

The Grey Review.

Durham, Thur. Dec. 3, '06.

EDITORIAL NOTE AND COMMENT.

Clifford Sifton was elected in Brandon by acclamation on Friday last.

The election trial in North Bruce is revealing some bad work among the Indians, and it is likely the election will be thrown.

Rosland pays five thousand dollars of a weekly wage bill. It continues to draw crowds and is drawing two American railways. Great is the power of gold. It has been one of the main agencies to scatter men over the earth.

Rainy River District draws as well as Rosland. A despatch says: The whole country is thronged with strangers, and hotel accommodation is taxed as severely in Rat Portage and Fort Francis as in Rosland and Sandon.

The Ontario Government has withdrawn from sale 5000 acres in the district where Coal is reputed to be found near Sudbury. Good, keep it out of the hands of speculators, till its true value is known.

Dr. Middlebro has been appointed goal surgeon and Mr. W. C. Fleming, of the business College, Co., Auditor, at the meeting of the County Council Tuesday. Thanks Reeve Binnie for the information.

County Council—Fifty five Reeves and deputies are this week in Owen Sound closing up the business of the year, and making provision for their own funeral. 33 of them will not go back anyway. We have our doubts about the success of the new scheme. It breaks the continuity of municipal life, as hereafter a township officer must be idle a year before he can run for the County position.

The management of the Public Library in giving to the town a concert of a first class order intend it for an education for the young as well as a pleasure for the old and for this reason have reserved the north wing of the hall for the school children. Tickets have been reduced to 15c or two for 25c. Let the children come.

Saugeen Presbytery.

This body meets in Durham next Tuesday. It is composed of the ministers and elders of Pres. churches in Mt. Forest, Clifford, Harrison, Palmerston, Arthur, Holstein, Drummond, Ayton, Knox Normanby, Woodland, and several other country congregations, and it will be seen that Durham is the very north of the field.

Along with this body comes the Presbyterial Women's For. Miss. Society, a body whose meetings are most interesting, whose workers are devoted, and whose work is beyond all question one of the noblest of modern philanthropic movements.

This is the annual meeting, and we believe it to be of great interest. Two members of the society here are on the programme, and Mrs. Watt, Guelph, a prominent worker, will deliver an address. We hope they may have profitable sessions.

The ladies of the church are making provision to entertain them royally, and the Review as representing the citizens, bids both bodies a welcome to the town.

Electric Railway Lawsuit.

The whirr of the Electric Railway is in evidence yet, but evidence of another kind will be taken on the 15th inst. when the majority of those who put their name down for stock will be called upon to show cause why they should not pay the second instalment of their subscription. They are being sued in the name of provisional director Lauder, who must be sure of his case, for in the event of his being beaten it is more than likely that a counter case will be entered to recover monies already paid to him.

This Railway we hope is not a myth, and if genuine evidence can be presented that it will go on, the subscribers will be only too glad to pay.

The condition as we remember it was that the 2nd payment was to be made when the charter was granted. The charter was granted, but on conditions if we remember aright that Mr. Pow should not be receiver. Now if the parliamentary committee of the house made this change, an invalid has been made on the original condition, which certainly gives room for careful procedure.

Counsel has been employed, and the case will be fought out without flinching. The public will watch with some interest the outcome of this case where the local struggle is between Mayor and Merchants.

South Egremont.

A few days ago while our worthy Dept. Reeve was shingling a verandah in front of his house he lost his footing and came to the ground accompanied by a bunch of shingles. A scratched face and frightened man was the result, but Bob is none the worse.

Quite an excitement was created in this part last Saturday by the news that one of our residents had met with a very sudden death. It appears that Mr. D. Currie, of the 6th con, had occasion to clean out an old well on his premises and for this purpose he got a man with wells cribbed with stone. Upon being let down the man declared that it was not safe and he would not stay and came up. Mr. Currie was not satisfied but went down to examine it himself. He put one foot in the rope and the other man lowered him down. When down a distance of about 20 feet he some way or other loosened some of the stones and before anything could be done the whole mass was upon him, help was at once secured and willing hands were at work but all of no avail. After six hours of hard work the body was taken out dead. Mr. Currie was one of the pioneer settlers, having come here about 40 years ago. He was a good neighbor, and a kind father, although over 60 years of age he was as smart and active as the first most of his boys. He leaves a wife and 6 sons and 5 daughters to mourn his loss, the youngest being 7 years of age. They have the sympathy of the entire community.

