A cough which persists day after day, should not be neglected any longer. It means little more than a mere local irritation, and the sooner it is relieved the better. Take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is prompt to act and sure to cure.

SOLUTION.—We have received a neat solution of the problem given in our last issue from Mr. E. D. McNab. Mr. McNab's answer differs from that of the examiner but so much the worse for the examiner. We will give the answer with outlined solution in next issue.

SALVATION ARMY.—About a dozen Salvation Army lads and lassies came up from Palmerston last Saturday and had a very slim audience in the hall in the evening. Sunday however they had more material to work upon, and we hope the results will justify the invasion.

COMING.—Dr. Sinclair, Specialist, will be at the Middaugh House, Durham, Tuesday, November 12th, from half past three in the afternoon for all night. Lung diseases, Heart diseases, Dropsies, diseases of women and all private diseases treated with success. Consultation free.

Mr. Robt. McGowan, of Oakville, was in town Tuesday and remembered the REVIEW. He has been spending some time with his son in Priceville. Mr. McGowan has been a miller all his life and now owns a fine electric light plant in Oakville, besides mill properties in Durham and Priceville.

TO THE PEOPLE OF DURHAM.—We have opened up a butcher business in Durham and are prepared to cater to the wants of the public in this line. We shall keep good stock and sell at living prices. Shop in the Carson Block next door to Mr. S. Scott's store. Call and help us to burst monopoly.—J. A. BLACK.

Mr. Wm. Freeman, of West Branch, Mich., is coming home soon on a lengthened visit to his brother George in Holstein and other Egremont friends. Mr. Freeman, though a deaf mute has achieved great success as a contractor and builder, and is a splendid example of what push and determination under difficulties can do. We hope to meet with him and have a finger talk as in the olden time.

CLUBBING.—The wonderfully cheap terms we have been offering are still continued for cash, though we have no guarantee how long we may be able to do so. Remember Globe and REVIEW to Jan. 1st, 1897 for $1.25. The Globe is not surpassed for its general excellence in up to date news, home and foreign. Political questions treated fully and fairly. Market reports, Sporting news, etc. etc. If you wish the Mail and Empire with the REVIEW come along and bring your neighbor with you.

C. E. SOCIAL UNION.—On Wednesday last the executive of the South Grey Local Union of C. Endeavor met and decided to have the next Semi Annual Convention in Hanover on Jan. 31st, 1896. Dr. Dickson, of Galt, is to be present, and some excellent local material is expected. There were present from outside points Hampden, Pres. Jno. Cooper and Mr. H. Ford; Hanover, Mr. Robt. Pace; Rocky Saugeen, Miss Turnbull and Messrs. Jno. Hewitson and H. McKechnie; Priceville, Miss Brander and Mr. McKechnie; Crawford, Mr. Hopkirk.

THE CRICKET CONCERT.—The entertainment and the organizers were worthy of a better audience than that which greeted Miss White on her second appearance here. Pity that home institutions are sometimes slighted for those taking everything out of the town. Miss White's pleasant and well controlled voice was shown to good advantage in the "Lover and the bird" and "The Husking Bee" her graceful figure and acting in the latter piece being the poetry of motion. Seldom have we heard our local talent make such uniformly good singing. Miss Belle McKenzie at the organ was of course beyond criticism.

