THE SCHOOL QUESTION AND THE GOVERNMENT.

The long-expected and scalded crisis has come, but matters continue such as they were.

LATEST FROM OTTAWA.

We stop the press this, Thursday morning, to give place to special telegram which we have obtained from Ottawa, on the strained political situa.

DORNOCH RIPPLES.

The dry weather still continues in this section. The crop of hay is little better than some at all, and the prospects of the grain crop is also extremely gloomy.

Communion services are being held at present in the Presbyterian Churches, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed on the coming Sabbath.

Mr. Little and is a very impressive speaker.

Donald Smith, Sr. is slowly recovering his health and will ere long be restored to his former strength and vigor.

Peter Morrison and Edward Han-phon leave this week for the North West to seek employment in the harvest field. We wish them every success.

Among the Teachers.—Mr. Joe Burnett and Misses C. Petherburgh and M. E. Delaney have left this village for their several homes, while Mr. R. Watt and Misses Lizzie Dargavel and Bella Skene will spend their vacation in our village.

Lovers of penics are attending the same as they occur. Quite a number of our villagers attended the picnic at Louise and Edge Hill, also the sports in Durham on Dominion Day.

We would like to know why Dornoch can't get up a picnic and be in line with other places? It would be pleasing to see a move made in this direction as it is a long time since we have had a day's recreation in our village.

Messrs Wm. Duncan and Donald Smith attended a Christian Endeavor Convention in Owen Sound some time since and report that the attendance of the Society here is among the greatest of that of any in this Presbytery.

BALSAM VALLEY.

Again death has come in our midst and cast a gloom over the neighborhood.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Catherine Lamont passed away at the age of 78 years.

Mr. Willie McLeod has given up the contract of drawing the milk to the factory owing to a scarcity of milk cans on his route.

The Watson Bros. have started their mill again and are prepared to do first class work.

Messrs J. Ferguson and Angus McDonald paid a short visit to their home on Dominion Day and returned Monday evening to the lower settlement.

Mr. Alex. Ferguson, of Minty, accompanied by his sister are visiting their many friends in this place.

Mr. Frank Nestor, of Durham, and his daughters visited Balsam Valley last week.

Peter Ferguson has raised his stable on the Model Farm, which adds much to the appearance of the place. It would look much better if a house was also added.

We would like to know if the horse wasn't a little bit too heavy for the shaft last week?

Who will be the luckiest fellow on the line?

IRISH LAKE.

Miss Maggie Ryan, of Toronto, paid the Lake a flying visit on Saturday.

Our young teacher, Miss N. McLeary, is holidaying at her home in Traverston.

Miss Hogan, of Owen Sound, is visiting at Mr. Jas. Nash's.

Misses Sadie and Mary Lowe, the former of Owen Sound, the latter of Stayner, accompanied by Mr. Frank Martin of Woodstock, attended the picnic in Walsh's grove.

Mr. Chas. Ryan has lately returned from Neeshik and many are the smiles perceptible on the countenance of numerous fair ones when they learn he still revels in single blessedness and not in married bliss as was erroneously reported some time ago.

Irish Lake picnic, a financial success, but numerically speaking the attendance was not as large as in former years.

Various amusements contributed much to the day's enjoyment. The picnic was well conducted, under the able supervision of Rev. Father Maloney. Excellent music was furnished by Messrs. McDonald and McCormick.

Maple Grove's young doctor will have ample opportunity (taking into consid- eration the distance between Maple Grove and Dornoch) to become an expert bicyclist, as we understood he intends taking a leading part in Dornoch picnic, as we would infer from the fact that Glascoit youth disfavor the idea of being benefitted by his best girl's society all day.

Mr. Hugh McGregor, of Mt. Forest, paid a flying visit to his father recently.

Miss Hannah Sullivan, of Amherstburg, is spending her holidays at her pleasant home at Pomona.

To prevent pale and delicate children from lapsing into chronic invalids later in life, they should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla together with plenty of wholesome food and out-door exercise.

What they need to build up the system is a good red blood.

U. STEVENSON, Manager.
