GOD'S Greatest Gift to Man IS HIS VISION.

Don't trifle with this precious gift by not heeding the dictates of nature. There is such a thing as wearing Spectacles when you shouldn't and not wearing them when you should.

PROF. CHAMBERLAIN EYE SPECIALIST 87 King St. East, TORONTO, ONT.

The following paper was read by Mrs. Dr. Gun at a recent meeting of the Society:

DEAR SISTERS. When it was proposed at our last meeting by our Pres. Mrs. Campbell, that we should try to make our meetings more interesting and helpful to each other, that, in the hour or more spent together each member might learn something, or be able to make some happy suggestion which might be useful and enable us to do some good, as the question is - "What can we do?" how can we do good? has perplexed our minds. The plan proposed by Mrs. Campbell of taking up a topic for each evening, and having a discussion upon it seemed a very good one. It was agreed that the important subject of Sabbath observance be the topic for this evening. Mrs. Cameron and myself were asked to prepare short papers therefore the few thoughts I have put down, I might call "Sabbath Observance in our Home Life."

It is rather a difficult thing to condense into the brief space of five or six minutes even the few thoughts I may have to offer, would that I had the time and the power to speak upon this important topic as I ought.

Allow me to quote a few words from an article I read lately in one of our Church papers upon "Women's duties at Home." It said in God's work we have a glorious picture from the master hand of God an example for all time of lovely life of the woman at home, full of the rich and varied activities connected with every day life. The true realm, the pulpit from which a woman can preach her loudest sermon, the platform from which she wields the widest influence, the time upon which she sits supreme is spent in these four magical living capital letters, "HOME." Do not smile if you are one of the "New Women" with advanced views, you may consider the sphere very limited, but, of a surety, it is no mean thing to be the centre of home.

I would argue then dear sisters, that it is at home in the very childhood that we should teach our children to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, to look upon its coming, not with dislike as many children do, because they will be made to go to Church much to their regret, but as a happy always, and nagged at by this one and that one, as to what they should, and should not do, that they look forward to the Sabbath Day with dislike, long for it to be over, and wish it never came. I think there are certain things we should all children to do and certain things they should not. Let them be happy always, teach them that because it is God's Holy Day, it must be different from other days, to go to Church because it is God's command, to give up as far as possible their bustling play, but try to make them feel that the Sabbath is a day of rest and loving, happy intercourse one with another. Try to get your children to commit some text of scripture, they will never forget them. Well do I remember texts today that were taught me by my old grand father, a strict old Scotch Covenanter, such as: "The eyes of the Lord are in every place beholding the evil and the good." "Stranger is he that reject his spirit than he that taketh a city."

Stamped on my childish memory they come back to comfort or to warn in later years. I would even suggest, and at this you may smile, nice dishes to be served on the Sabbath different from other days, so that as they get dressed in their best clothes on the Lord's Day, they will never allow them to visit or then t at the day is too sacred to that. Dear Sisters, I feel more and more every year that I live that it is in children's early years that good impressions are made, that they can be taught to honor their father and mother, to keep holy the Sabbath day, and be fitted to go out into the world and be temperate in all things.

DROMORE.

With many apologies for delay in reporting our town and after a big seige at the corn and turnip crop successfully housed. We pen a few of the local events.

The boys who went to Manitoba, are daily expected home. Their coming is looked forward to with becoming interest. They are Messrs J. Wilson, Jas. Lothian and Thos. Henderson.

Thos. Long having made a success at farming is having a sale and is, we hear, going to live retired.

Now that we miss the smiling dimples of Miss Minnie McKenzi, since her marriage to Mr. Geo. Haw, the popular musician of Swinton Park, others of our citizens are having notions and that before long we may expect to hear, we hope, the joyous bells that are supposed to ring on such occasions. Meanwhile the population of our suburbs is growing. A little boy having arrived at the home of Mr. A. Tucker and Mr. J. Bunting.

Mr. Geo. Acheson, of the town, is also rejoicing under similar circumstances.

Mr. H. Tucker is under the weather with an attack of typhoid fever. He is anxiously under Dr. Sneath's care.

