Supplement to The Grey Review.

DURHAM, NOV. 7, 1895. WHOLE NO. 895.

VOL. XVII., NO. 45.

To the Editor of the Grey Review:

Sir:—The Rev. Mr. James called the attention of the Review to certain irregularities of some of the young people of the town. I am not aware that any of the evils complained of exist, but if they do, they are not of the nature of those which are complained of by those in authority. I have no objection to the publication of a public moral, and I am sure that the efforts of Mr. James in his efforts to do good in this matter, will be appreciated by all who are interested in the welfare of the town. WEDDING BELLS.

On the evening of Wednesday last the youth and beauty of the surrounding neighborhood, consisting of relatives and neighbors, met at the residence of H. Henry, Esq., 19th Con. Regiment, to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Ann McFarlane, daughter of Mr. Thos. Brown, to Mr. Thos. Brown.

At an early hour carriages and buggies, with their fair occupants began to arrive, and by 6 o'clock a crowd of over 100 persons, "fair, fat, and forty," created quite an animated spectacle. The bride, a beautiful young girl, was dressed in a dress of rich cream cashmere, trimmed with silk lace, and was led before the altar and the Rev. Mr. McFarlane, looking a picture of health and loveliness. She was ably supported by Miss Mary Ann, sister of the groom, who was dressed in a dress of the same color, with satin ribbon trimming, both looking equally fresh, rosy, and blooming. The bridegroom was assisted through the aisle by his best man, Mr. Will Lett, who saw that equity and justice was done to all.

FOWL WANTED!

5,000 Geese, Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Wanted for which we will pay the highest market price in merchandise.

We have made arrangements with a large Toronto Dealer to ship this quantity of fowl this season.

Our instructions in buying are as follows:—

All fowl must be DRY PLUCKED.

Scalded fowl will not be accepted at any price.

Leave on the heads and feet as well as feathers on wings and tail.

Abstain from feeding 24 hours before killing and bleed thoroughly and pluck clean.

The early market is the best especially this year when feed is so very scarce.

Bring them along now while the market is open as it is always an overstocked market later on.

$13,000.00

Worth of General Merchandise to select from.

A FIGHT!

Hard Times Versus Low Prices

With the odds very much in favor of the latter and no wonder when we get the prices down as low as we now have them. With the 1st of November we inaugurate

A 60 DAYS' CLEARING SALE

OF OUR STOCK OF HIGH CLASS

Dry Goods, Millinery, Clothing, Boots and Shoes and Groceries

Amounting to about $12,000.00. Now we are not going to tell you a lot of nonsense. We are not going to quote an article at a price and when you come for it just "Sold Out." The Public know us better than that. They know that when we advertise an article at a price, just so surely will they get it here. A careful inspection of the prices below will convince the closest buyers that we mean business.
