THANKS.—To the many who have called during the last two or three weeks and renewed for the REVIEW we offer our sincere thanks, which are due also to those who have remitted, generally with kind words. We begin 1897 greatly encouraged and hope many more will during this month place themselves right with us. We need the money and will endeavor on our part to keep the REVIEW still in the front as a local news paper.

The Grey Review.

Durham, Thur. Jan. 21, '96.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

AN ACCIDENT to our press has caused a delay in some of our mails this week. All right again however.

As the day lengthens the cold strengthens.

Fresh broken sodas at John Cameron's, also prime new cheese.

Just Arrived, another shipment of that $2.00 flour at Sparlings. Try it.

Wood and farm produce taken in exchange for Photos &c. at Torry's Gallery Upper Town.

Mrs. Karl, of Toronto, is visiting for a week or so with her sister, Mrs. R. Aljoe, Jr. of town.

We have in stock a very fine pastry flour ordered expressly for that purpose. Geo. Sparling.

To LET.—A comfortable two-story brick house in Lower Town, Durham. Apply to J. M. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Aljoe, Jr. attended the funeral of Mrs. Aljoe's father at Holland Centre last Monday.

Business men can have a box of 500 good envelopes neatly printed for one dollar. Hard times prices, but these will advertise your business.

County Council meets next Tuesday, and 16 men will take upon themselves the obligation to govern this county for 2 years.

Fair Day was a cold one, away below zero, and few cattle were offering and few buyers. Some brisk horse selling went on we believe.

Mrs. Wm. Turnbull, Bentinck, near Corinth, and her sister Miss Maggie Redford are visiting their Brother-in-law's Rev. J. O'Neill Cheltenham, for a week.

SALE BILLS. Parties wishing Sale Bills will do well to call at the Review Office. We can nearly always let you have them same day you call. We give you a free notice in the paper too.

Mr. Jno. Crowther, of Holland Centre, father of Mrs. Robt. Aljoe, Jr. died last Saturday, the 18th inst. at the age of 79 years. Four sons and three daughters survive him.

BARGAIN DAY.—Every Tuesday at Torry's Photo Gallery, cab, photos, best finish, $1 & $1.50 a doz. Sunbeams 75c. Photo albums 50c to $2.00. Call and be convinced. Gallery, Upper Town.

ENTERPRISE.—Mr. A. S. Hunter is now and again put to the pinch for water for his stock, etc. He is now bound to overcome this difficulty and has at work this week a large power drill owned and operated by Mr. G. Calder, of Holstein. This Machine can bore 300 feet if necessary, and it is decidedly interesting to see it in operation.

We hope Mr. Hunter's enterprise may be rewarded by an abundant supply of water. His fine stables, where over 40 head of cattle are being prepared for market at present, is a delight to progressive stockmen.

SACRED CONCERT.—A high class Sacred Concert was given by the choir of the Methodist Church, Mr. Forest on the evening of the 12th Jan. to a well filled house, and an appreciative audience, under the direction of Prof. Warrington of Toronto, all acquitted themselves well, Miss Gerie King and Miss Inez Tanner, excelling themselves as Soloists, while the Chorus by the evenly balanced choir showed forth the art of shading in Piano and Fortissimo to perfection, the pieces rendered were by such composers as Sir. A. Sullivan, Rossini, Haydn and others. The Solo and Chorus "The Marvellous Work" from Haydn's Creation, was especially fine. Miss E. Whelpley presided at the piano with ability.

COM.

PREBYT'RIAN S. S. ENTERTAINMENT

The workers who spent much time and labor in getting up this concert went home last Friday night amply repaid for all their trouble. The audience were there to the packing of the Town Hall, some could not get in, —the children were out in force—the programme was a unique one,—it was excellently rendered—the receipts were generous.

Sup. Allan had many willing and able assistants, among whom were Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. A. S. Hunter, Mrs. Allan and Misses Cochrane, McFarlane, B. McKenzie, A. Johnston, Fraser, M. Gun, M. Harris, Cameron, Park and others.

Miss Allie McRae, on kindergarten lines, and Mr. R. Parker, ever public spirited, lent their skill freely also in preparation.

The three kindergarten songs by little tots were a delight to the audience who always enjoy the naive efforts of the youngsters in their motion songs.

Whether the Broom Drill or the Hoop Drill was the better, it was hard to decide. Certainly the rendering of both

The Annual Cong. Meeting of Amos Church was held recently, the Congregation being well represented, Session's report given by the Pastor Rev. D. McVicar. Amongst others things showed the membership to be 184, the attendance at Church was also shown, with a few exceptions to be very satisfactory. The C. E. S. in connection with the church also presented a report by their Secy., Miss Agnes Renwick, having a membership of 53. Out of some $15.00 collected, $9.00 was contributed to Foreign Missions. In this connection, the Cong. acquiesced in the Secy.'s inviting here the next convention of South Grey Endeavourers. The Sabbath School report was also presented by the same young lady. The report of the Women's F. M. Society was given by Miss Nellie Hastie, Secy., who

Ms. Annie Stover, Buffalo, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jao, Fifth, of town.

Miss Ramsay, left for Chesley, on Saturday last. She was accompanied by Miss Allie McRae.

DRY WOOD.—Can a few of our subscribers who have promised to bring us wood on the REVIEW come along soon, with either dry or green?

A meeting of the South Grey Reform Association is expected to be held about the middle of February. Before the Session begins at any rate.