By the way we are glad to note the increasing popularity of our affable Dr. both among his patients as well as among the fair sex.

Our community it also growing in importance as witness the following improvements:

Mr. Mat Long has lately raised a new house to the east ward.

Mr. J. McBeth's house is now also finished and since the poles and scaffolding are down, looks really neat, substantial and handsome. Now ladies be on the watch, only 2 months more of leg year. It wont occur again for 8 years.

Mr. Jas. Geddes is also erecting a woodshed. The contractor is Mr. Robt. Small, whose skill on this as well as fence building is well known. A fence put up by him on sideroad 15, con. 18 requires to be seen to be appreciated. He finds the fascination of hunting still strong and seldom fails to bag a fox, or a couple of rabbits.

Three of our farmers are now seeking repose and are endeavoring to rent their farms. They ought not to look long for a tenant.

A Phrenologist lately lumped the heads of our people here, to the amusement and gratification of some and disappointment of others.

Mrs. Hastie, Sr. returned one day last week from visiting friends in Galt.

Miss M. Isaac also visited her friend, Miss Dowler at Clinton and is now away visiting friends in Markdale.

Mr. Jas. Inkster, from Opprey, was visiting his sister, Mrs. J. Garson, the latter end of last week.

Colin McMillan's sister was visiting here last week.

Jas. Tucker paid a visit to friends in Opprey la ely.

Prof. Peel's ability as a music teacher is being duly appreciated here with increasing bi-weekly interest.

(From another Correspondent.)

The Foresters intend holding their 4th anniversary supper on the evening of Tuesday the 17th inst. Each member is expected to bring his wife and second best girl, if he has them. Efficient committees have been struck to make necessary arrangements.

Miss S. Coleridge again returned to her school on Saturday last, it having been closed for 5 weeks on accounts of ill thera being in the section.

We are glad to hear that Miss Mary Scott and Mr. Geo. Cushnie are also duly appreciated. The three teachers named having the compliment of an advance in their salary given to them in these hard times.

ZION.

Master Willie and Miss Susan Greenwood spent a few days of last week with Orchardville friends.

Thos. Timmins, one of Zion's brightest young men, has hired with A. Goodfellow, the Traverston miller, for a few months.

Most of our farmers are drawing their grain to the Markdale elevators. The prices at that place being from 7 to 10 cents better than at Durham. They say the roads are bad, but the price, ah! it tells.

Our Durham buyers are very sleepy to allow the grain from their very doors to be drawn a distance of 10 to 15 miles. Better get a move on, Durham, or be left out.

Several of our ploughmen attended the bee at Dan McAuliffe's on the 22nd, when upwards of twenty acres of virgin soil was the sight. Dan is a pushing young man and says he does not believe in allowing the land to be a nest for the grasshoppers.

The cold weather of the last two weeks has brought mitts and overcoats from their hiding places, but the general cry is we have a lot to plough yet.

Some of our boys would like to know what Sam thought of the Falls by moon light, and if he thought no one knew him. Also if he took a lantern to see the caves?

Mr. Neville Falkingham is hired with Mr. Hall, of the 10th concession, Glenelg for a few weeks.

Our farmers are hustling through their fall work in double quick time.

Pastor Pomeroy being absent, his pulpit was occupied on Sunday by Mr. A. Hall, of Rock 7 Saugoon. He preached a very good sermon to a very large congregation. He took his text from the 15th chap. of St. Luke's Gospel; the words being: "There is joy in the presence of the Angels of God over one sinner that repenteth."

Hallowe'en passed away very quietly in our vicinity.

Tax collector Hunt is on the war path once more. His weapons are the usual roll and not a small shillelagh, as the worthy Irishman would call it. Armed with this he would make a match with the would be robber in any of the dark bush or swamps he has to pass through and the impression left on the skull by the said cudgel would be black for many a day.

There are two kinds of people and especially farmers; one that rusts out and the other that wears out. We can say that Mr. W. Greenwood is one of the latter class, some of his land is already ploughed for the third time this fall.
