South Grey
RAIN AND SPLENDID INSIDE
For once in many years of South Grey Agriculture have met with a damp and figuratively, Tues was not so bad but that section of inside matter Durham was got together.
Certainly the fruit class better, and in this period for grain and stock, taken to plant out more plan for shipping on a large scale.
The pies and pastry showed the skill of our culinary line, while the ladies' fancy work delight of the judges as it did, so deeply take an interest. Thos. Gadd has taken bread two years in succession.
The butter class was entered, and the judges' terms of its excellence. Verme, sends a Cheese, would have liked competition. To do justice to the vegetable: be described in minute of a squash weighed it wasn't brought from either. Fanny Berry ticket for the 6 heaviest 117 lbs, being closely followed by Patterson, Jr. at 116 lbs.
S. Patterson Jr. takes 2 prizes, most of them carries off the collection. The hills at the Gore on the 20th Con. of Egremont, for potatoes as five out of 10 go to the two Patterson's and Jno. Acheson, all no relatives too. It must family.
The flowers are a continuing and notwithstanding late fine collection has been they had many admirers, carries off the collection.
Browne's collection of Fruit out doubt surpassed any seen in Durham. The exhibit showed artistic kept crowds always before youth and old age are all in all the vividness of life sthetic taste is gratified by which adorns the south end. Mr. Browne took first prize exhibited in 1885. He this year again, and will beat anywhere.
R. Torry showed 2 framed graphs having some excellent rural scenes with local catching the eye, the finish realism being very good.
The Hillises and Willis are the show with fine crowd the prize list.
The lack of the ring even general regret, the track horse safe to race upon owing.
The directors must be grateful to the Secretary, Mr. McKenzie, at the excess of entries shows, every line was well and the general excellence remarked.
More light and more space required for the poultry, which largely increased attention crowds of admirers, let our local fanciers we glory.
The Caldwell Bros., of Ontario still to the front in Tam and various other lines.
Secy. McKenzie is most of the press, and everyone of long experience renders him able servant.
Pres. Edge still has a favor cover pill and is pleased with under the adverse conditions.
The pencil sketches of Mr. man pleading for the Vanquishing group with various passions finely brought of features and pose.
Among the ladies' work imitation ears of corn in wood hungry man might get surprised.
Messrs Jackson and Park some of their fine breeds of and Durhams respectively a of a number of prizes.
The sheep pens were well all breeds with some fine two aged ewes of Mr. A. M. highly spoken of.
Messrs A. and P. Muir, some heavy prize fakers swine, etc. Come again get