A PIONEER GONE.—One by one our pioneers are passing. On Saturday last Mr. Alex. Beaton, of Pomona, went to swell the number of those whose works alone now remind our sight of the vigor. A short time ago he was prostrated by a stroke of paralysis, and later a second stroke supervened and carried him off. Mr. Beaton was born in Mull, Argyleshire, Scotland, in 1827, and 47 years ago came with his family to this country. The family lived in Erin township for three years before moving into "the bush." Just 43 years ago Alex., a vigorous young man, began the first clearing of the neighborhood on the lot where he died. Having lived for some time in the States he was long familiarly known as "Yankee Sandy," to distinguish him from other Beatons of the same name. He never aspired after public office, but his example, in all that tended to nobility of manhood was worthy of emulation. In religion he was a devout and consistent Baptist, while in politics he was ever strongly Liberal. His death took place on the 42nd anniversary of his marriage and he leaves as mourners the partner of his life, two sons and four daughters. One of the sons is the well known M. K. Beaton, who worthily served his township for some years. Two brothers of the deceased, Donald and Malcolm, and two sisters survive him, and the descendants of the original stock who settled in the early fifties on Lot 15 and 16, Con. 3, N. D. R., are numerous and well and favorably known. The loss is peculiarly afflicting following so soon after the lamented death of his daughter Sarah three months ago. We extend our sympathy. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr Gardiner of Flesherton, who made an impressive address with some touching references to the deceased. A very large company assembled at the house and followed the remains to the Priceville cemetery.

Yeovil and Murdoch correspondence too late for inserstion.

For woollen goods of all kinds, Blankets, Tweeds, yarns, &c., call at V. Tanner's, opposite the McAllister House. Some fine underwear will please you. Prices right. C. Stevenson, Man.

IN a letter just received from Mr. J. A. Conkey he refers to an earthquake experienced there recently. John is still on top however, and is doing well in the employ of a large pharamaceutical firm having three stores in important business centres in the Windy City.

The only permanent cure for chronic catarrh is to thoroughly expel the poison from the system by the faithful and persistent use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This wonderful remedy proves successful when all other treatments has failed to relieve the sufferer.

THANKS.—We thank those of our subscribers who have responded to our request for the "needful" in our last two issues. Reader, if you are not one of those who have responded will you examine your label now, and bring it up to date, if behind?

HARVEST HOME.—The English Church was prettily decorated on Friday evening last, at the Annual Harvest Home Service, Rev Mr. Connnr preached an eloquent sermon and was ably assisted in the services by Mr. Harry Hunter as lay reader. The music was of an appropriate character and extremely well rendered.

A GOOD COLLECTION.—Mr. Jansen lectured in Palmerston on Monday evening to an audience numbering about 300. A collection for the Leper Mission from this fine audience amounted to $18.59. The day previous he preached to large audiences, and was no doubt much appreciated.

TRACT SOCIETY.—The attendance at the meeting of the Upper Canada Tract Society in the Methodist Church on Tuesday night was only fair. Rev. Dr. Moffat is an interesting speaker. The report showed that Durham gave over $21.00 to the society last year. Miss G. Stewart was reappointed Secy. and Collecor, Rev. Mr. McGregor Pres., and Mr. Thos. Lauder, Sr., Treasurer.

Our obituary columns today record the death of Mr. Alex. Ferguson, for many years in a mercantile business in Priceville. His death is the first break in the family. His nine children are all up to mature years, his son Robert one of the best known amongst them being a doctor in London. His wife, who is a sister of Mrs. John Robertson of this town survives him.

PALMERSTON PREACHERS.—Rev. Mr. Aull on Sunday very ably represented Palmerston Presbyterianism by thought-ful, pointed, soul-stiring discourses. He has many friends here and their number increase at every visit. What shall we say the Salvation Army represented? From the same place ostensibly preaching the same gospel, at the same time, the one with the "still small voice," the other with "sounding brass and tinkling cymbal." We give it up.

TOWN COUNCIL.—Met on Monday night and received a claim of $9.00 from Mr. J. Woodland, as rebate on the purchase of a lot which was sold for non-resident taxes some years ago. A committee was appointed to investigate. The following accounts were passed:—H. Young quarter's salary $10.50; W. Laidlaw selecting Jurors $2.00; G. Russell selecting Jurors $2.00; G. Russell month's salary $17.50; Thos. Moffat selecting Jurors $2.00; E. Burnet work $5.50; Thos. Reid work $6.55; W. J. Mitchell printing $3.10; Electric Light $80.00; C. Ramage printing $9.19; M. WEDDING BELLS.

