ASTBURY'S BARGAIN.

CHAPTER I, Continued.

upon it. To win such a love as that no earthly power can save him from utwhat would not any man give?-to oe ter ruin and disgrace.

black film and a draught from the only be to shun me and feel ashamed that you ever called me your friend." his bag. "There is no more to say. ing out his hand; but she drew back, with a melancholy movement of he repeated hastily. "God bless you; fort your words give me." and may you never have cause to be sorry for the answer you have given me to-day."

him before the dazed girl could recover from the bewilderment caused by his words and conduct. The burning of words and conduct. The burning of that paper with so much care and de- in the City. You have got ill over it, liberation had perplexed her sorely; and consequently you are looking at saw in the nephew of John Ellicott, of their coffins face them in their cells; and rousing herself, she darted to the distorts the appearance and meaning of Overton Park a most desirable match they know that everything is being fireplace to see if any scrap remained all that you see." on which might be found some legible words to give a clue to the meaning of him that she helped him more than she his action. But the work of destruc- could have imagined to bear the heavy tion had been too thoroughly accom- burden he had resolved to take upon plished to leave the faintest trace of himself. They were standing under the what the paper had been, or what had was full of subdued emotion. been written on it.

itor, she was sorry for him, because she | ter day. Good-bye." liked him. He had been a trusted Although he uttered the last word friend and companion; and he had in- in the manner of one who is taking troduced Henry Dacon to her. Na- Daisy refused to accept it in that sense. turally, too, she had a kindly So, with affected confidence, she inregard for the man who had wished quired: "When are we to see you to marry her, and who, until quite again?"

I do not know-maybe you will nevrecently had borne his rejection pati- er see me again." ently. But she could not help his dis"Yes I start this afternoon on what which makes life most agreeable." appointment when he discovered that will probably be a very long journey. she liked Dacon so much as to prefer I do not yet know what my destination him before all others as the man to is to be whom she was ready to entrust her future. It was not her fault that she ered gloomily should prefer him. Love was not a "I think you are trying to frighten to contact with the desirable son-in-law, fault, and could not be got up to order. me, Gilbert," she ejaculated with a so she had been long oblivious to the Can love be regulated in its growth to the gate. suit convenience, prudence, circum- She watched him hurrying down the which defrayed all Daisy's expenses, and limit in the construction of this buildstances, and climate? All history and green lane, and fancied that his steps was pleased to think of herself as the cloud. She would have liked to show corner and was out of sight. her sympathy for him-would have been glad to speak any comforting words of in attempting to shield himself from blame, as she fancied, by accusing his pers contained a brief paragraph un- naturally held the position of a parent pressed the sympathy she would willing- City!"-"Flight of the Suspected Crim- as her only home. She accepted so imly have given him. And now, when he inal!"—and so forth. The information plicity the theory that her aunt's prohad vexed and worried her almost be- given under these startling lines was yond endurance, she could not help feeling sorry for him-he looked so very ill when he said: "God bless you; and may you never have cause to be sorry recently discovered that a series of infor the answer you have given me totressed her exceedingly. So she could ounted to the enormous total of ninety only find relief in tears, and wish that Henry would come soon to help to ex-Henry would come soon to help to ex-plain Gilbert's mysterious behaviour. Of and in the meanwhile it was discover-plain Gilbert's mysterious behaviour. Of each that the confidential clark of the somehow, help him to win the goal of plain Gilbert's mysterious behaviour. Of course, whilst speaking to him and in her rage it had been all plain enough; her rage it had been all plain enough; sconded. He had been aware for sev- she had begun to consider her position.

All that the convict sees is a throng of shrouded creatures, like himself horship grotesque, noiselessly making their way over the prison store. The best and worst to oust his rival from eral days that he was under suspicion, the first place in her regard. But now and his sudden flight seemed to justify that he was gone and she could remem- it. The police were on his track, and ber the many traits of a brave, upright, no doubt of his speedy arrest was engenerous nature displayed by Gilbert tertained. during years of friendly intercourse, in which, if there had been evil in his character, some sign of it must have been manifested-now, when she remembered this and could think over it, the recent discovery that a series of rigantic frauds had been perpetrated on the firm of Ellicott & Co., the extensive sibility of doubt as to his complicity in ship-brokers and ship-owners. No one fully conscious of the injury which her crime; but investigations were in progress and suspicion pointed to one of two persons, because they alone seemed fled from the investigation-would ento have it in their power to perpetrate tail upon her and hers. To Daisy the Mr. Ellicott, the head of the firm, and a junior partner, and Gilbert Astbury, the confidential clerk, were the only persons in England who had the right of access to the documents and informa-

