THE SCHOOL QUESTION AND THE GOVERNMENT.

The long-expected and scalded crisis has come, but matters are not so bad as was apprehended. There has been a good deal of posing to the right and the left—spattering of wrath by the Omnipotent Caron contingent from Quebec, and rumbling of pent up forces by the Wallace-Haggart faction from Ontario, but the announcement has been made that the First Ministers of Manitoba School Case, the crisis is over, and the Government remains on the Treasury benches. On Monday Mr. Foster made a statement in the House of Commons to the effect, that, as the reply of the Manitoba held forth grounds for the LATEST FROM OTTAWA.

We stop the press this Thursday morning, to give place to a special telegram which we have obtained from Ottawa, on the strained political situation. It is evident somebody is bending, and it is safe to say from past experience of French demands, it will not be the Frenchmen. An all likelihood personal pledges are being given to the strikers. The proximity to the 12th gives a special interest to the crisis.
