A large number met them at the Station and escorted them to Middaugh House corner. The effect of the day's training of the men showed itself in the solidity of the march and improved soldierly appearance.

Capt. McGirr lined them up and before dismissal the popular captain was made the recipient of a gold headed cane and an address which speaks for itself. Mr. G. Matthews made the presentation and Mr. W. Ramage read the address.

It is with unfeigned pleasure that we, the members of No. 4 Company, of the 31st Battalion, present you with this card, as a slight token of appreciation, respect and good will, we have towards you, and in acknowledgement of the very able, courteous and gentlemanly way in which you have discharged the duties devolving upon you as Captain of this Company and wishing you every success in life and that you may be long spared to lead this Company wherever duty may demand, is the earnest and sincere wish of the humble members of No. 4.

Capt. McGirr replied in a few well chosen words, expressing his pleasure at commanding such a company, and regretting that his connection with them was likely to terminate before another camping time.

Cheers were then given for Capt. McGirr and Lieut. H. Hunter and the outing of 1896 was over.

EAST GREY SHOW.

This fine Riding Exhibition was held last Thursday and Friday, the latter and chief day having a large attendance, though the hours of chief outside interest were spoilt by rain.

The Association has now a fine new track, which, when hardened properly, will be a first class course. On Friday, however, its newness made it muddy and prevented some racing from being done.

What was shown in the way of horse flesh, though in the opinion of some not up to form 7 years, was very creditable, and the performances were good considering the effects of the rain. Brewster, of Osprey, showed a mafe and colt which were much admired. They took 1st prize in Toronto.

In Cattle classes there was little improvement from former years. Mr. H. Tucker was again judge in this class and his decision gave general satisfaction.

The sheep and pig classes showed up well with splendid specimens. Mr. Jno. Nichol was judge, and his well practiced eye picked out the prize winners in a way that could not be gainsaid.

On the grounds were 2 collections of farm and road vehicles Mr. D. McTavish getting first in all classes for articles which in finish and general get up could scarcely be excelled.

Shepherdson, of Walter's Falls, was well to the front as a prize winner, taking prizes for Jersey cattle, Cotswold sheep, and 4 first prizes and 2 seconds in the swine classes.

He is being closely run by Peter Muir, a pushing young Ardenesia farmer, who in the Chester White class captured 1st for aged boar, aged sow, spring boar, spring sow respectively and took 2nd for Berkshire boar. He has secured a splendid Berkshire sow, bred by Snell, and will not be satisfied with less than the best. At Markdale, two days before he was also a prominent prize winner.

Johnston and Colman from near Markdale were exhibitors of Durham cattle, and Mr. Paton, South Line, had a 1-year-old Durham Bull of rare excellence.

Alex. Muir, as usual was one of the chief exhibitors, getting 2nd for Ayrshire cow, and 1st for 2-year-old bull, yearling bull, 2-year-old heifer, heifer calf, aged Leicester Ewes, and 2nd for Shearling ram. In grains he took 1st in Fife Wheat, 2nd in Russian, 1st in white field carrots, mangolds, turnips, beets, Aberdeen and Grey Stone turnips and 5 or 6 prizes in poultry. 2nd for ensilage and 3rd for crock butter. All this with a record of 20 firsts and five seconds at Markdale is pretty good showing.

Mr. Jas. Brodie is also a note worthy exhibitor and got first in Russian wheat 6 rowed barley, small peas, white oats, large peas, black oats, collection of grains in straw, collection of poultry and 6 prizes on other fowl.

Mr. S. Patterson, of the 19th Con. Regiment is looking for new fields to conquer and drove home with 12 first prizes and 6 seconds. A lot of the lots were on potatoes, and his pumpkins, red carrots, and parsnips were also first, cabbage, mangolds, corn, tomatoes, etc., also bringing in tickets.

The Ladies' work, though we do not pretend to be a judge, seemed in quantity and quality to be far above the averages. Apples, a fruit expected from the Orange Valley, were extraordinary. Flowers and Fine Art specimens were tasteful but not numerous, but the display of pastry was fully up to the mark.

