The two papers on a trial trip to Jan 1st 1896, for 25 cents. We are able to make this extraordinary offer by the very liberal terms granted by the Globe to this paper. Our standing offer of both papers for one year for $1.25 is still good of course, but it takes no arithmetic to prove to enlightened subscribers that nearly four months of both papers for 10 cts. is a snap. The Globe has no superior as a newspaper in this Dominion. Old readers who have stopped it constantly find that to guage the world's news correctly they must again have the Globe. Its news are the freshest. Its politics are the fairest, as is often seen in its reports of conservative meeings, being nearly as full as the Conseryative organ. Its market reports are second to none. Its family miscellany is excellent, while the world of fashion and sport is not peglected.

The REVIEW, to its readers needs no commendation. It ever stands in the front rank as a local journal. It has a staff of correspondents, who from time to time rellect the life of their respective communities. Its aim is that no local event of importance shall pass unnoted, and at the same time to present each week a condensed account of general and political news.

THE INDUCTION OF THE REV. P. E.

We are glad to observe that the in-he Rev. P. E. Nichol into the of the congregation of St. Marks Preabyterian Church, Toronto took place under such pleasing circum stances Mr. Nichol has been a good worker, "a workman worthy of his hire" and the fame of his good works has preceded him. The following is the Globe's report of the induction: -St. Mark's Presbyterlan Church was crowded to the doors last night on the interesting occasion of the inducting into the charge of the new pastor of the congregation. Rev. Peter E. Nichol, Rev. John Neil the Moderator of Toronto Presbytery, presided. Rev. Dr. Gregg delivered the charge to the minister, and Kev. J. A. Morrison delivered the charge to the people. Rev. W. A. J. Martin preached a most eloquent sermon, his text being Ephesians iii., 8-11. The choir, which rendered several pieces during he evening in a most acceptable manner, was led by E. Bowels, the choirmaster and organist of the church. Mr. Nichol who is thus the latest addition to the clergy of Workmanship Unsurpassed. though he has been out of college only some four years, has already attained an enviable reputation for evangelistic zeal and effectiveness of ministry. He is a Knox College man and graduated there in 1891; during his course he labored in mission work in the Eliza beth street and Claremont street mission, achieving a marked degree of success in them. Upon graduating he went to the United States, settling first in Wyandotte, Mich., and then going to Detroit, where he assumed charge of a mission church He next received a call to a church in Bay City and accepted it; when he went to it the church had twelve members and a very small building, and now after a couple of years' work, it has 300 members and a fine new building. He remained in this charge until his acceptance of a call to Toronto On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Nichol will be welcomed to their new home by the congregation in a reception, and on Sunday next Mr. Nichol will
