ELECTION NOTES.

Liberals are in the lead now in the number of men in the field. They have named 127 men, Conservatives have 94, Patrons 42 Independents 12.

Sir MacKenzie Bowell has at last resigned and his Excellency sent Sir Chas. Tupper. The reconstruction of the cabinet is now in progress.

Dalton McCarthy will open his campaign in Ontario by speaking at Owen Sound to-day. There is no doubt McCarthy has lately received a vast impetus of influence.

Sir Donald Smith has declined to run for a seat in the next parliament, but has accepted the High Commission, which he will accept, but declares he does not look upon it as a political office. He won't stay with Tupper.

One of the most interesting fights in the coming contest will be in the West, where "fighting Joe Martin" will be opposed by Hugh Jno. McDonald. Unless sinister influences are brought to bear Martin is sure to win, judging by the enthusiastic reception accorded him on his return from Ottawa.

We learn that Mr. Herbert Mockler is to be returning officer in this riding. This is an appointment which will give general satisfaction. There will be no crookedness or ballot stuffing attempted this time. For East Grey R. A. Riker, Shellburne is the man, while Reeve John Chalmers, of O. Sound will handle N. Grey.

Who can blame Sir MacKenzie Bowell if he plays a little with Tupper and his following before resigning? The Mail and papers of that ilk have been appointing days for him to resign, but up to today, he still holds office. The "nest of thorns" which ample evidence that Sir MacKenzie despises them, and they will yet know that the country does so too.

South Wellington Patrons met in Guelph lately to the number of 60 and nominated Mr. Tookey, of Erin for the Commons. Mr. Tookey will accept if Innes will again be necessary as he thought. [Later—Mr. Tookey has declined the nomination presumably for lack of financial support. Wise man.]

Dr. Spruille arrived home last Saturday night and was received at Durham with marked enthusiasm and crowds turning out to receive him. At Fisherton Station, and of course at Markdale also, he was the conqueror. This is a faint intimation of the constituency's answer to the bully of Tupper when he tried to read Spruille out of the party because he dared to show his independence. The answer will be complete on June 23rd.

In another column we notice the opening of the Election Campaign in Montreal. What is being done in South Grey? It is time that the Reformers of the body politic in this riding were bestirring themselves. There is much work to be done on the two months for the doing of it. The enemy is at our gates and now for many months has been sowing tares very diligently. Every body knows that Dr. Landerkin is the man in the right place, and will undoubtedly be at the head of the poll and by long individual efforts must feel that the result depends upon his individual efforts. And not till then will the country even handed justice for all classes in the community and an honest and capable administration of public affairs. Reformers! up, and be doing.

Protection is fast forcing the once independent yeoman farmer of the U. S. into a subservient position. According to their last census 52% of the farmers there are now rent paying tenants. Before protection was introduced in the sixties rent paying tenants were almost unknown. According to our last census we increased the number of tenant farmers in this free Canada of ours 50% more rapidly under the first decade of protection than we did under the last decade of revenue tariff. Farmers of Canada, whether are you driving? 40% of the value of the farms you have with such infinite toil won from the wilderness has already been frittered away, by the most corrupt government Canada has ever cursed with. Remember the privileges granted your protection can be voted away but landlordism cannot.

Sir Donald Smith has been appointed High Commissioner in the name of Sir Charles Tupper. If the office of Sir Donald Smith we presume will fill it with credit. He is one of the most successful business men in Montreal, fills several very important positions in that city, has amassed a large fortune by his business enterprise, but, at the same time, he has been most generous with his means and his influence in helping the charitable and industrial institutions of that city. True he has been a pronounced Conservative and his time and influence have been largely devoted to the command of his party. But, Sir, he is capable of appreciating an honorable position. Here is his estimate of Mr. Laurier: "It remains for the electorate to decide the question between the parties. Speaking for myself, I consider Mr. Laurier an honorable man, who was as anxious as any body that the school question should be settled, and who would have been only too willing to help the commissioners when they went to Winnipeg. I do not, however, want to make capital out of this question at all. He was sincere, and I have ever regarded him as a well-intentioned statesman."

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.
The Liberal Party has lost no time in laying the great issues of the present election before the people. On Friday the electors of Montreal assembled in the St. Lawrence Hall to welcome the Liberal leader and inaugurate the great contest which is now before the people of Canada. Mr. Laurier's address was an able review of the political situation. "The Government," said Mr. Laurier, "presents a sad spectacle. Faction rivalry and strife were rife among its members. They were at loggerheads when it was a question of rendering justice to a minority, but when it became a question of retaining themselves in office they were wonderfully united. On the other hand the Liberal party formed a solid and