The temperance team that was holding meetings in Holstein last week are holding meetings in Woodland this week. They had their first meeting last night. It was well attended the temperance hall being well filled. Of course it is gospel temperance, no concert or any such nonsense. Their object is to build up the temperance cause in this place. Wednesday night they are expected to take part in the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting.

Balsam Valley.

Messrs MacKechnie and Sullivan from Collingwood, were visiting at Mrs. A. McIntyre's last week.

Quite a number from here were up to Owen Sound last week to settle some dispute about their farms. They seem to have come home pleased with their trip. They thought it would be better to settle at once and let those who did not feel comfortable come home.

Mr. McDonald thinks that binder twine must be getting cheap with the quantity that was across the Glen road Sunday night. Save your twine till harvest boys.

The Valley was always noted for parties. The first of the season took place at Mr. J. McDonald's, where every one enjoyed themselves but one.

Miss Flockhart attended the dance on the South Line, where she spent another evening long to be remembered.

Master John L. McDonald spent last week with his aunt, Mrs. McDonald, on the South Line. He likes being with his aunt very much.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McKinnon, of Bunessee, visited at Mrs. D. Ferguson's last week.

Quite a large number were out hunting Thanksgiving day. A strange way of giving thanks.

What we would like to know: Who slept in the new house without permission? What takes Tom west so often? If the young man from the South Lane enjoyed his drive last Friday.

Maple Grove.

A citizen of Priceville, who toils at the ax in hand on a hunting expedition. While in the woods he encountered a black and white animal, with it he exchanged no words, but has since tried to bury all thoughts of his adventure as well as his clothes.

Two young men from Scotch Town attended a party given by A. C. McLean, of the Grove, last week. One of them had the experience of riding home on foot next morning. Too bad.

Mr. Duncan Sinclair is visiting his sister, Mrs. McKinnon, of Bruce Co., at present. We wish him a pleasant trip.

Mr. Yorke Richardson, of Chatsworth is visiting his son-in-law, Mr. A. C. McLean. He has brought his gun along with him to enjoy a few days hunting in the abundant swamps of the Grove.

Mr. Sam Carson visited his mother at Vanderburg on Friday. She has been dangerously ill of late, but is improving again.

Miss J. Carson intends leaving the Grove for Cleveland, Ohio, in a week or two. No doubt she will be missed when she is gone.

Mr. John McArthur, of the Grove, gave a delightful party on Monday evening at a week ago which was poorly attended on account of the inclemency of the weather. Although the gathering was small, dancing singing and instrumental music made up a pleasant evening. The musicians winning much praise. Miss S. Hazard and Miss H. Hogarth rendered "The Brave Volunteer" with much power and expression. Miss Hutchison, of Sand Hill sang "I know a little fellow" and was heartily encored. She is a valuable acquisition to the musical talent of the Grove. Miss Hazard alone sang "Beauty's Eyes," in an artistic manner and bowed to a well deserved encore. To end the night's sports Messrs Jas. Henry and D. Sinclair gave a double cloj which brought down the house.

Miss M. Conkey attended a taffy party.

One of our sports while seated on a fox run lately got wearied at the animal's delay in coming, and dozed off to out in a moment of course, got past with a number of Grove young people spent an enjoyable evening at Mr. A. C. McLean's Friday evening last, and the same evening others enjoyed themselves at Mr. Jas. McDonald's.

Mr. M. Henry purchased a thoroughbred sale last week. Commendable enterprise Mike.

Mr. N. McIntyre, Jr., and Mr. Ed. McClocklin, visited friends here on 22nd inst.

[Our correspondent sends us some interesting "personals" which space and other considerations compel us to omit. Meanwhile Love's young dream will go on in the Grove as well as in the castles of the Kings. Ed.]

