Editorial Note and Comment.

—The Grand Council of Chosen Friends met in Hamilton last week. This order is a growing one and its finances are in a satisfactory condition.

—A deputation of business men 600 strong attended the Illinois Legislature to demand Legislation to offset the growing evil of large Departmental stores.

—Speaking of the election in Wright Co. Quebec, the Mail says Wright has gone wrong as the electors had an unfortunate fondness for Champagne, (the name of Liberal candidate.)

—George Godolphin Osborne, tenth Duke of Leeds, a Prince of the Holy Roman Empire, and a Roman Catholic is to be our next Governor-General. He is 35 years of age, and has held several positions of public trust.

—Montreal and a large portion of Quebec province, eastern Ontario, and a part of N. York state experienced an earthquake last week. In the city everyone rushed to the street, and a good deal of damage is reported to plastered walls, also in broken crockery &c.

—The Liberals have won 8 out of the 9 bye-elections which have been held. The last, in Wright county Quebec, is a sweeping victory in spite of Foster's personal effort, and outspoken Bishop opposition. The London Advertiser thinks a few more bye elections will convince even Sir Chas. Tupper that the school question is settled.

—The concert of Europe in the eastern troubles is falling to pieces, and it is certain Britain and France have been drawn closer, Germany we believe has her eye on the Transvaal more than on Crete, while Russia is licking her lips as she watches Constantinople. The Turk is showing some vigor, but Greece is maintaining her position well and if intense enthusiasm means anything, she will roast Turkey, even in the presence of the blundering, or rather envious and suspicious cooks of Europe whose numbers are "spoiling the broth."

PROMORE.

Thos. Acheson is engaged with John Renton for the balance of the year.

Jas. Snell took a pleasant trip last week visiting friends at Markton, Perth Co.

Stephen Boakes is making things comfortable. He is building a wood shed.

Jim McKenzie has moved into the house Wm. Brown bought from John Wilson on the 12th con.

La grippe is around yet in our town. Wm. Lester and Master Wilson were laid up for a while.

Rumor has it that there will be a couple of weddings west of here soon.

Fred Foot is engaged with D. McKelvie for seven months at $10 per month.

Mrs. C. Renwick had an attack of inflammation, but is recovering.

A number of friends spent a few pleasant hours at Mr. Jas. Geudes' hospitable home one evening last week.

Jas. Sim, of Yeovil, is engaged with Mr. Snell, for the summer months.

Miss Jenny Doupe, of Holstein, was a guest of Mrs. Laughton's last week.

Joe Moore and Jas. Hooper had wood been recently.

A nephew of John Stephens is visiting friends around this part, returning shortly to his home in Woodstock.

Thos. Harrison will have to plough a little closer to the fence this spring as he has another boy to feed that came to his place last week.

Joe Stephenson, Jas. Laughton and Wm. Jones leaves this week for Galt vicinity for the summer months. Success boys.

Mrs. Jas. Myres and her daughters, Nellie and Hattie and her son Bob have moved into one of Mr. Hink's houses.

A cheese factory meeting was held at Jas. Leusk's last week for the purpose of letting the drawing of the milk on 19 and 21 con. route. John Hornsby was the successful man at 7 cents per hundred.

Chas. Cuttrass, a home boy, who has been with D. Coleridge for 5 years past is leaving for Toronto next week. We hope he will succeed wherever his lot may be cast. He is reported to be a very industrious young man.

What we would like to know: Who was the young man that made the mistake on the day of Wilson's sale by sporting around with a married woman thinking it was his best girl?

Thos. Phillips and family moved away to their new home out in the North West the fore part of last week having chartered a car at Holstein to take a quantity of household goods and some stock. We wish them every success in their new undertaking.

As one moves out another moves in. Henry Schenk having bought the Philip farm is now moving on to it. It is said he is going to keep batch only for a short duration if those trips Henry takes going west on the 19th con. counts for anything.

Humors, pimples, boils, are very annoying. They quickly disappear when the blood is purified by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
