

FANCY Plates

At the request of many of the electors of Division No. 3, under the new County Councils Act, I have cons...

3 supplement to GREY REVIEW

DURHAM, December 17th, 1896.

THE EDITOR'S DESK.

December, as the merry season approaches, a number of bright magazines, Christmas papers, etc., make their appearance, and we will make an effort to dispose of them by referring to them and their contents.

There comes the Pictorial Xmas Supplement of the Toronto Saturday Night, a lovely cover representing the winter of Toronto, the eastern sky glowing into sunshine. Inside the work is filled with abundance of illustrated letterpress, among the stories writers being the Marquis of Lorne and Col. Geo. T. Denison 50 cts. with Pictorial Supplement. Sheppard Pub. Co., Toronto.

The "Canadian Home Journal" for December published by Faith Fenton, an art-well known writer, of Toronto, is artistically gotten up and full of the Xmas spirit. Lady Aberdeen edits one of its many departments, all of which seems to be of a high order. Single copies 10 cts or $1. a year. Globe Building.

RUBBER FAIRWELL CORNERS.

Mr. Wm. Muir, of Detroit, is at present on a few weeks' visit.

Mr. J. A. Leith after a brief visit in Toronto has returned.

Mr. J. A. Leith, Miss Jane Leith and Mr. K. Henderson attended the meeting of the Ladies' Foreign Mission in Durham last Tuesday week, also the Rev. Mrs. McVicar.

Miss Mary J. McLeod is home again after putting in a few weeks in learning the mysteries of cutting out with the dress makers scale. All are glad to have her back.

All are looking forward to the pleasure of attending Miss Maggie McAnnell's School entertainment, which is to be held on the evening of the 21st Dec. A good programme is being prepared.

Mr. Geo. Cashnie is also going to have a fine entertainment on the 23rd inst. at his School, No. 18, Egremont. A good time is expected as Mr. Cashnie is always very successful in his entertainments.

SCOTCH TOWN.

Mr. John A. McMillan's Auction Sale was a grand success, everything was sold.

Miss Jessie Murchison has returned home from the Queen's City.

McRae Bros. from Priceville, are cutting wood for Mr. John G. Beaton at present.

Mr. Johnnie Beaton is engaged with the Neil Bros. for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McMillan from Durham visited friends in this Burg last week. Mike is part Yankee now since his return from Red Ann, Mich., where he has been building a house on his farm there, and visiting his brother Neil.

Miss Maggie Beaton has been quite ill of late, but is rapidly recovering under the treatment of Dr. Glyn.

Mr. Willie Beaton is also under the weather with a bad attack of cough.

Wood bees are numerous in the west side of our burg.

We are sorry to learn of the severe illness of Mr. George Black, of Pomona and join with his many friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

We congratulate Mr. John Morrison Jr. in his new line of business and hope he will do his surveying in a satisfactory way.

Mrs. McInnis has returned from Durham and now resides on the Arrowsmith estate in Batschelor's corner's.

ZION NEWS.

We are pleased to report the improved health of Mrs. John Greenwood and Mrs. Timmins. Glad to see them around once more.

Our young people are looking rather drowsy these days, as the result of three parties in one week.

It was too bad for anything. So says our bachelor when the young ladies who promised to visit him and also fill his bed with feathers failed to arrive.

Several of our dancers attended the dance at Mr. H. Firth's, of the fourth con.

A few also spent an enjoyable time at Mr. Allen's on the 4th con.

A large party of the youth and beauty of Zion spent an enjoyable time at Minnie Ha Ha on the 11th inst, when games of all kinds were indulged in till a late hour.

Mr. Jack Greenwood and Tom Timmins were the leading figures in the formation of the party. All spent a very pleasant evening.

The mild weather is causing a lot of wood to be cut and there will be a rush when sleighing comes.

Miss Mary Falkingham was home for the night of the party. We wonder how long that couple were driving from Durham.

HOLSTEIN.

Mr. Dugald Ferguson of Cleveland Ohio has been visiting his uncle N. D. McKensie for the past week.

On Wednesday of last week Geo. Calder had a warrant sworn out before Samuel McQueen J. P. for the arrest of A. B. W. Barrows for concealing a stolen Grain Crusher for which Defendant had bought and paid for when delivered, but still he had to appear before the J. P., and of course pleaded not guilty to the charge but asked for an adjournment of the case until he could get some important witnesses, but the presiding Magistrate thought it better to settle them, which we believe they did.

The Rev. Dr. Williamson being ill could not give his lecture on Fox hunting in the Methodist Church on Friday eve last but will give it on Wednesday evening 23rd inst. all being well.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hunt of Riverview were the guests of Wm. Beaman and other friends, for a few days last week.

Robert Barrows was in Hasover last Wednesday attending the funeral of the late Charles Ege.

Mrs. D. Cameron returned home on Friday, after spending six weeks with her daughter Mrs. F. Greenough, of Vassar Michigan.

We notice that the Controller of Customs has ordered that Mr. Forest be added to the list of Post Offices at which Customs packages and parcels may be received.

VICKERS.

On Wednesday, Dec. 3rd, Mr. Henry Reay was united in marriage to Miss Eliza Jane Adam. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Jennings, at the Rectory, Hanover.

At an early hour Monday morning the dwelling house of Mr. Thos. Mighton was discovered to be on fire. All attempts to extinguish the flames proved in vain so the building was totally consumed.

Mr. John Murdoch has leased the Neeligar farm and will take possession next spring.

Mr. John Corbett, who has been working in the vicinity of Kirkwell during the summer, has returned home.

Mrs. Ross, of Grey tip, spent a few days of last week visiting her niece, Mrs. A. Derby.

Mrs. R. Morrice spent a couple of weeks under the parental roof and returned home on Sunday.

Mr. A. Derby, of Hampton, was along the South Line last week canvassing in the interests of the Ayton Creamery and met with good success.

Miss Jeannie Webber has gone to Guelph, where she will remain during the winter months.

HOPEVILLE.

Messrs Currie and Butherford, of Mount Forest have bagged quite a number of foxes last week in this neighborhood. They camped with D. K. McArthur who helped them to hunt.

Getting into shape for the election. The candidates for the County Council met in Dundalk and arranged to hold meetings in every Sub Polling Division in Proton on Friday the 11th and choose two delegates each to attend a convention at Hopeville on the 15th to choose one of two candidates out of the list named. The delegates chosen here were George Spence and Wm. Dingwell. The meeting was in favor of Mr. Samuel Rogers.

Mr. Arthur Marsh, a tailor of Flesher town, has moved here and is opening up a shop.

Mr. W. J. Glen ester is home from Toronto.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES
TORONTO