Correspondence.

MULOCK,

As I take my pen in hand I may call Miss Scott attended the wedding of the attention of your readers to an Mr. and Mrs. Nelson last week, and had article which appeared in your second a pleasant afternoon's examination with last issue about the Glenelg soiree, sign-ed John Williams! Now he says the was chairman. Dep. Reeve McInnis yankee did not pay for the crowd. Now made some appropriate remarks, Miss we beg to differ and say that he did pay Nancy Swanston sang a solo, and altofor the crowd of five ladies, himself and gether a pleasant time was spent. Miss the teamsters and as to your load I Scott is making good work here. doubt if it is paid for yet. Thanks to Assessor Wilson, of Durham. the Corinth correspondence to the Han-over Post for his item of last week which ual rounds. shows that I don't stand alone in the matter. Had "John Williams" the principle of manliness about him that the Yankee had there would not be so much room for writing. Now, Mr. Editor, he thinks my advice like my information week quite a number of our young peobetter for John Williams to do with Miss Mary and Jacob McDould what information we gave than what we are likely to give if continuing with his pen. But as to meanness we don't expect to compete with him for we insert nothing but what we can stand by. Now, Mr. Editor, I will not take up any more space as I will continue my correspondence.