The position of the first named seemed to place him beyond suspicion; and little doubt was entertained as to who the claimed Mrs. Silverton, putting on her real culprit must be. But John Elli- gold-mounted pincenez to examine the cott, in his seventieth year, was still girl attentively, as if to discover whea clear-headed, strong-willed man, and ther or not the defence was made seristernly just. He would pronounce no ously. "Gilkert is not a fool, and the proofs of guilt had been fully col- his disappearant at this moment meant leoted. Therefore the investigation pro- to him. An innocent man never runs ceeded without any arrest being made and the two suspected persons were presumed to be giving their utmost aid —it is terrible and most incomprehenin its prosecution. The assistance of the sible. He had such a chance in life police had not yet been called for, as as few young men without fortune ever Mr. Ellicott desired to avoid fuss and obtain." scandal until he could say: "There is the forger—arrest him." He was the more strongly moved to this course as ing her eyes to meet the glittering there was a bare possibility that a third glasses which were fixed upon her. "He · transaction must become public and pass As she made this declaration there into the hands of the police.

It was at this juncture that Gilbert paid his hasty visit to the Cottage, and lingly beautiful in the fair face with the left it with that look of absolute dehalo of impregnable, undoubting love spair which only appears when apman worthy of it, what would not any man | He did not observe Daisy put down carefully tore into fragments the pathe watering-can and advance to meet him as he was walking blindly towards the gate. She was frightened by his per he had taken from the packet, expression and clasped his arm with her whilst he moved towards the fireplace. soft hand. "You are very ill, Gilbert," "Do not go yet-stay only a minute. she exclaimed, "What has happened?"

He smiled faintly as he took her hand, I am going, and you are not likely to pressing it gratefully; for there was no see me again." He was dropping the mistaking the depth of the girl's solfragments of paper into the fire as he icitude on his account. "Little more spoke, and they made a merry blaze has happened than I expected, Daisy; which seemed to mock at his misery. ference in the world to me. You will When the last bit had turned into a not see me again-or if you do, it will partly opened door had whisked it up "I shall never feel that," she respondthe chimney, he replaced the packet in ed quietly; "and you ought to know it. Whatever misfortune may happen Good-bye." He was at the door, hold- you it cannot alter my regard for you." "I believe you think so now," he said startled by his abrupt manner, and he head; "but you do not know-you canmisunderstood the movement for one of not guess what you will soon hear about me. All the same I wish I could thank refusal to take his hand. "Good-bye," you as I would like to do for the com-

"I won't believe anything. I hear about you if it is bad," was her decisive comment, and with shrewd instinct she went straight to the point: "You have The outer door had closed behind persuaded Hetty to see you, and she has and consequently you are looking at

> He smiled again faintly. She was so much in earnest in her endeavor to cheer shadow of the cedar tree, and his voice

"Thank you again, Daisy, for what Then the girl sat down and cried. you have said. I shall remember the words all my life-they will always be Angry as she had been with her vis- the most precious memories of this bit-leave of a dear frien for a long time, somewhat meagre. Messrs. Ellicott & Co., the well-known ship-owners and ship-brokers of Fenchurch Street, had genious forgeries had been perpetrated by some one in their employment. The The words, the burning of the letter, sums obtained by these forgeries, so far as could be at present estimated, am-

The news of Gilbert's disappearance was the cause of much excitement to the inmates of Cedar Cottage; but the views taken of it by each of the three women differed. Hetty regarded it as she could only feel bewildered and sorry an unquestionable proof of the innocence of Henry Dacon; and whilst she lamented the position of his and her former friend, she was glad that her lover was thus exonerated from all posthe fraud. Mrs. Silverton was painacknowledged relationship with the criminal-she had at once accepted the theory that he was guilty, since he had views taken by her aunt and cousin were incomprehensible. She could partly understand Hetty; but she could not understand her aunt.

"If it is true that Gilbert has gone away," she said with quiet confidence, tion, the possession of which rendered away, she said with quiet confidence, the frauds possible. "it is not to save himself, but to shield some one else."

