

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Mrs. Allan McKinnon and Miss Brown visited friends in Holland last week.

Mr. W. K. Reid, Glendon, is re-engaged for 1887 at a substantial increase of salary.

A Granite Tea Pot worth $60 and a pound of baking powder all for half a dollar, at Grant's.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday first.

Markdale pays her staff of four teachers $1275, an advance of $85 over last year. All hold 2nd class.

A. O. U. W.—A grand officer of this body is expected to visit the lodge soon, to stimulate them to renewed life.

Rev. Mr. Little will conduct the preparatory services in the Presbyterian Church tomorrow, Friday, at 2.30 p. m.

Mr. Neil McKinnon, Mr. Jas. Watson and other Pricewillers were in town Monday at the funeral of the late Mrs. Jones.

Others have found health, vigor and energy in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is highly recommended to help you also. Why not try it?

Mr. Wm. Hastie, who has purchased a farm in Proton is now busy turning over the soil to be ready for the spring crops.—Yewville cor. of Rep.

VACANT STORES.—The Toronto Star, to offset yankee lies about vacant stores, says there are only—about 500 in Toronto. This is had enough.

A special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Public Library, will be held on Thursday evening 9th, (to-night,) at 7 p. m. in the Board room.

Mr. James and Miss Susanna Snell of Toronto were guests at Mr. Allan McKinnon's last Sunday. They had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Jansen's evening sermon.

Miss Brown who was the guest of her cousin Miss S. McKinnon for a month yesterday for her home in Minto, accompanied by her grandmother Mrs. K. McComb.

SALE BILLS. Parties wishing Sale Bills will do well to call at the Review Office. We can nearly always let you have them same day you call. We give you a free notice in the paper too.

The 19 teachers in training in the Model School here under Mr. Allan will soon be taking active hold of teaching in the rooms. Kincardine Model School has only 7 pupils. A change needed there.

LOST.—On Thursday last between Durham and the residence of Mrs. S. Morrison, North of Town, a parcel of dry goods, the holder will oblige by returning to Mrs. Morrison or leaving at Review Office.

The Review prize at the Pricewille show for the nearest guess to the weight of a best goose to Mr. Rich. Whittaker, Flesherton Station. The guesses were near each other, but the nearest was about 10 lbs off.

ELECTION PROTESTS.—Coming events cast their shadows before, and we will before long have some of these unsavory affairs paraded before us. The Judges met last week we believe to make arrangements.

EXTENSIVE CREDIT SALE.—On Tuesday, Oct. 27th, Auctioneer Stephens will offer for sale Stock, Implements, Furniture, Hay, Corn, Turnips, Fowl, &c., on Lot 2, Con. 2 Normanby, Joseph Neal, Proprietor.

CHEESE.—The cheese markets for 2 weeks back have been booming. The edible price jumped 4 shillings in one day, and has since risen to 50 sh. Prices at boards in Ontario are running from 10c. to 10c. and the prospects are that these prices will be maintained.

FATALITIES.—Three firemen met their death at a fire in Montreal last week. An inmate named Clemens jumped from the bridge in the Rossdale ravine and was killed. This makes the fourth suicide within a year at this place.

Mrs. Hannah Chard, of New Jersey, at the age 107, has given up the use of tobacco, because she has become convinced that it is shortening her life. It is beautiful to see one thus early in life give up an evil practice without waiting as many do, until the habit is fastened upon them.

GREAT VALUE.—The REVIEW and the Weekly Globe will be sent to any address on this continent till 1st January 1888, for $1.35. Join the REVIEW club—over 150 others have done so—and get all the news of the world and the locality. The Globe is bigger than ever and the Review is absolutely necessary as a local paper.

SHOW THEM UP.—Toronto Departmental Store Catalogues continue to arrive in town. Do our merchants ever see them? If the public would compare home prices with those given in the catalogues there would be much less sending out of town for goods to the injury of the home dealer as well.

We supply the REVIEW and Weekly Mail and Empire to Jan 1st, 1888, for $1.40. The Saturday edition has 16 pages and so on, and the price is $2.00. By the liberality of the publishers we are able to offer this edition with the REVIEW for $2.25 or better still all three for the sum of $2.50. Can you do better?

Two Horses Wanted. The undersigned wishes to exchange two corner lots fenced and cultivated in the lower town here for two good drivers, not more than 8 years old.

Apply to MR. J. P. TELFORD, or Thomas D. Thomas, Box 300 Owen Sound.

