ELECTION NOTES.

-The campaign is now fairly opened. Last week Dr. Landerkin held meetings in Elmwood, Neustadt and Louise, and the attendance and enthusiasm was of such a character as to give the strongest hopes of success.

-The Tupper candidate also had meetings last week in Elmwood, Louise and Allan Park. He doesn't expect much in the west and probably is not disappointed at any coolness obserable towards him and the government he supports.

Orange and Masonic Lodges of Ont- | Protestant or Catholic. erio? Ans. Wilfrid Laurier.

P. P. is trying to keep up with the task. At Allan Park we are informed upon this question? the Patrons and Conservatives had a nice family quarrel, in which the M. P. P. got some hard rubs.

The remark is common. "A fine man Jamieson, but his party and his leader have lost all claims to support." Nothing should be more clear to every Intelligent citizen. Their administracon has been most corrupt. In their efforts to retain power they have deseended to baseness and treachery to each other sufficient to prove them unworthy of their high trust.

A vote for Jamieson means a continuation of Tupper. It means that the public business will be neglected in the next parliament to settle more squabbles among themselves for, is morally certain, the composition of she government and its truckling to the Hierarchy will cause divisions in the next parliament.

Grand Secetary Welch of the Patrons of Industry, last Thursday evening gave his views of the order and its leaders with refreshing clearness, while speaking in the West. The London Free Press has 14 inches of display headings over his speech which is reported in full. Secy. Welch has discovered that the order is in affiliation with the Reform party and working in its interests. That petron candidates are put up or left up where they are likely to mjure Conservatives. That Mr. Ross invited Mr. Haycock to dine with him, and while there was placed under a charm. Mr. Mallory's motives in preparing his address were questioned. Those patrons who raised their voice against the Massey Harris Co., were off the track, but were all put right when Mr Laurier came west and was likely to seceive Mr. Massey's support. Mr. Mulock and the cattle embargo comes to for a large share of speering attension. The Farmers' Sun gets a rap over the knuckles for parading him. The binder twine concern had resulted in swelling the profits of large stockbolders without giving the farmer the cheap twine he expected. How pa-

AFTER THE RECOUNT.

The attempt to unseat Dr. Landerkin by tampering with the ballot boxes having failed of its purpose, the Conservative Convention has lost no time in expressing its "earnest condemnation" of the vile miscreants who would "condescend" to such nefarious practices. Here is the resolution carried unanimously at a meeting of "our hour, the Manitoba School question. friends across the way" in "convention assem bled' on the 27th ult.
