A strong deputation from the Ontario License Holders' Protective Association waited upon the members of the Provincial Government lately to urge the passage of a number of amendments to the license laws which they considered to be in the interests of their trade. The deputation was, in a manner, a response to the deputation which recently waited upon the Government on behalf of the Dominion Alliance, and which asked that the law be changed in several particulars, for the furtherance of the temperance cause.

The delegation was composed of members of the executive of License Holders Association, accompanied by several representatives of the Associations from various points throughout the province. The above gentlemen, through their spokesman, Solicitor Haverson, urged upon the Government the advisability and practicability of introducing legislation that would give effect to amendments to the existing regulations as follows:

1. That the hour of closing Hotels and saloons on week nights other than Saturday nights be 12 o'clock p. m., on Saturday nights 9 p. m.
2. That the power of municipal councils to deal with liquor licenses be withdrawn, and the same vested in the provincial government.
3. That holders of shop licenses be permitted to keep for sale upon their licensed premises cigars, cigarettes and tobacco, the same to be sold in unbroken packages. (See section 33 of the liquor license act.)
4. That the removal and transfer of licenses to be in the discretion of the commissioners. (Sec. 11 sub-sec. 14.)
5. That tavern license holders be permitted to supply liquor to guests, travellers, boarders and lodgers during prohibited hours. (Sec. 54.)
6. That holders of licenses to sell liquor shall be eligible for members of municipal councils.
7. That the license act be so amended that the bar of licensed premises may be opened after the hours of polling on election days.
8. That druggists be prohibited from selling liquor at all times or in any quantities, except for dispensing purposes.
9. That holders of shop licenses be allowed to sell bottled liquors in sealed packages, in quantities of not less than one-half pint.
10. That the defendant in all cases of infraction of the liquor license act be constituted a competent witness.—Templar.

Y. P. S. C. E.

On Monday evening, the 28th inst., the Y. P. S. C. E. of Burns Church, Rocky Saugeen, held a sociable gathering at the hospitable home of Mr. James McLarty where not only members of the Society, but also a large number of invited guests assembled. The fine large residence of Mr. McLarty afforded ample accommodation. The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Little and Mr. Curry, of Corinth, aided not a little in making the evening pass pleasantly and profitably. The first part of the evening was devoted to amusements of various kinds and into these all entered with a heartiness and goodwill fully testifying as Mr. Little said that Christianity was not a dull or dry affair and none could be so happy as Christians.

When a considerable portion of time had been thus spent the company were called to order so that they might have an opportunity of enjoying the good things provided by the ladies.

When ample testimony had been borne to the excellent quality of the refreshments provided by the ladies, a programme of great merit and considerable length was gone through with under the management of Rev. Mr. Little, who, as everybody knows who has seen him officiate, makes a model chairman. The length of the programme and the fact that the evening was already well advanced induced the chairman to make his opening remarks very brief and reserve the greater part of what he wished to say to the close.

The musical part of the programme consisted of a duet by the Misses Ector, another by the Misses McFayden and a solo by Miss E. Clark, Mr. Chas. Snyder and Mr. John Clark.

Short addresses which showed that excellent talent is developing at the Rocky were delivered by Messrs Philip McKechnie Archie McLean, Dan McCormick and John McKinnon. Other contributors to the mental bill of fare were a reading entitled 'Success in Life' from the pen of James A. Garfield, by Mr. M. N. Clark; a recitation well rendered by Mr. Jno. Pathebaugh; a touching narration by Brother Watkins in the person of Mr. Hugh McKinnon, of Corinth of the regent with which nature high and low, animate and inanimate regarded his separation from his former flock. Another good recitation was delivered by Mr. Duncan McLean in a manner which shows that Duncan has splendid ability in that line. Expressions of goodwill and encouragement fell from the lips of Mr. Curry, of Corinth, and then after a vote of thanks to the ladies, the committee, and to Mr. McLarty, and after expressions of regret that the Rocky Presbyterian Congregation were soon to lose the service of Mr. McLarty and family, the meeting was brought to a close with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Little. It was truly a pleasant evening.

SOUTH EGREMONT.

Too late for last week.

The S. S. Entertainment, held in Woodland, Wednesday night last was a great success. At 7.30 Superintendent Murdoch took the chair, a programme of singing, recitations, readings, etc., mostly by children, was rendered. Short addresses were delivered by Pastor McKellar and Messrs Fraser, Bye, Hunter and McArthur. Half way through the programme was intermission, and the stripping of two magnificent Christmas trees, loaded with candies, oranges, dolls, books, etc., etc., including a pair of fur driving suits, worth $4.00 for the pastor, and a valuable teacher's bible for the Superintendent. Proceeds were $16.40, expenses off will leave $11.00 for the S. S.