LOVE AND ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

On Thanksgiving eve a young man from Innerkip arrived in Durham and went off next day with one of Durham's fair maidens. The thing was done in broad daylight and never a remonstrance uttered, the hold robbery taking place in the presence of relatives of both parties, with a clergyman assisting in the theft.

This took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Vair, whose fair and only daughter, Miss Florence, was united in marriage to Dr. Arthur Gunn, now of Innerkip, but formerly in fact and largely yet in fancy, of Durham. The groom is the second son of Dr. and Mrs. Jas. Gunn whose long and successful practice in Durham and neighborhood has made the name a household word.

It was a very pretty chrysanthemum wedding. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Jansen, the young couple standing under a beautiful floral bell of chrysanthemums and smilax. The bride was given away by her father and looked charming in a dress of cream and blue and the usual veil and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair.

Miss Maggie Gunn, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and looked lovely in pale pink and pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Will Vair, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony the guests partook of a wedding breakfast in the hospitable home of Mrs. W. J. Brantford, who as bride party escorted the happy couple to Mr. Forest where they took the down train to Toronto.

The bride was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents from her numerous friends and relatives.

Mrs. Vair, Galt, grandmother of the bride, Mrs. McCaus, a cousin, also of Galt, and Miss Watson, Brantford, were guests from outside points in addition to relatives of both parties near by.

The lives and loves of the young couple have been an open book to Durham, where they were always held in the very highest esteem and while we are glad after them the warmest and kindest good wishes for their welfare, we are but voicing the common sentiment of their native town.

Miss Vair's place in C. Endeavor and Sunday School work will not easily be filled, and we have no doubt, that the people of Innerkip will learn to appreciate the worth of the bride as they will that of her husband by this time.

The day previous and almost next door Miss Jessie A. Brown was united in marriage to Dr. Thos. Wm. Forrester of Detroit, Mich. The bride took a very prominent part in C. Endeavor and other church work in the N. West where she has been for five years and the respect and esteem held for her here where she is well known is very marked. Dr. Forrester was attached to the hospital staff of the Mount of Police for some years, and has a wide acquaintance. We wish the young couple much happiness in their matrimonial voyage.

HOLSTEIN.

Rev. J. M. Miller returned home on Wednesday after an absence of a few weeks in Toronto, Montreal, and other places.

E. Stephens was in Owen Sound on Friday last on business.

Abb Paul returned home on Friday from Killarney, Manitoba, where he has been for the past few months, he reports cool weather out there, but it appears to agree with him, as he looks well.

Stephen Smithers, of Brampton, visited a few of his old friends on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sharp, of Danforth, visited his brother, W. J. Sharp on Saturday.

Ab. Rice, of Riverston, paid our lurg a flying visit on Thanksgiving.

The Rev. Mr. Phillips, of Alma, formerly of Holstein met with what might have been a more serious accident, than it was. One evening recently, returning home from Crookbank he was thrown from his buggy and alighted on his head, which was badly cut, and besides he was severely bruised on other parts of his body, he did not make any of his appointments on the Sunday following, but will soon be all right again.

One day last week an old man of this village entered a neighbor's house knowing the elders to be absent, and by his actions and words showed his intentions were plainly to commit a criminal assault on two little girls of about 10 years old. Persons conducting themselves so should be punished with the utmost rigor of the law.

Mrs. Wm. Main, and son John returned home on Monday after spending Thanksgiving week with her mother Mrs. A. Vance, of Mosboro.

Mrs. Neil McKellar, of Mt. Forest, spent Thanksgiving day with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gray.

Mr. Jas. Murdoch, Inspector of Weights and Measures, came home on Thursday to see his wife, etc, we are sorry to say is not rallying very fast.

Miss E. Raw, teacher, Alsfeld, called on her sister Mrs. W. S. Horsburgh. She was home spending Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Raw, South Bend. The company and those must agree with her, she looks splendid.

Dugald Currie, of the 6th con., Egremont, met with his death on Saturday by the caving in of a well.