"What nonsense you talk, child!" exinion; he would accuse no one until must have been refectly aware of what

Mrs. Silverton was more astounded by the audacity of her niece than by the assumed guilt of the fugitive, although that was most offensive and, as she for him. She was satisfied, however, tant family relationship between them; light might be thrown on the state of and the remembrance of that admission affairs. She had no doubt that rankled in her mind now. Instead of would come, from the way in experiencing any sense of pity for Gil- Hetty listened to the sound of passing bert, she was angry with him, for his wheels and her frequent visits to the defalcation was a direct personal in- window. She would have been relieved if there had been any way in which she could save her own reputation for perspicacity by hinting that she had al- IM ways had a misgiving about the young IT IS A PRISON OF SCIENCE man. But such consolation was denied her. His success had been so rapid; every one to whom he had been presented so marked, that she had not been able to resist the delight of playing the patron to the favorite of the hour. Thus she had committed herself too definitely as voucher for his respectability to dare to shirk it now. She could only exclaim that she was horrified-that she had never been so deceived in all her life, and that it almost shattered her faith in the honesty of the whole human race. She had done so much for him -on account of his poor dear mother, who had been mercifully spared by Providence the spectacle of his disgrace ing in his entire territory that com--that she could never forgive him, or forget her own weakness in being led special approbation of the widow, who ence; their prison garb is a shroud; thought of Gilbert as a possibly acceptable suitor; but she repudiated the bare they wait, from day to day, wondering idea of it as soon as Dacon frankly de- if their release will come by death or clared his intentions and was accepted insanity. by Hetty. She pretended to herself that she had never thought of such an she would ever have sanctioned it. Mrs. Silverton was a plump, fair lively, lady, still on the hither side of by a large measure of common-sense. alloted eight years. Two, or at most She was good-natured to this extentshe would help anybody, if the help three, is the limit. At the end of that required did not tax her pocket, whilst time they go mad and disappear. it redounded to her credit. She was The deportation at the end of eight blessed with unlimited faith in herself, in her own wisdom, foresight, charitableness, and all the other noblest qual- the pleasantry on the part of the judge. ities of humanity; and she had admirers | The construction of the fortress, which enough of both sexes-sincere and sy-which makes life most agreeable. her to bear with equanimity the open creep about in felt slippers, all work "But you will write and tell-aunt?" rebellion of Daisy in regard to Gilbert. together to deprive the unfortunate of "There will be no letters," he answ- As she had forgotten the circumstance that it was he who had brought her in- his reason. shade of impatience, as they parted at quarterly payment regularly received which might have permitted her-even ed Daisy's mind. She had grown up The latest editions of the evening pa- under the influence of her aunt, who der big headlines: "Great Frauds in the to her, and looked upon Cedar Cottage tection was a necessity for which the with prison dirt. Their faces are con-> into her life; new strength, new hope sound that intrudes upon their lives of unbroken silence. was poor, she knew; he was clever, she They may not exchange one glance she had begun to consider her position. their way over the prison stones. The She found out what means were at her click of door after door is the only disposal; and with the sanguine ideas sound. The tread of their naked feet which the first cheque from a publisher along the corridors gives back no sound in the train shed of the Windsor stainspires in the budding author, she imagined that with hard work and an avcise triangles," which are a unique feather than the incoming passenger trains had early efforts promised, she might be place of a prison yard, as a convict through some peculiar accident brought castles in the air thus built were very beautiful; and the dreams of bliss with which she filled them were very sweet. six or seven prisoners at a time, and is supposed that while passing through Then the castles and the dreams were left to pace up and down them for one wooded land the squirrel had dropped > was so proud of !-was confirmed by the Persia, the Ameer of Afghanistan and and it fell to the lot of one of the red statements of his friend Harry Dacon all the other Oriental potentates who beguile their leisure hours in devising ture the little deadhead. In the cap-

cies which had made the world so beauthe more misery to her to know that | About a year ago King Charles visfelt pity for him as keen as for herself. in its ennobling effects. Hetty had told her that she was engaged to Henry Dacon. Gilbert must dind that out for himself. The bitter knowledge would come upon him soon in the himself and the state of the himself. The bitter knowledge would come upon him soon in the himself and the himself. The bitter world, despite the fact that she still and the himself and enough, and, judging by her own sen- worth $8,000,000, and no highways.

self-sufficiency. Hetty was too well pleased to find that every possible suspicion was cleared away from Henry to pay much heed to the trifling passage between her mother and cousin. -when he seemed to be prospering- on's appearance. She too, began to even admitted that there was a dis- wish for his arrival, so that some more the favorable impression he made upon THE WAY IN WHICH PORTUGAL TREATS ITS PRISONERS.

