

Supplement to GREY REVIEW

DURHAM, December 10th. 1896

N. EAST NORMANBY.

Mrs. H. Petty has been very ill lately. We are glad to report her a great deal better.

Mr. T. McComb, Fergus, is now visiting his relatives, Mr. E. Reilly and family.

Miss M. Fee is spending this week with Miss H. Parrot, of Durham.

Last Friday afternoon Mr. J. Marshall had the lads around giving him a hand with his wood and at night gave a dance in which, from all accounts, they thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mrs. H. Leeson has been ill lately. We are glad to hear she is recovering.

Messrs S. R. and G. Petty were in Egremont one day last week boarding in the house on the farm lately purchased by Sam.

Mr. John Watt returned home last Saturday after spending the summer months in the vicinity of Galt.

Mrs. R. Petty spent a part of last week with her mother, Mrs. Hepburn.

MURDOCH.

Mr. and Mrs. McDowell and Master Willie, of Owen Sound, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sharp and Miss Rena, of Dundalk, were guests of Mr. D. Sharp and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Allan, of Durham, were down on Saturday afternoon to see the mother of the former, who at present is very ill.

Miss Eliza Queen, of Woodland brightened the home of the Surr family for a few days last week.

Miss Lizzie Hoy, of Orchardville, and Miss I. Smith, of Holstein, were the guests of the Misses Gordon on Sunday.

Mrs. Allan, Sr. is at present very low with congestion of the lungs, but little hopes are entertained of her recovery. Dr. Park is in attendance using his best skill.

Miss Rebecca Brown, second daughter of Mr. John Brown, is at present suffering under a sudden and severe attack of pleurisy. Dr. McKenzie, of Holstein, is in attendance.

Mr. S. T. Orchard a week ago Thursday night was initiated into the Durham I. O. Foresters.

Deputy Reeve Allan attended the County Council in Owen Sound last week.

Cattle king Brown had the misfortune last Friday to have seven sheep badly worried with hounds. Some of the sheep were killed outright others will die. The hounds have since been killed by the owner and the sheep paid for.

The shooting match for turkeys and geese that took place at Henry's last Friday went off pretty brisk. The Tory Bros., of Normanby, carried off quite a few turkeys.

There is some talk of a pie social being held in the School house in connection with the Church of England in a couple of weeks. Particulars later on.

SOUTH EGREMONT.

The Woodland Y. P. S. C. E. held their annual meeting last Wednesday night. There was large attendance fully 150 being present. After the usual prayer meeting service the election of officer took place, resulting as follows:— Ronald Lamont, President; Miss Bella McEachern, Vice Pres.; Mr. J. G. Randell, Secy.; Miss Kate Currie, Treas. In order to give the Temperance men, who have been working here all week and who were present a chance to address the meeting, the election of the various committees was left over till next week.

Deputy Bye and Reeve Dieksa who have been in Owen Sound all week attending the County Council, returned late Saturday night. They report good sleighing up there.

Municipal matters are being freely talked in this part of the township. Mr. C. McInnis, of Yeovil is in the field as 2nd Deputy. In offering himself as a candidate, Mr. McInnis is not finding any fault with the present council nor opposing any one, he is offering himself to fill the seat made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Allan, who, we understand is aspiring for county honors. Mr. McInnis has had considerable experience in Township affairs having been Auditor for a number of years, he is also well acquainted all through the township, being an old resident.

Although the times are hard it is not keeping our farmers from improving old and building new barns &c. Mr. John Orchard we understand is building a mammoth barn next summer. Bailey Bros., Farewell having secured the contract. It will be 70x76 ft., with all the latest improvements.

HOLSTEIN.

There was quite a sensation in the north end of our village one day last week. Dr. McKenzie having left his horse without signing it. It took a notion to go north to Durham we suppose, but when about a quarter of a mile out of the village it was stopped without any serious injury to either horse or cutter.

Mrs. Smith Seaman, of Mt. Forest, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Peter Brown. Mrs. Seaman intends to go with her family to York State where her husband has been for some time.

Mrs. John Doupe, of Owen Sound, is at present visiting at her brother-in-law Adam Doupe.

Peter Lothian, an old resident of this place, now of Dromore, visited his many friends in and around this place. Glad to have a shake Pete.

Miss Maggie McMeekin is at present home visiting her parents at Riverview.

Wade Leslie, of Stratford, returned on Saturday after visiting her mother and old neighbors and friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burrows were the guests of Wm. Seaman over Sabbath.

Rev. Dr. Williamson, of Mt. Forest, will deliver his famous lecture "Fox Hunting" in the Methodist Church in this place on Friday the 11th inst. The charge is small so every one can take in this treat of the season; 25 cents a couple or 15 cents single ticket is the charge at the door.

John Pettigrew, son of Wm. Pettigrew, met with what might have been a fatal accident. On Sunday evening while attending to some horses one kicked him on the forehead, but under the skillful attendance of Dr. McKenzie, he is some better.
