Bills got out a few days before announced in glowing terms the attractions of this famous place and if in some respects it fell below the announcements, there was certainly enough in the picnic line to satisfy the most fastidious. Some made an estimate that 1000 people were present. Certainly the number of conveyances lining the road and filling the bush was unusually large. In addition to the usual swings were two platforms, one of which was kept warm during the afternoon by an enthusiastic crowd of dancers, whose movements were inspired and timed by soul (sole) stirring music furnished by the McDonald Bros. and Miss McDonald at the organ.