On the evening of Wednesday last the youth and beauty of the surrounding neighborhood, consisting of relatives friends, and neighbors, met at the residence of R. Henry, Esq., 19th Con. Egremont, to witness the marriage of his daughter Katie, to Mr. Thos. Brown,

At an early hour carriages and buggies, with their fair occupants began to arrive, so that by 6 p. m., a crowd of over 90 persons, "fair, fat, and forty," created quite an animated spectacle.

Promptly at six the fair young bride, in a dress of rich cream cashmere, trimmed with silk lace, was led before the altar and the Rev. Mr. McVicar, looking a picture of health and loveliness. She was ably supported by Miss Mary Brown, sister of the groom, clad in a dress of the same color, with satin ribbon trimming, both looking equally fresh, roseate, and blooming. The bridegroom was assisted through the, to him, new ordeal, by Mr. Will Leith, who saw that equity and justice was done to all.

The estimation in which the bride was held was clearly shown by the abundance of the wedding gifts presented. The following is a list:—A pair feather pillows, Mrs. Keith: towels, Mr. and Miss Daly: fancy colored table cover, Mrs. J. Henry, Franklinville U. S.; fancy table cover, And. and Maggie Geddes: pair blankets, Alice Brown: water pitcher, W. L. and Ida Reid: Preserve dish, Maggie Sim: 4 doz. silver tea spoons, Jane Leith: easy camp chair, And. Henry: china egg cups, Miss Aberleen: fruit dish, Jno. Allan: counterpane, Mrs. W. Brown: Jellly cake dish, and card receiver, Mrs. J. and Miss A. Henry: set of crystal, Miss Laughton: pitcher and shaving mug, Phil and Alice Lawrence: 4 doz. silver knives and forks, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Sr.: bread board and knife, Miss Lindsay: 4 doz. silver table spoons, sister Agnes: China butter server, Miss Mary Brown, sofa tidy, Mrs. Walker: set smoothing irons, Char. Smith: set smoothing irons, Will Leith: Syrup pitcher and crystal cake plate, Miss E. Reid: jelly cake stand, J. G. Johnston: butter dish, Miss Jane Reid: cheese dish, Miss Hunter: silver butter cooler, Mrs. Jas. Watts, breakfast cruet, Mr. and Mrs. r. Reid, Jr. table cloth J. T. Derby, bread saw, Mrs. A. Derby, teapot stand, children of And. Derby, lace curtains and butter server, Mrs. Jno. Moor, fancy china fruit tray, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ramage, pair vases, Miss B. Hunter, 4 doz. silver spoons, W. Wilson, vases, And. Derby, Sentinck, china cup, saucer and plate, W. Geddes linen tablecloth, Miss Jane Matthews and Bros. butter dish, Miss M. Wilson, fancy work basket, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Derby. Last but not least was a handsome gold breast pin presented by the bridegroom. A solid bar, entwined with a delicately chased vine and leaves of forget-me-not mounted midway with an engraved heart.

After the usual sumptuous repast, served by jovial and willing waiters a programme of songs, jokes, plays, etc., etc. in happy mixture was indulged in, until the hour hand pointed in the direction of Europe, when all parted wishing the newly married couple long life, prosperity and happiness.

South American Kidney Cures Kidney Disease Speedily and effectively.

It is remarkable that those who suffer from kidney disease grow impatient of those medicines that are slow in their cure. Who enjoys pain? The beauty of South American Kidney Cure is that it relieves the sufferer almost instantaneously. What sick one does not know the delight that comes when pain is relieved? Kidney cure, as a plain matter of fact, relieves the most distressing kidney and bladder troubles in six hours. It is hard to say anything more for it. Who wants more said for it? ALMOST DEAD.

PITIABLE CONDITION OF A YOUNG GIRL IN TORONTO.

A Mysterious Illness—Doctors Were Unable to Give Her Any Relief—Her Uncle's Story of the Case.

From the Toronto News.

The remarkable recovery of Cora Pray from a mysterious illness that baffled two of the best known physicians of West Toronto has been the subject of a good deal of talk among the residents in the neighborhood of Bloor street and Brunswick avenue. As it was expressively put by a neighbor, "she was all but dead, when suddenly she began to regain strength and in a short time was out on the street with the color restored to her cheeks and the brightness to her eye.

