Mr. Robert Anderson of Traverston, Mr. Morris Connor and Miss Mary

Mr. A. McPhee, who recently retired from farming and took up his residence in Markdale, was on the line on Friday and Monday. He is now acting in the capacity of Insurance Agent. We believe he also handles a superior line of fruit trees, no doubt Mr. McPhee's efforts will be crowned with success, as he possesses all the business capabilities essential to a successful salesman.

Mr. James Ryan took his departure for Waterloo on Monday to work in the woods with Mr. Edward Hartford's gang. We did not have the opportunity of bidding him good bye, as he got his summons to go rather abruptly. His employer may always rest assured that any work allotted to him, will be satisfactorily executed.
