Mr. Adam Cranston, Peabody, well known to the medical fraternity of South Grey, was visiting his sister Mrs. Binnie, and his many other friends here last week. We were glad to meet the genial blind gentleman, whose mental eyes and memory are not yet dim.

Here is a problem: A farmer owned a pig and wanted to weigh it. The man weighed 200 and his wife 135. They put a board across the fence to which they sat upon the ends. It exactly balanced. They then changed places his wife taking the pig upon her lap just balancing the board again. What is the weight of the porker?

FAMILY RETENTION.—On Tuesday last Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Morice, Normanby, had the pleasure, not enjoyed for 10 or 12 years back of having the whole of their family around them at one time. The family consists of four sons and four daughters, David, Robert, James and John, the daughters being Mrs. Geo. Moore, Teeswater; Mrs. R. Ferguson and Mrs. Green, Cummock and Miss Mary at home. The unusual meeting was celebrated by much kindly feeling, a drive to Mt. Forest to have a family photograph taken, David and family return in a short time to B. C. and earthy mutations render it very unlikely that they will all meet again in the flesh.

SMALL ACCOUNTS.

During the past week or two we have sent out a number of acc'ts. to subscribers in arrears for a year or more. These in the aggregate amount to a considerable sum, which we must realize on. We thank those who have responded by paying the debt, we respect those who have written or called to acknowledge the debt and promised to pay shortly and to those who have done neither we are reluctantly forced to intimate that after the 13th of March if no response is forthcoming the accounts will leave our hands, and the credit price will be charged. A settlement with ourselves will be much more satisfactory. We look for a generous and hearty response before the above date and the date on the label placed as much ahead as it has been behind

If the goddess of winter is sensitive to flattery she must blush frequently at the many compliments paid to the "finest weather" yet having. Roads and temperature all that could be desired.

We have received an interesting account of the life of Peter Smith, one of the oldest of the pioneers in Bruce County and in this, which we shall give in part next week. It forms interesting reading.

Our Pricewill correspondent supplies us with a selection of galleys, entitled "Leavich An Aigh," but as the galleys are of our stuff and ourselves have been sadly neglected, we defer publication to give time for careful setting and proofreading.

Mrs. D. Wald McKinnon, mother of the well known McKinnon family, died at the residence of her son Neil, in Pricewill on Sunday last, and was buried on Tuesday in the old cemetery, Durham Road, Glenelg. The removal of this "Mother in Israel" calls for an extended notice, which we trust to have next week from our able Pricewill correspondent.

THE GLOBE.—An review was an immensely popular combination this year. It has cost us money but we were anxious to meet the hard times. The Globe has increased in size since last year. Its high esteem in newspapers will be reimposed and it will be impossible to keep the clubbing rate so low as $1.35. Subscribe now and get the benefit of the interesting reading connected with the meetings of the two parliaments. See our Daily Globe offer elsewhere.

WEDDING BELLS.—On Wednesday of last week a very happy company assembled at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. George Turbull, Bentinck, the occasion being the marriage of their only daughter Miss Jane Turnbull to Mr. James McDonald of the same township. The high esteem in which the young couple are held was shown by the number of presents they received which were both numerous and valuable. A pleasant evening was spent with music and song, Mr. Thos. Milligan and Mr. Alex. Grierson being the chief entertainers in this line with their comic singing. All went home well pleased with the time spent and wishing the happy couple health, wealth and prosperity and all the happiness that married flesh is heir to. [Our Vickers correspondent also refers more fully to this event. The Review extends warmest wishes to the young couple.—Ed.]

IMPORTANT CREAMERY CHANGE.

The McKechnie firm of this town have bought the Creamery, and propose to run it. With characteristic energy they have got in a supply of ice, and their knowledge of business as well as butter will enable them to run the institution on a business basis, which will be a boon to the farmer and dairyman who finds his home made butter a drug on the market.

We believe in co-operative dairying, either in butter or cheese, and at the present juncture, this move has in it the elements of success, from the steps at present being taken by Minister Fisher to provide cold storage for perishable products.

We wish our enterprising townsmen every success and congratulate the farming community on the prospects of a profitable outlet for their dairying efforts. We shall return to this again.