Learning of the case a News reporter called on her uncle, Alpheus Ramsay, who is the proprietor of the Bloor street shoe store, at the corner of Brunswick avenue, and with whom she has lived almost since infancy. On learning that his visitor was a reporter he was somewhat loth to speak of the case.

"Every body about here knows of the case," he said, "and I will be glad to tell any sufferer all about it, but I would rather not have it published."

When the reporter pointed out that he was in a position to let thousands know and probably be the means of giving them information that would lead to their recovery, he began to hesitate, and finally, he gave a brief account of the girl's miraculous restoration. He said:

"My niece is more like a daughter to me. She has been in my care since she was a child, and when she was taken sick a few months ago I was heart-broken. I got two of the best doctors in the west end to prescribe for her, but their medicines made her worse instead of better. She laid in bed week after week, looking like a corpse, eating nothing, and apparently wasting away in a mysterious manner. Her blood was thin and poor, and almost every day there was a change for the worse. She could not take the doctor's prescriptions, for she sickened at taste of them. While I was in this state of worry and anxiety a man came around one day delivering pamphlets and he threw one into my shop, I picked it up and I read an exact description of the illness with which my niece was suffering. The remedy prescribed for the cure of the malady described was Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I sent for a box and Cora took them in a mechanical kind of a way. Well sir, when she had taken them four days a change came over her. She began to eat with relish, and every day she seemed to gain fresh strength. She adhered faithfully to the directions, and took four boxes. By that time the roses had returned to her cheeks and she was a different looking girl. She discontinued taking the pills and later the same languid feeling began to creep over her, so she bought another box and is now as bright and as well as ever she was.

"That is the whole story," added Mr. Ramsay. "There may not be much in it for others, but I believe these pills saved Cora's life, and while I am not anxious for publicity on her account, it may be that other sufferers will be benefitted by hearing of this remedy. I cannot speak too highly of Pink Pills. I recommend them to everyone I know, and I take them myself."

Mr. Ramsay is one of the best known men in his neighborhood. He is the superintendent of the Sunday School of Concord Congregational church, and has the confidence of the entire community among whom he lives. He has spent two years in business at his present location and his business has grown so much that he is about to remove to larger premises in the Douglas block on Bloor street, near Bathurst.

His statements as to the young girl's condition are amply corroborated by residents of the locality, and up that way there is a boom in Pink Pills.

Any skeptic who has the inclination to visit Mr. Ramsay will be courteously received, no doubt, and the circumstances frankly related. His gratitude for his niece's recovery leads him to make the most enthusiastic statements regarding the efficacy of the remedy that saved his girl's life.

Geese, Turkeys, Chickens and Ducks

Wanted for which we will pay the highest market price in merchandise.

We have made arrangements with a large Toronto Dealer to ship this quantity of fowl this season.

Our instructions in buying are as follows:—

All fowl must be DRY PLUCKED.

Scalded fowl will not be accepted at any price.

Leave on the heads and feet as well as feathers on wings and tail.

Abstain from feeding 24 hours before killing and bleed thoroughly and pluck clean.

The early market is the best especially this year when feed is so very scarce.

Bring them along now while the market is open as it is always an overstocked market later on.

A PERFECT TEA

MONSOON TEA

THE FINEST TEA IN THE WORLD

FROM THE TEA PLANT TO THE TEA CUP IN ITS NATIVE PURITY.

"Monsoon" Tea is put up by the Indian Tea growers as a sample of the best qualities of Indian Teas. Therefore they use the greatest care in the selection of the Tea and its blend, that is why they put it up themselves and sell it only in the original packages, thereby securing its purity and excellence. Put up in ½ lb., 1 lb. and 5 lb. packages, and never sold in bulk.

ALL GOOD GROCERS KEEP IT.

If your grocer does not keep it, tell him to write to

STEEL, HAYTER & CO.,
32 and 33 Front Street East, Toronto.
