 UPPER TOWN.

SCOTCH TOWN.

To commence with Hallowe'en a couple of our farmers' ploughs changed furrows and the following Monday a free trade took place and all got their own implements. A few other little things took place, but no harm what ever.

The youth of our Burg had the pleasure of attending a grand party at the home of Mr. John McVicar, given by Mr. Mike O'Neil and his charming sister Lizzie.

Miss Nellie Neil, from Toronto, was on a short visit to the parental home and returned in company with her cousin, Miss Emma Neil. Success.

Master Herbie and Mary Peters, who have spent the last two months at their grandpapa Martin's returned to their home in Toronto. Their aunt, Miss Mary Martin, accompanied them home.

An exciting foot race took place in our town a short time ago between a Pete and a rabbit, witnessed by a lady friend. However, Peter was victorious and the next day at noon the rabbit went clean out of sight.

Messrs Alex. McLaughlan and Duncan Sinclair, from Maple Grove, spent a pleasant evening with friends in our Town last week.

Mr. Hone Beaton arrived home from the Lower Settlement last week and looks hale and hearty as of yore.

Mr. Angus Black's Auction Sale on Wednesday of last week was fairly well attended. The cattle and sheep sold at good prices under the hammer of Auctioneer McCormick, from Priceville.

Mr. Hugh McInnis has moved from the Arrowsmith estate onto Mr. D. B. McDonald's property. Mr. McInnis intends working both of these farms for a term of years.

Mr. McCormick has a 1/2 partnership with Mrs. McDonald and now resides with her son, Mr. D. McCormick, of Pomona.

Mr. D. McCoskey and his sister, Tilly were guests of Miss M. F. McLellan on Sunday last.

Mr. R. Martin was in our town on business on Sunday.

The Rev. McLennan, from Mount-forest, occupied the pulpit at the Centre last Sunday and preached a grand sermon to a large congregation.

Mrs. D. McIntyre is quite ill at present. Mrs. Hugh McLellan spent last week with friends on the 6th.

Messrs A. McQueen and A. McCannel from Boothville, paid a pleasant visit to friends here two weeks ago Sunday. Angus is apt to come back at any time, and as for Alex. we know he will.

Collector W. H. Arrowsmith has finished his first trip with good result. He also had a streak of good luck in trapping no less than six musks up the river in a fortnight. We would warn the musk from the Grove when on his trip to the Riverside farm down 4th to look out for the Gander or he too is likely to get trapped.

Messrs George Ritchie and John A. Graham, from Edge Hill, were among those of a distance who attended service at the Centre Church on Sunday.

Mr. D. McDonald, (Curly) from Sand Hill, spent a few days in Scotch Town lately.

BALSAM VALLEY.

Mr. John Lam at s hom from Muskoka, where he has been for the past two years, seeing his sister who is on the sick list.

Rev. Mr. McPhail, from Knox College visited at his uncle's, Mr. Donald McDugald, of this place.

Miss Jane Flockhart attended the quilting on the South Line and she reports having spent one of the most pleasant evenings imaginable.

Mrs. N. MacIntyre and E. Barnett was visiting friends on the South Line last Thursday.

We notice in your last issue that Chas. Ferguson moved into his new house. We think the rest of the family went with him. If not he will be lone some.

The high winds last week caused a lot of fences to be blown down. Some think it was not the wind altogether.

Miss Janet Flockhart did not go to Wolfe Town as reported. She is to be at Lamont's for a month. So Mr. Pete will still have cause for rejoicing.

N. EAST NORMANBY.

Miss Martha Fee has returned from Durham after having finished her apprenticeship there.

Mrs. A. Smith has been under the care of Dr. Park for this last week. We are glad to hear she is somewhat better.

A North East Normanby Literary Society has been organized in No. 1 School house, by the young men of this part. With T. Gadd as President they are likely to succeed.

Mr. Theodore Leeson is away on a visit to his brother Frank in H. nry.

Miss T. Byers was the guest of Miss Mary Gadd last week.

Best Allan has been engaged with Mr. T. Wallace for the last two weeks.

Miss L. Lee left Monday last to spend a few days with Durham friends.

A little to the West of our sphere, took place on Wednesday last a pleasant little wedding, when Miss Annie Young was united in marriage to Dr. A. E. Henry, of Boggar a small village in the North of this county. Rev. Mr. Craigie the popular pastor of Hampden and Hanover Presbyterian Churches performed the ceremony, and the happy couple have left on their wedding tour.

HOPEVILLE.

Times are quite quiet here now. A little election news is springing up. Mr. S. muel Rodgers, ex-reeve, called at our village last Friday. He had a talk with some of the leading men on the coming election. He went to Flesherton to attend a Patron meeting there.

Mr. Donald McDonald sold one of his lots, the old homestead, to the Dingwall boys for $2,800. It is a good farm.

Several other lots have changed hands. There is a little improvement in our village. A very fine house built by Arch. McEachern, a house improved by Gib McArthur, a stable by J. McArdle and D. Allen's shop.