PRESENTATION.—On Wednesday evening of last week a goodly number of patrons and their friends met and spent a social time in the school house in Mr. Wm. Allan's section. As a recognition of Mr. Allan's services in the maintenance of patronism, a purse was presented complimentary references to his candidature being made. Mr. Allan responded appropriately. See Murdoch news.

OCTOBER FAIR.—One is surprised in view of the thinning out of cattle last year to find still so many offerings. It showed a little improvement, and a number changed hands. Two year old steers sold from $12 to $20. Cows did not go well. A large drove came down from the North Monday night so that considerable money is being left in the country.

SURROGATE COURT.—Among the 27 estates of deceased persons in the County of Grey dealt with by the Surrogate court in August and September are the following probate of wills: Es- David Hunter, Normanby, to J. J. Keppel, to his wife Jane Clark, M. P. $6,293. Alex. Taylor, Egrement, to J. J. Russell, Estate $24,710. Jonathan Robinson, Normanby, to Jas. Carson and Jno. Wright, Estate $9,500.

Dr. Williamson, chairman of the Mt. Forest district of the Methodist church will give a lecture, the title of which is, "Hunting Foxes," in the Methodist church here on Monday evening, near Oct. 23. After the lecture the assembly will adjourn to the school room where luncheon will be served and a social will be taken. All will be made welcome.

DUNDALK SHOW.—was a great success, and amongst the prize winners we notice the names of Jno. Watson, Andrew McIlwride, S. Kinneil, the Muirs and others figuring prominently. Not the least of these others is Wm. Mount- an, who with his good lady came home with about $17 in prizes, a little more than what they have secured in all this year at the shows. Thus is diligence rewarded. The horse Ravenhill did one of its caretakers, having done the same thing last year if we remember aright.

DURHAM MARKET.—Fanners are finding that Durham as a place to dispose of their produce has few equals, if any, in this upper district. Our merchants in their dealing are square and fair, and our advertising pages show what goods can be bought for before you leave home. Messrs. Ramsay and Morlock in the crush of their Millinery season take time and extra space in the Review for a few weeks to show the public what they can secure at their fine store store, while J. A. Hunter and other our advertisers have goods second to none in similar communities, and at prices to suit the hard times.

NEW POST OFFICES.—The township of Bentinck is to receive two new Post Offices. One of these is to be placed at Corinth, lot 25 Con. 6, but as the name Corinth is already in use as a P. O. it, Mulock, after the Post Master General. The other is at lot 5 on the 7th and is to be named after the new Post Master Chas. Haverhill. These will be supplied from Hanover, and at an expense considered very moderate. There has been some talk that a new P. O. is required near Gadd's corner, Normanby, but no steps have been taken as far as we know.

HINTS TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Numbers the page of your manuscript. Don't number the items. Write on one side of the paper only. Do not refer to people by their initials. Do not write mysterious paragraphs that only yourself and a few others will understand. Do not abbreviate words. Do not refer personally to young people's courtship. Do not say "yesterday" and "to-morrow," as your items may not go to press for several days. Give the day and date of everything. Try to do good; you may never have as good a chance again. Build people up; don't pull them down.—Exchange.

Glenclyde Tp Council for next year is being thought of. Deputy Staples to all appearances will be the next reeve, while Mr. T. McFadden, if he aspires for the deputyship will likely get it without opposition. This will ensure for the next Council two old heads, and Messrs Lamb and Arrowsmith will be still available. The vacant place is likely to call out several aspirants however, and it is expected that Mr. Thos. Sullivan will be a candidate, and likely a successful one too, as his action last year in refusing to come out, though pressed to do so, in order to avoid an election, was much appreciated. Mr. Jno. Williams' name is mentioned in this connection also, and he will make a good run.

LIVELY LIQUOR PROSECUTIONS.—East Luthers is a local option township, and the three Grand Valley hotelkeepers were each fined $50 and costs for having liquor on their premises. An inspector and a High Constable made the raid and stored a lot of the stuff in a frame-out-house in the rear of the store of one of the convicting magistrates, it was discovered, at dusk that 15 gallons of whisky, barrel and all had been stolen an extra watch had been put on but next morning while at breakfast another keg was stolen, $35 worth in all. The remainder, 64 larger kegs, were smashed, and the creamy liquid lay in pools on the ground. The ale and lager bottles were smashed on a convenient stone pile.