FOUL MURDER IN DAKOTA.

Saturday's dailies contained an account of the butchery, supposed to be by Indians, of Rev. Thos. Spicer, at one time a blacksmith in Yeovil, his wife, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Waldron, 80 years of age, his daughter Mrs. Wm. Rouse, and Mrs. Rouse's twin boys.

John Spicer, a brother of Thos.' was passing the house and as was his custom, called to the occupants. No answer being received, he stopped his team, and entered the house to find 4 dead bodies, and two more, Mr and Mrs. Spicer in the barn. Two daughters of Mr. Spicer were from home and thus escaped the bloody villains.

Mr. Spicer's aged parents live on the 10th con. of Egremont, Mrs. James Counts, of Yeovil, is a sister to Mrs. Rouse, and daughter to Mrs. Waldron. The sympathy of the township goes out to the survivors in their terrible loss. The despatch says all were highly respected and no cause for the deed is known.

Mr. James Mack and Miss Elisa of the Corners, took in the service at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Calder and S. McKinnon spent Tuesday in Pricewill.

Miss S. McKinnon and Miss Lizzie Burnett visited at Mr. T. McCombs at Bunnessan and took in the Dixon school entertainment.

Miss Ma y Falkingham has left town to go to Manitoba.

A HEAVY LOSS.—Mr. D. Jackson sold a fine yearling Durham bull Tuesday for $50 to some party in Fergus who failed to control the animal. It broke loose and scoured the country Tuesday night, and died Wednesday, we presume from exposure and overheating.

Our Rob Roy correspondent has such a full account of Mr. Dixon's school entertainment that we have little to add. The attendance of outside-speakers made the programme rather long, and some of the little ones did not get their "pieces" said. Mr. Dixon must feel pleased that his extensive preparation labors have met with success. Mr. D. is a worker and his section knows it.

The Carnival in Walkerton on Friday night drew a large number west. The race going to Harley Davidson, of Toronto, with Jones 2nd. The race was regarded by a good many as a fake.

At the recent meeting of the A. O. U. W. in Toronto, Separation from the main body was carried unanimously, and Ontario now stands alone. Graduated assessments have also been introduced.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. J. Laidlaw's youngest child is dangerously ill. Lizzie and Arthur came home from Harrison H. School, on Tuesday. A daughter of Mr. C. McKinnon's has been quite ill, and indeed sickness is the rule.

The Baptist Missionary delegation announced last week gave an interesting talk on Missions to a rather slim audience last night. An excellent meal showed the extent of Baptist zeal in the province and it is very considerable.

TOWN INDUSTRIES.—The Committee appointed last week to consider the industrial development of the town met Tuesday evening. They have determined to advise the council to offer tax exemption and a free site to the right parties, and also advise them to advertise in Toronto papers for eligible industries. No scheme for local assistance was matured, but a hopeful feeling prevails that we are on the eve of something better. All are determined to go cautiously as past booms have often proved bombshells.

OBITUARY.

Died at Dornoch, township of Bentinck, at the residence of Mr. Alex. Smith on Wednesday morning the 17th February, of blood poisoning, Mr. Donald Black, native of the Isle of Mull, Argyleshire, Scotland, aged 74 years. Mr. Black was a resident of the township of Bentinck for 30 years. His former residence was on the 2nd Con., west of the Garafaxa Road, one and one fourth miles from Latona. The deceased never took to himself a partner in life, but preferred to live a single life. He was a man that was well versed in Scripture and lived nearer to the teachings of the book of Holy Writ than many that made louder pretensions in making their Christianity known more publicly. He preferred entering into his closet and offering the devotions of his heart to the Father who heareth the secret prayers of his humble followers. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and leaves one brother, Alex. Black, of Manitoba, and four sisters, Mrs. Alex. Smith, Dornoch, Mrs. Neil McDonald, Walkerton, and Mrs. John McPhail and Mrs. Hector McLean, both of South East Glenelg, and a host of cousins and other relatives in Bentinck, Glenelg and Egremont. The funeral which was a large one took place to the Latona cemetery on Thursday, the 18th inst. The Rev. Mr. Little preached the funeral sermon at the house and at the grave.
