Cattle buyer Arch. Little bought 150 head of cattle in the townships surrounding Durham, for Mr. Godred, Calgary, who is taking 300 to a ranch there. This must have left some money in the country. Mr. Little is an energetic buyer, and is still picking up fat cattle at good prices.

TRAIN CHANGES.—Durham has now two trains each way per day, but the service is an excellent one. The same hour, 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. and the morning train reaches Toronto at 11.55. The morning train from Toronto to now reaches Durham at 1.55 and with it comes the great boon of an early mail. The evening train reaches town at 10.25. We thank the authorities on behalf of our constituency for the arrangement.