The senior and junior Epworth Leagues of the Methodist church united on Monday evening last and entertained their many friends, co-workers and fellow-workers, with Rev. Mr. Pomeroy presiding. A goodly number was present. The meeting was opened with song and prayer followed by the program: Instrumental, Miss E. Liman; essay on Longfellow, Mr. Jones; song, Miss Cora Moffat; reading, Miss Cooke; trio, Longfellow's Excelsior, Misses Wallace and Parker and Mr. Jones; reading, Mr. M. Parker; song, Miss Jessie Laidlaw; Miss Tot Parker and Miss Phoebe Wolfe reading copies of the "Epworth Re-Echo," a weekly paper which is gotten up by the members of the junior society. All the renderings were excellent, particularly the essay by Mr. Jones, which was thoughtfully prepared.

COUNTY COUNCIL.—As the time draws near interest increases. In our own No. 3, there seems to be but a faint-hearted opposition to Reeve Messenger in the West, and his candidature is likely to be successful, as he will poll a very large vote in his own township. Reeve Binnie's chances have as yet received no check and there is not likely to be any. The presence of C. McKinnon in the field makes it interesting for both parties as he will work into both townships, and take a large vote in town as well. In Div. No. 4, the contest seems now to be clearly defined, Jas. Allan, Swanston, Morice and the elder Schenk, being the candidates, of the four Morice's chances seem to be best, with Allan in the 2nd place but there's no telling. In the east Proton has three candidates, Rogers, Corbett, and Deputy Watson, and if all remain in the field Artemesia will say thank you and run off with both offices. Mr. M. Richardson will be elected if he stands, and Mr. Jno McArthur is spoken of also.

Mr. Whiteford has secured the Hampden school for 1887. He is a resident of the section.

Mr. David McFarlane, merchant, of Caledon, is spending a few days with his father and other friends in town.

Rev. Mr. Moffat of the Upper Canada Bible and Tract Society, will address a meeting in the Baptist church on Monday night.

5000 Cords Four Foot Wood wanted sawn ends, Beech and Maple. Highest market price. J. A. Hunter. Upper Town Durham.

HORSE FOR SALE.—6 year old Bay, good driver or worker, weight about 1100 lbs. Will sell cheap for cash or exchange for wood. J. A. HUNTER.

HUNTERS, ATTENTION!—Licenses for the privilege of deer hunting must be obtained and can be secured from Mr. F. Walmisley, Wilmart, For charge is $2.00. We shall give further information next week.

When your blood is pure, rich and nourishing for nerves and muscles. The blood is the vital fluid, and when it is poor, thin and impure you must either suffer from some distressing disease or you will easily fall a victim to sudden changes exposure, or overwork. Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pill; assist digestion, cure headache, &c.

BERBOMONT Council positions next year are not likely to go to a begging, 2nd Deputy Jns. Allan running for a County position leaves his position vacant, and we hear that Mr. Watson is out for it. Mr. Watson it seems to us would be a most acceptable municipal officer, as his mechanical skill would be useful in bridge contracts, etc. Councillor Leith will no doubt be elected again, and Mr. Wm McFadden an old war horse, is again in the field, for the other position and as he served the township well for many years, it would be the graceful thing to elect him. If Mr. McFadden should not run Mr. David McKelvie will be a candidate and would make a good one. Messrs Bye and Fraser are to contend for the 1st deputyship, and Mr. P. Dickson will be reeve for another year.

PARKER'S SALE OF THOROUGHBREDS.—On Friday afternoon Auctioneer MacKay had some fine animals under his hammer as he has had for many a day. The prices realized could scarcely have been profitable to Mr. Parker, and the purchasers may be sure to have more than the worth of their money should our cattle markets improve. A number of wide-awake breeders from a distance among whom we noticed F. Muir, Artemesia, who takes home a 2 yr. old heifer; A. Muir, a cow and calf; Johnston, Artemesia, a cow and calf; Parker, Artemesia, 2 yr. old bull; P. Quigg, a cow and calf. Nearest home are Jas. Hay, who paid $24, for a fine year old; H. Willis got the only Avshire cow, while S. Lawrence got her calf for $10; J. L. Wilkinson paid $45.50 for a cow and calf; F. Petty, one yr. old heifer, for $28.25; C. Petty got a fine bull calf; C. McInnis, Egrement, paid the highest price of the day, though not the dearest, for a handsome cow with heifer calf, for $50. He also got admittedly the best bull in the herd, "Castguard," the highest priced bull of the day, and has the foundation for a fine herd in a year or two. Matt. Barber also made purchases.

DAVISON COURT.—Judge Morrison held court here Tuesday and the docket was smaller than usual. A case of some interest was that of Klyne v. Shortreed. Shortreed had sold lambs to Klyne for $2.25, but the buyer not coming at the time he promised, (according to Shortreed) they were sold to another party for $2.10. Case went against Shortreed, who is out $4.50 and costs. Moral: fix the date and in writing or don't sell.