The inside of the hall generally would have done credit to more pretentious places. The potatoes were excellent in appearance. By the way we saw 3 potatoes weighed at Mr. H. Tucker's at the Station which tipped the beam at 4 lbs. 2 oz. and lots more like them.

Secy. Sproute was most obliging and courteous, and we hope the receipts were not unduly lowered by the rain.

Stalwart Alex. McDunn still officiates as gate keeper, and another South Grey boy, Mr. Wm. Moore is doing a thriving business.

From Durham went Mr. E. Limin, who was a guest of Mr. Henry Tucker, the night previous. Mr. Thos. Swallow was also present.

HOPEVILLE.

W. W. Hall is laid up with a sore eye he got a piece of steel into it while working in his shop, he is gaining some.

Another garden of vegetables destroyed by cows' breaking in, this man did not pound them.

Dan McEachnie went to Durham last week and traded his team.

The McEachnie meetings are still going. Mr. McEachnie has been assisted by Mr. D. Buchanan the student, a Mr. Michael Delaney a convert from the R. C. Church who came from near Walkerton and two of our village men who is also doing good work. There was a special meeting on the day-time last Friday for the old people who could not attend at night, M. J. Will has a man over 90 years old one of Frost's first settlers was present.

Mr. Delaney is gone to Thorburny.

Mr. Buchanan is going to leave this week.

Two of our young men got into a little row a few nights ago coming from the McEachnie meeting and a fight was started the other parties that were present didn't try to make peace and after a little gunging and noise one old man who was sitting in his house and heard the noise went out and started for home and all ended well.

We hear of a convention being called at this place to choose men for the new County Council. I have not heard when it is.

We are getting a shoemaker in the McLeod land, one W. H. McDougal from Dundalk.

Our mail man is giving up farming and coming into the village to live.

We are expecting a big time at Sealett Hotel on Monday night, a party is on hand, Tom has got a sand of an invitation.

NORMANBY CAN DO IT.

The great fall exhibition and annual gala days of our township were held in the village of Neustadt on the 24th and 25th inst; and considering the large number in attendance and the immense display especially in the inside of the capacious Agricultural hall, we came to the conclusion that both rustics and citizens seemed to vie with each other in order that the reputation of Normanby for a first class exhibition in '96 might be even better established a possible than formerly.

Vehicles of different kinds bearing choice varieties of fruit and vegetables and stacks of ladies fine work, the produce of the dairy, &c., were pouring in from early morn the first day till near noon, and at 2 p. m. the tired and obliging secretary and his worthy assistant had recorded 2150 entries!

Several scientific and painstaking ladies were determined to "capture a prize" of some sort, and one succeeded so well that Mr. A. Nichol's special butter was awarded her, the explanation of which caused our modest bachelor M. P. P. to wear his blindest smile, and to express his high appreciation of the efforts of the Normanby ladies.

The display inside the hall was simply immense, mammoth pumpkins weighing nearly 100 lbs, and almost 7 in. in circ., potatoes 9 in. long, Mangold Wurtzel 30 in. and "built in proportion," turnips 20 lbs and cabbage 36 in. in circ., choice apples of several varieties, splendid grapes and plums, ladies fine work in flower, wheat, embroidery in silk and wool, beautiful cushions, silk quilts, oil painting, &c.

Quite an attraction was Mr. Chapman's display of photos among whom we noticed Messrs. A. Martin, J. Coon, T. Ellis, Squire Robert-on and family, Mr. Philip Scale's attractive store by flash light etc.

Cattle, pigs and sheep were there in large numbers, especially the latter in Oxford Downs, Shropshires, Leicesters etc., but the horses were not so numerous as formerly although some splendid animals were exhibited in the various classes.

The trotting and "go as you please" race was reserved for the home journey, and the lovely moonlight proved favorable. A few young gen lemen from the 2nd and 3rd and a tall volunteer from Mt. Forest, as they wanted their way homeward determined to try the pace of their steeds, and John Gilpin like they could be seen on the 12th flogging man in all directions and we believe Royal Prince and W. came out ahead every time.

The people of Neustadt were very attentive to the wants of the public, and the village brass band was on the grounds and in the hall and rendered some stirring and beautiful music which was much appreciated.
