PRICEVILLE P. O.

To the Editor. DEAR SIR :

There appears in The Chronicle of Sept. 3rd a letter signed "Justice" show ing another phase of the P. O. deal, viz. the connection between the promise made by the late John Blyth to Mr. J. If "Justice" other day, on the differance of times since acles it might make him to see a little | in need of better times. -Over 30,000 barrels of apples have further into the matter he refers to. arrived at Liverpool this season, However, I will try to show him in as short a space as possible where I think

At the time Mr. Blyth made his well known promise to Mr. McArthur, no complaint had been make against Mr. Brown in his capacity of P. M. and Mr. Blyth never would have made any such promise had it not been for an unpleasant incident that occurred at a political meeting here during one of his camp-