(To be Continued.)

> Most Miscrable Men on Earth-Must Serve Eight Years in Dungeons, Then Transported to Criminal Colonies in Africa -Very Few Live Through the Eight

One need not waste any more ink tan of Turkey. In the way of diabolical pares with a prison maintained by a so far astray by misplaced confidence, so-called civilized country of Europe. Her imagination so far exaggerated | Entombed in a grim castle, on the the benefits she had conferred on the outskirts of Lisbon, hoping for death ungrateful creature, that it misled her into the delusion that she had intro- to release them, are the most miserfor her dowerless daughter. She had done to deprive them of reason, and

The unfortunates have been sentencalliance, and was angry with Gilbert ed to penal servitude in the Portuguese for having been so ambitious as to fancy | criminal colonies of Africa. But before they are allowed to go they are forced to serve eight years in the Lisbon forfifty. She had a great deal of van- tress. It is doubtful if one of these ity, but it was carefully held in hand prisoners has ever lived through the years is therefore a joke-a grim litis built in the form of a wheel; the unbroken silence of the prison life; the It was only this faith which enabled stealthy tread of the attendants, who

A GRUESOME PARADE.

The ingenuity of man in the torture from the late Mr. Forester's executors of his fellow-creature has reached its were somewhat unsteady, as if from ex- generous benefactor of the orphan niece. ing. The corridors, piled tier on tier, haustion. At the old graveyard he Moreover, but excusably, she ignored five stories high, extend out from the But Gilbert had been a dear friend, halted, looked back, and seeing Daisy, the item that the girl was quietly makand he was now under a very dark waved his hand. Then he turned the ing a way for herself in authorship in the cells, like sentry-boxes, stands without the settled provision made for a coffin for each prisoner. There is her-to adopt an independent position. always an average of five hundred pri-Such a thought, however, never cross- soners in the fortress. Once a day, at a certain hour, the cell doors are unlocked and the half thousand hopeless wretches in different degrees of madness march out. They are clad in shrouds, once white, but now begrimed submission of a daughter was due, that cealed by masks, for it is part she had never dreamed of asserting inmay not look upon the faces of their fellow-prisoners. Once they are outside The advent of Gilbert Astbury had their cells an attendant closes the altered her views of everything. At doors with a resounding click. This first, it had brought new light and joy daily clicking of the locks is the only

The Sultan of Turkey, the Shah of gotten in the excitement of the chase, as well as by his own cheerful humour, beguile their leisure hours in devising ture the little deadhead. In the captor's hand ture the squirrel bit his captor's hand quite severely, but the boy bore him which for the time turned day into boast of reducing their enemies to such quite severely, but the boy bore him in a night. He loved Hetty. He worked and pitiable human wrecks as King Carlos lived only for her.

| Doast of reducing their enemies to such pitiable human wrecks as King Carlos of Portugal does. How most of them | no malice, and, depositing him in a box, took him home with him to make Daisy was silent, stunned by the dis- look the world will never know, but a household pet. astrous mistake she had made, and the the few who have, by special favor been utter darkness into which the sudden allowed to take of their masks before discovery thrust her. The golden fan- travellers were ghastly wrecks of men, he, too, must presently step into the ited the principal countries of Europe same dark region, unpenetrated by any with a view to bringing a few modern propulsion of tugs by electricity on the ray of hope to save him from despair. ideas into his little dilapidated 368 by She shrank from telling him that she 100 mile kingdom. This prison of silknew he must undergo the same pangs ence has been holding its average of practical shape. The scheme is to eshe had unconsciously and innocently in- five hundred unfortunates ever since. tablish a service of tugs on the seven flicted upon her. She loved him so So much of the Imperial and Royal much that he was at once exonerated kissing that punctuated Dom Carlos's from all blame in her mind; and she visits to his brother sovereigns failed knowledge would come upon him soon retains a mediaeval prison, has a crown ed that by the aid of electricity this sand teapots, of which no two had the charge will be reduced to the reduced charge will be reduced charge will be reduced to the reduced to the reduced charge will be reduced to the re person might be involved in the crime, and that person was the most important and and most trusted of the foreign again, incomprehensible, and that is why and that is why dise of hope.