ALLAN FOR WARDEN.—We hear that Mr. James Allan is likely to be the 1st choice for Warden under the new order of things. No better man could be found. It would fittingly round off his 25 years of Municipal life.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in Burn's church, Rocky Saugeen, next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. McVicar, of Dromore, will conduct the preparatory service at 2.30 on Friday, and the Rev. Mr. Craigie, of Hanover, on Saturday at 11 o'clock.

BAPTIST RALLY.—Chesley was the scene last week of one of the enthusiastic Baptist Conventions called a Rally. [We have not noticed that Durham sent any, but Bentinck sent a lively contingent. Paisley received the banner for the highest marks on the Christian culture course.]

AN ABSURD RUMOR.—We have heard it stated that Mr. Hay, of Dornoch, went to his opponent, Mr. Adam, before the late election to ask him to resign in his favor. We venture to say Mr. Hay did nothing of the sort. All Mr. Hay wanted was a square fight, and, if defeated, accept it like a man.

FROM RICHMOND.—By the courtesy of Mr. Wm. Johnston we have received a copy of the Richmond Dispatch of recent date. Mr. J. is an old Virginian, having lived there in the stirring times of the civil war, of which he has many memories and a "mouth" of good stories. From this paper we shall next week give some pointers that may be useful to our good town.

KNOX CHURCH, NORMANBY.—The congregation of this church are having an old time Soiree on Monday evening next, for which they have bills out and are desirous to see that, and Mr. J. G. Inkster as chief speaker. Mr. Inkster is a theological Student who labored in the field for a time over a year ago. He is expected to preach on Sunday at 3 and 7 p. m. They will likely have full houses as they never do things by halves.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY.—Barrister McCaul on Wednesday evening received four pages of the Judges' deliverance on the suit lately pending between Mr. Laidlaw and some of the subscribers. The subscribers go set free, the defect in the agreement being that no one is mentioned as being payee. Those who paid will now feel chagrined, and steps may yet be taken to recover moneys already paid. We congratulate the victors, while at the same time we are sorry for Mr. Laidlaw, who, we understand, will be largely out of pocket by it.

FARMING.—For January is par excellence a poultry number, and its cover is embellished with a portrait of Mr. Thos. A. Brown, Secy. of the Ontario Poultry Association, and a sketch of his career appears. Papers by prominent breeders profusely illustrated, fill its pages, and all the latest designs for Poultry Houses, coops, self feeders, &c. are shown and described. The purchase of poultry for the market forms the subject of an interesting paper. The provincial winter show at Guelph receives full attention, and much other matter for farmers, dairymen, and horticulturalists. The Bryant Press, Toronto, $1 a year, $1.75 with the REVIEW.

On 15th inst. the Annual Meeting of P. of I. South Grey was held in Calder's Hall. The different municipalities were represented and much enthusiasm prevailed. Both the President, who had served for some two years, and the Secy., after a term of five years, intimated a desire to be relieved from office, pleaded inability longer to perform the duties devolving upon them. Many expressed regret at dispensing with services of such efficient and faithful officers, to both of whom were given, for past performance of duties heavy votes of thanks. Several questions, of great moment, to the order was discussed, all taking a lively interest in the same, and many expressing their sentiments forcibly. Thomas McEdden was elected President, Thomas McComb, Vice Pres. and Wm. Gorsline, Secy. An adjournment to meet at the call of the Pres. was then ordered. Much enthusiasm was manifested, during the proceedings; a very pleasant afternoon was fully occupied, and all seemed to enjoy to the full, meeting once more, for the interchange of ideas.

THE NEW LIBERAL CABINET.

We have just received a sample copy of a most excellent and life-like photo-engraving done in three colors of the new Liberal Cabinet. The Globe Printing Co. have secured the exclusive copyright in the pictures. It is 21 x 28 inches and was arranged from actual photographs by the well-known Canadian artist, J. D. Kelly, and is being prepared by the Toronto Lithographing Co., which bespeaks perfect work.

We have made arrangements with the Globe Printing Co. to supply it with a three month's trial trip of the Weekly Globe and the REVIEW for 50 cts. That is Weekly Globe 3 months, REVIEW 3 months and the engraving all for 50 cts. The Engraving alone sold for 50 cts, but it can now be secured only through the Globe.

The meeting of the two Houses of Parliament in a short time will make the Globe a necessity, as its reports are the fullest and the fairest.

Yearly subscribers may have the engraving by remitting us 29 cents. To cash subscribers for the Globe and REVIEW for 1 year the price with the picture is $1.50.

Let this bargain offer be widely known.

Can't

Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

MARSHALL.—In Normanby, on the 11th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Marshall a daughter.

MARRIED.

MATTHEWS—SCHENK—At Holstein, in the Presbyterian Manse, by the Rev. J. M. Miller, on the 13th inst., Mr. R. J. Matthews to Miss Mary Schenk, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. And. Schenk, all of Egremont.

DIED.

MACGILLIVRAY—At Montreal, on Friday, the 15th January, Rev. John Macgillivray, B. D., pastor of Melville Presbyterian Church, Montreal. [The parents of the deceased, who is a brother of the Honan Missionary, were well known in parts of S. Grey.]

was in the highest degree creditable, and formed a delightful number in a fine entertainment.

Of the reciters, while all were good, it is no affection to say that Miss Mary Gordon was the best of the evening. Her fine voice, her appreciation of subject, and natural manner will yet bring her more to the front.

The Star drill, the Christmas Reunion and the Kitchen pantomime were all pretentious pieces delightfully executed while choruses, a dialogue, a knitting song, etc. added pleasing variety to the evening.

It was a success and according to old Mr. Swallow "I take 'em all in, Sir, the best of the season."
