

FOR PREMIER; Hon. W. Laurier

FOR SOUTH GREY: Geo. Landerkin M. D. M. P.

VICTORY 1896.

Laurier and Landerkin. South Grey is still Liberal. A close run between the two doctors. The Patron candidate is third with a much smaller vote than expected.

Did you hear anyone say they regretted Tupper's defeat? Not one word of offensive boasting have we heard from Liberal lips.

Six times has Dr. Landerkin been elected. Seven is the perfect number. Once more.

The interruptions Tupper met with in his campaign are now proved not to have been the work of boys. Boys don't mark ballots.

Ontario gives Laurier 2 or 3 of a majority. Quebec is nearly solid for Laurier 40 to 8 as far as heard from.

Laurier will have 14 out of Nova Scotia's 20 seats. Nearly, if not quite half of New Brunswick. 3 from Prince Edward Island, and one or two from British Columbia and the Territories. The rout of Tupper is complete.

The Bishops are answered by a wonderful exhibition of independence. Laurier is the white haired boy of Quebec.

Did you hear the thud as the four ministers fell? Dickey, the framer of the Remedial Bill. Angers, Desjardins, Taillon, the Quebec ministers who were taken into the Cabinet to pass the Remedial Bill all gone.

On the Liberal side the fortunes of war have gone against Mills, Patterson, Hyman, Innes and a few others. Laurier has only 2250 majority in Quebec East and is elected in Saskatchewan also. Dalton McCarthy is also elected in two places.

The leaders of the Patrons, C. A. Mallory and J. Lockie Wilson have fallen. The whole Patron order has undoubtedly struck hard lines.

The government struck at Clarke Wallace but he is elected.

The upheaval, for such it is, is only equalled by the Pacific Scandal election, with this difference however, that the incompetency and worse, of the ministerial party has been gradually preparing the country for the change.

Patrons must rejoice, secondarily, that Dr. Landerkin is in. A man ever true to his principles. He will be there to the end of the century. He is elected again through the help of many conservatives who saw in him a follower of the clean handed Laurier.

Dr. Jamieson made a splendid fight but as we remarked, was handicapped by the weakness of his leader, and the record of his party. He has become a splendid campaigner and has won golden opinions as a speaker.

ANALYSIS OF THE VOTE.

Egremont, as was expected did well for Mr. Allan giving him more than both the others together, but 100 less than he expected. Dr. Landerkin has many friends there however and he much more than doubled Dr. Jamieson. That Dromore ward was hard to beat.

In Glenelg and Normanby Dr. Jamieson got majorities, no doubt the totals being swelled by an increased Roman Catholic vote. We remarked two weeks ago, that Artemesia was for Landerkin, and the results show, that his friends there are many. Fleisher ward gave Landerkin 91 to Jamieson's 61. Markdale gave a much reduced majority for Jamieson, while Durham gave him 63, more than was expected, a result gratifying to his many friends. What shall we say of Bentinck? The Hanover wards gave their popular townsman a clean 200 majority and the rest of the township 74. Well done all.

LAURIER! LANDERKIN! VICTORY!!

We have the greatest pleasure in congratulating our readers on the great victory of Tuesday, not only in South Grey but all over the country. Dr. Landerkin's majority has increased from 54 to 67, and by this vote the electors of South Grey have in the most decisive way expressed their continued confidence in their esteemed representative and their continued adhesion to those Liberal principles which he has so ably and faithfully upheld for the last twenty-five years. All honor to the constituency and to Dr. Landerkin.

But what about the Dominion? The most optimistic Liberal could not have anticipated such a complete rout, East, and West, of the party of Jingo, of corruption, of waste and extravagance. Evidently the country is sick of Tupperism, and of the political mountebankism with which it has borne so patiently these many long years, of all the provinces, Quebec has done the most extraordinary. The Bishop's mandates and terrorisms have recoiled upon their own heads and the laity have declared with Laurier and Tarte, that in civil and political matters they will use the right of private judgment. Curiously, in South Grey it has been otherwise. The Roman Catholic vote has gone more strongly conservative in this election than it has done on any previous occasion. Why!

THE DAY

Was quiet except that horseflesh was in great requisition. The excitement began with the unannouncing of results, and when Durham piled up 93 for Jamieson, the grits got a cold bath. The adjoining wards came in slowly and kept up Dr. Jamieson's lead, but by 7 o'clock it was being gradually pulled down and when the South Egremont figures came in, it was wiped out entirely, and Landerkin went ahead, but with no room to cheer. It was very early seen that Mr. Allan was not in it, many of his friends on both sides dropping back to old affiliations. A long wait for Artemesia Dromore and Glenelg Centre wards kept both side on tenterhooks, but when Artemesia was found to have only 33 for Jamieson it was hard to restrain grit and enthusiasm, becoming altogether impossible when Dromore ward came in. Landerkin was sent for, and while on the way, the town hall was secured and at once filled with a crowd hungry for news. Then began 2 hours of reports. Mr. T. Harris reading the telegrams and announcing the results with great gusto. The audience was kept cheering, for the words "Liberal gain" was becoming monotonous and enthusiasm worked up with every increase of Laurier's majority. Mr. G. McKechnie in the lull of reports made a splendid informal chairman and warmed speeches and songs from a large number.

Eleven, Twelve, One o'clock, but still the crowd waited, and they were gratified at last as Dr. Landerkin, M. P. was observed in the doorway, the whole room rose in tremendous enthusiasm, cheering and waving hats, to be repeated again, when after shaking hands with every lady on the platform he confronted the audience. He made a warm speech thanking his friends and giving them credit for the victory. He had kind words too for his opponents and was delighted with Laurier's success. Mr. H. E. Miller, Dr. Mearns and Dr. Taylor spoke briefly and pointedly. Cheers were given again and again and the hall was deserted for the street where the Allan Park brass band was discoursing sweet music.

When a conservative defeat was plain Dr. Jamieson spoke from the Middaugh House balcony. He made an excellent speech acknowledging the work of his friends. He was heartily cheered by both grits and Tories for his manly speech.

Mr. Allan was in town, but did not so far as we know address his friends publicly.

Hanover is keeping holiday to-day, (Wednesday) and Durham will send helpers.

The country is safe.