Same pattern. One was like the use of electric launches for both professions the thing among the launches for both professions the launches and Door Factory

fancied, derogatory to her; for she had that this silence was not due to callousbeen his friend and sponsor. She had ness, but to Hetty's anxiety for Dacto FILL ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY.

We keep in Stock a large quantity of Sash Doors, Mouldings, Flooring and the differ. ent Kinds of Dressed Lumber for outside sheeting.

Our Stock of DRY LUMRE is very Large so that all orden can be filled.

Lumber, Shingles and In Stock.

M. G. & J. MCKECHNIE

250,000 CURED IN 20 YEARS.

CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAYI

$1000 IN GOLD FOR A CASE WE CANNOT CURE OF SELF-ABUSE, EMISSIONS, VARICO-CELE, CONCEALED DRAINS, STRICT-URE GLEET, SYPHILIS, STUNTED PARTS, LOST MANHOOD, IMPOTER. CY, NERVOUS DEBILITY, UNNAT-URAL DISCHARGES, ETC.

The New Method Treatment is the Greatest Discovery of the Age FOR CURING THESE DISEASES

Thousands of young and middle aged men are annually swept to a preyous and weak, despondent and gloomy, specks before the eyes with dark circles un them, weak back, kidneys irritable, palpitation of the heart, bashful, dreams a losses, sediment in urine, pimples on the face, eyes sunken, hollow cheeks, careworn expression, poor memory, lifeless, distrustful, lack energy and strength, tired mornings, restless nights, changeable moods, weak manhood, stunted organs and premature decay, bone pains, hair loose, sore throat etc.

YOU HAVE SEMINAL WEAKNESS! OUR NEW METHOD THEATMENT alone can cure you, and make a man of you. Under its influence the brain becomes active, the blood purified so that all pimples, blotches and ulcers disappear; the nerves become strong as steel, so that nervous-ness, bashfulness and despondency disappear; the eyes become bright, the face full and clear, energy returns to the body, and the moral, physical and sexual systems are invigorated; all drains feel yourself a man and know marriage cannot be a failure. We invite all the afflicted to consult us confidentially and free of charge. Don't let quacks and fakirs rob you of your hard earned dollars.

We will cure you or no pay. HAS YOUR BLOOD BEEN DISEASED? SYPHILIS is the most prevalent and most serious BLOOD disease. It saps the very life blood of the victim and unless entirely eradicated from the system will affect the offspring. Beware of Mercury. It only suppresses the symptoms—our NEW METHOD positively cures it for ever.

YOUNG OR MIDDLE-AGED MAN—You've led a gay life, or indulged in the following the state of the symptoms—our NEW METHOD positively cures it for ever. of youth. Self-abuse or later excesses have broken down your system. You feel th symptoms stealing over you. Mentally, physically and sexually you are not the man you used to be or should be. Lustful practices reap rich harvests. Will you heed the READER! Are you a victim? Have you lost hope? Are you contemplating marriage Has your blood been diseased? Have you any weakness? Our New Metho Treatment will cure you. What it has done for others it will do for you. Consultation Free. No matter who has treated you, write for an honest opinion Free of Charg Charges reasonable. Books Free —"The Golden Monitor" (illustrated), on Diseases of Men. Inclose postage, 2 cents. Sealed. Book on "Diseases of Women" Free.

AS NO NAMES USED WITHOUT WRITTEN CONSENT. PRIVATE. No medicine sent C.O.D. No names on boxes or envelopes. Everything confidential. Question list and cost of Trealtreal by the C. P. R.

There was an interesting squirrel hunt air. Clad in shrouds and masks, the animal had not been expressed, and lonely men are marched out under the was, so to speak, beating its way. It all blown into thin air by one soft hour. This march must continue unin- on a passing coach from an overhangbreath of the man for whose sake they had been all created.