The following old residents are visiting relatives here: Peckover and family from Dakota; Mal. McEachern and wife, Mich.

Quite a number from here took in the nomination at Holstein on Monday and report a good time.

Two weddings on the list for this week.

BALSAM VALLEY.

Mr. Editor, we begin on the first week of the New Year and we wish everyone a happy and prosperous New Year.

Things are very quiet in general and as the sleighing has disappeared a great many were disappointed by not having their sleigh-ride.

Miss Sarah McCormack is at present working at Mr. J. Aldcorns, on the 17th Proton. Charlie will have a long walk now.

We are pleased to hear that Miss Martha Porter is improving very much after having been removed to Toronto.

Miss Sarah E. Ferguson left for Proton Station where she intends to remain for some time.

Mrs. J. McDougall had a very severe attack of Shingles but under Dr. Hutton's care she is able to be around again.

Mr. James McDonald, has started hewing with Messrs Beaton and McArthur of Glenelg, and they are having a large time at Gooseberry Hall, Hopeville.

Messrs Ed. Broome, and D. McIntyre were cutting wood for Jack Campbell of Boothville. Jack says they are hustlers and can cut, split and pile six cords and a half, a day.

Miss Janet Flockhart, left for Wolf-town last week and we notice crape on a few hats since her departure.

Mr. David McIntyre spent Christmas and New Year at home and left for Berlin last Monday. The Germans seem to agree with Dave as he looks hale and hearty.

Miss Maggi McLean, of Woodbridge is visiting her many friends in this part. A number of the timber gangs were home for Christmas and returned after the elections. We notice that Mr. John McColl, Alex. McDonald and John Bennett remained among the Germans in Waterloo, while Dave and Malcolm spent Christmas at home. Mr. McColl has the reputation of being a first class hewer, and also the gang that are ahead of him are hard to beat, for we know that first class men come from the hills of Bentinck, Glenelg, and Egremont.

Mr. David McIntyre was home from Waterloo for his Xmas Holidays.

Miss Maggie McLean of Vaughan is visiting at Mrs. H. McLean's this week.

Messrs Dave McIntyre and Norman McDougall leave this week to go timbering, the former goes to Waterloo, the latter to Galt.

Mr. Johnie Graham, of Edge Hill paid the Valley a flying visit, we are always pleased to see Johnie and have a chat with him.

Quite a number from here attended the dance at Mr. Hugh McPhail's on New Year's Eve, where they enjoyed themselves till morning.

The Misses McDougall gave a party on the 22nd of last month, where everything went all right, and nearly all enjoyed themselves. Some were naid, but it must have been their own fault.

Trifles should not vex any one.

Mr. Walters, of Meaford was visiting friends in this place for the past week.

Mr. R. Whiteside of Owen Sound is visiting his aunt Mrs. C. McDonald.

What we would like to know: If the young man enjoyed his nap, in the wheelbarrow on New Year's night?

If anyone knows the tune of Jessie's Lament?

If the two young men got over their New Year's drive?

PROTON CENTRE.

Beautiful weather, we can hear the noise of wagons in all directions.

Mr. and Mrs. C. McLean spent their Christmas at the parental home, Mr. J. Dezell's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McMurdo, of Hopeville were the guests of Mr. A. Bryce, Sabbath last.

Mr. Ferns of Swinton Park, was visiting his uncle Mr. J. Batchelor, Sunday.

Mr. H. McLean was visiting friends around Swamp College.

Mrs. W. J. McLean was visiting at the parental home last week.

Mr. Joe Lee who has been away to the North Shore, returned home singing Home Sweet Home.

Mrs. L. Vert who has been sick for the past couple of weeks is recovering.

While W. J. McLean was drawing timber out of the swamp for his brother Chas., the horse, being on the ice, fell, breaking its leg between knee and fetlock. They cut the ice and got her out. Her leg was so badly broken they were forced to kill her. This is quite a loss to W. J.

Mr. G. Pride, who was sent to the Owen Sound goal as being insane some time ago and the authorities thinking him not dangerous enough to send to the asylum, sent him home and the day he came home he became unmanageable, men had to watch him day and night.

Last Monday he had to be taken back again where he now remains, till there is an opening in the asylum.

Miss M. Egan was hanging up pictures, standing on a stand. This slipped and she fell against the jam of the door and was found by her sister unconscious with a cut in her head three inches long, and it is feared her spine is affected.

Dr. Mitchell, of Dundalk, is in attendance, and we hope to hear of her recovery.

Mr. P. Farman's little girl aged three got badly scalded by falling into a pot of boiling water, left on the floor.
