Norman McRae, J. M. Robert Reid, F. M. Hattie Moffat, P. M. E. Amy McNeill, P. M. B. Finlay Grant, F. G. H. B. Robert Scott, F. M. P. F. Do, all F. R. H. McCallum F. G., A. P. W. M. S. S. Scott, M. W. Park, C. Vair, A. Grant, M. Caldwell and B. Clark each got F.

LOCAL AND GENERAL. The Rocky Public School picnic will be held in Morien's grove, Edge Hill, on Saturday next. A good time is expected. We understand many farmers are sowing corn broadcast and otherwise, to secure if possible something to make up the great deficiency in the hay crop. This is their prudent. CHURCH ORGANIZATION.—On Thursday last the Glenzie Centre Baptists organized themselves into a separate congregation. The organizing Council consisted of the following Rev. Gentlemen: Messrs. Norton, of Owen Sound; McGreggie, of Durham; McGreggie, of North Bruce; McQuarrie, of Leith; Walker, of Meaford; Phillimore of Bentley; Stevens, of Wainman; McKinnon, of Keady; Burns sr. and jr., of Hespeler; and Gardiner of Hesperton. The services commenced at seven o'clock, Rev. Mr. McQuarrie, leading the opening exercises. When Rev. Mr. Norton was appointed Moderator of the council and Rev. Mr. Phillimore, clerk, after the usual order of service, a separate congregation was read the Rev. Mr. McGreggie of Durham, presiding. For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him against that day. The sermon was earnest, impressive and eloquent, and was listened to with the greatest attention. The Rev. Mr. McQuarrie then addressed the church upon their duties towards their neighbors. His pastor and their God, and the Rev. Mr. Norton in a very earnest manner addressed the pastor regarding his duties towards the congregations. The Rev. Mr. Stevens offered up the recitation prayer, after which the large audience was dismissed having spent a pleasant and profitable evening. COL. A RUN FOR THE FIRE BRIGADE.—On Monday last shortly after dinner, Mr. Wm. Johnston, of the McKeeville Mills, Glenzie, saw danger to the mill from a growing fire in the swamp to the west. He telephoned to Durham, at 2:30 the fire bell rang out and a commendable alacrity the engine, reels and several loads of our townpeople were soon on their way to protect the valuable property. Arriving there about 4, the fire was rapidly working eastward, a number of willing workers endeavoring to check its progress with pails. The peculiar position led to some uncertainty as to the best position for the engine, and after cutting a road down the bank for it, it was decided to go back to the bridge and drench the sandbank and lumber piles. It was then moved to the river bank, where some difficulty and the fire was checked and chased back to a reasonably safe distance. But the feature of the day was the tremendous work done by the men, who dragged that hose up the river and down, waiting for the water, and much of their labor of using to the change of the engine. Mr. Kilmear seemed to be amphibious. From his position as much at home with hose reel as he is with hairpins. Har-rottie, Harry, Jopp and many of the water fire dikes, and never before did the husky and rocky lanks of the Rocky Sapper witness such sights and sounds. The supper table at the boarding house was appreciated in the evening, the hospitality of the millers deserves every commendation. We have an impression that that pie and glass of milk furnished by the good hearted lady, Mrs. McCornick, was the best of its kind, and to the load of hungry Durhams the contents of Mr. Duncan McGillivray's basket and milk pail came as a godsend. Our Cricketers carried off the honors in Walkerton last Friday. P. T. Telford and D. McFarlane made great scores. Bowlers for Durham were D. McFarlane and J. McFarlane. Our best speaker of handsome treatment by their Walkerton opponents. A return match will be played soon. DROMORE. (Continued from last week.) The Festival in every sense was a grand success for the last week of the year. The talent from Mount Forest and Durham was fully appreciated, while the Haw Bows, were equally so. C. C. White, High Inspector, the principal speaker, gave some interesting as well as amusing remarks, and we believe all that were present fully enjoyed themselves. The annual picnic in conjunction with No. 13 is to be held on July 2nd, when the usual programme will be carried out. Miss Gerlie King has made her appearance amongst us again and her pupils are no doubt pleased to see her. Mr. George Lethbridge left for Manitoba last Wednesday week, and the best wishes of the community attend him. Preparatory Service was held in Amos Church on Friday last, the Rev. Mr. Rausay, of Mt. Forest, delivering the sermon for the occasion. The Teachers' Convention was held in Flesheron last Thursday and Friday. We believe this convention was the best ever had in this district, and it is to be hoped that the Convention is taken there again, accommodation will be found for the Teachers. Miss and Mr. McLean, of Blythe, are visiting their sister, Mrs. MacVicar. Mr. Bird, a brother of the Doctor, paid the town a flying visit on his wheel, last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Snell paid a visit to their parents and friends last week. A great improvement has been made in the Sunday School, by the painting of the walls and ceiling, an improvement which was very much needed, and with a new organ which has been secured for the Sunday School, it will be much pleasanter for teachers and pupils. VICKERS. Mr. Robert Lindsay spent part of last week in Owen Sound, acting as jurymen. Miss Lottie Vickers is now living in Durham, and is sadly missed in our city. In Bantick, on the 8th inst., the wife of Mr. Robt. Lindsay, of that place, died of the drouth which still continues. Some of our farmers are turning their cattle into the meadows, as they will not be worth cutting. Mr. John Eber being tired of single life, went over to Egremont on the 12th inst., and was united in marriage to Miss McFadden. Congratulations Jack. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Groomsman. A table was then spread in the orchard, where all were treated to a sumptuous repast. On Wednesday, the 12th inst., all of those pleasant events which we like to attend, took place at the residence of Mr. Charter Smith, at 4 o'clock, p. m. It being the marriage of his daughter, Mary Ann, to Mr. Jas. McDonald, of Aberdeen. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Flagg, the bride and groom were attended by their bridesmaid, Miss Jane Smith, looking charming in her bridal costume. Mr. Gilbert Gray acted as Grooms