Gilbert, attracted by her quiet, thoughtful, and gentle nature, had ea:ly accepted her as his friend, and he soon had her his confidant. When the ra he made her his confidant. When the ra hour. This march must continue uninterrupted till the hour is up, no halts being permitted. Should two of these trainmen, after the coaches had been they would be warned apart by the shunted into the shed, saw Mr. Squir-squared her his confidant. When the ra the man for whose sake they terrupted till the hour is up, no halts being permitted. Should two of these trainmen, after the coaches had been sharp crack of a bullet, perilously near the platform. Everything was forgotten in the excitement of the chase, ELECTRIC LAUNCHES.

and a half miles of the river which has for several years made a hobby of passes through the capital by connec- collecting teapots, and her collection is and Detroit, Mich., is the of need." Every lady who reads this is requested to inclose two postage stamps, with her address, for and full particulars, which we send by return mail in plain. sealed An old physician, 35 years continued practice treating diseases of women, has charge of the office, and can be consulted by letter or in person. Address our main office THE COOK COMPANY, Room 3-No. 253 Woodward Ave.,

Cook's Cotton Root Compound is sold by all responsible wholesale and retail druggists in the Dominio of Canada and United States for One Dollar per box.

TEAPOT FAD.

A well known English lady artist and and most trusted of the foreign agspire of the house. The possibility was the is innocent."

The did learn the truth soon; and then was not mentioned.

At Cedar Cottage the terrible cloud which hung over them had been talked about in confidence by Dacon and Gilherr. Naturally, it produced the greatget anxiesy and exidement in the procession of the learning and exidement in the procession and exidement in the procession the truth soon; and then did learn the truth soon; and then do the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the capital purposes has
took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the capital purposes has
took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Lebon. She took X-ray photographs of the court circle at Leb inlaid silver, hammered copper, first most exquisitely wrought—silver-gilt alloys, and all the myriad sorts of Japanese pottery. Several specimens cost as much as $150 each; yet, such is the cheapness of artistic handicraft in the cheap h

E VERY LATEST WORLD

All Parts of the Ofe Assorted for Basy Re CANAD

Floods have caused J. T. Moore has be treasurer of Guelph. The British warship rived at Halifax from The Grand Trunk ordered Westinghouse for 10,000 cars and 400 Mr. John Fraser, has been engaged ten to fifteen oil wel Another large co Lee-Enfield rifles, nu 000, has been receive Condie, the absco Man., operator and been arrested at Gla Albert St. John M. C. R. express at

The residence of th corner of Bay and Hamilton, has been See House for Bishop Postmaster-General a man up to the Rain enquire into the bes region. General Manager skull being crushed nterview that the G is to keep its old t story of their being renewing the contra for the carriage of from December, 1896, 1897, for a subsidy of Chief McNab of th Brigade has resigne twenty years. He w an easy chair by the The Montreal Traz pany offers to build vator at Kingston i stock to the amount free site and exempt

The Montreal C that an official Golde kept by the high a land, wherein would in Canada. An Ottawa deputal Mr. Laurier, urging grant to the interp The Premier promise estimates next session that undertaking. One dollar and on was paid for wheat Wednesday. This is and was the result o tion for wheat, which any cost.

with the rise in th the price of lumber the cause is as yet The official half-ye Grand Trunk Railwa Montreal. The gro an increase of £54.44 ponding half-year. the efforts of Gener The Grand Jury a izes reported that Convict Hewell Hughes was justified in future measures render such an o increase of $3,268,000 ponding period in I aggregated $38,642,0 quarter of this fiscal with $35,373,000 for. ness artillery team, nounced that he in sum in the estimates purpose of bringing dilerymen here to

The annual financia Dominion for the year 1896, has been made for the year is $363 crease of debt $5,528 is now $258,528,304. account of consolidat 617,484, and the exper GREAT BI

The distinguished Mr. Greathead, is de The British Pa assemble January 25 Snow to the depth en in many parts of London Sketch say stone is about to i Dr. William Car Queen's College, Can The death of Dr. known chess player, Bristol, Eng. Lady Pauncefote will leave England fo Saturday to rejoin t The London Daily cago as the Queen a cities, the cynosure a Over 16,000 agric have left Ireland, to and Scotland, during June 30. Traffic receipts of United Kingdom fo an increase of $8,000 ceipts for 1894. The Duchess of Ne lished herself in the don in order to devo entirely to the poor. The English and S terests are urging th culture to prohibit live cattle and shee Dr. Nansen has rights of his work of the Polar Seas," to for ten thousand pour

At the first annual Stag-shooting in So ever, and the champio British Farmers' Dai slington, last week, than seven thousand Mr. Morgan, M. P., or of Mr. Gladstone can be induced to re