

Correspondence.

WELBECK.

Mr. Editor. Not having seen our village represented in your columns for some time, we concluded to send a few items. Craving the indulgence of your experienced Cor., until we get our hand in, as it were.

Mr. James Hay, left this morning (Monday) for the vicinity of Milton, expecting to engage for the summer months with a farmer down there.

La Grippe has laid a firm grip on many around here of late. Amongst the ones most needing medical attendance at present we notice, Miss L. Man, who has been ailing for a couple of months, also the Scheurman and Campbell families have undergone a severe trial, with sickness. At time of writing our worthy Post Mistress is laid up with a severe cold and neuralgia.

Not many of the farmers have started seeding, although many are preparing for a large crop, in the way of getting labor saving machinery, Harrows and Seed Drills. Last Saturday, Messrs McDonald, Alexander and Welsh brought home new Drills, purchased from C. McKinnon, of Durham. Seeding in a few days will be general, all busy turning up the soil that so much money has been lost in of late years.

Mr. Cris Krisbaum left on a business trip to his former home, near Palmerston, last Friday, expecting to be back on Tuesday, and bringing with him a load of seed and implements.

Mr. Dan McDonald left some time ago to fill a second season term, with Mr. T. Scarff, of Rocky Saugeen. Dan is a steady, industrious youth, and respected wherever known.

Mr. Daniel Campbell has taken the contract of chopping ten acres of bush for James D. Ledingham, and is hard at work felling the monarch's of the forest, at present. Dan is a hustler.

Grasshoppers! The plague of 1895 and '96 have again made their appearance near Dornoch, an occurrence that makes the anxious yeoman, who has braved the financial strain of the last couple of years, look anxious.

Wood bees have been all the rage around here for the last week. We refrain from giving the amount cut by each individual for fear of encouraging reports of wood-cutting feats so commonly indulged in by Cor. Suffice to say the wood-piles at eventide were enormous.

Mr. D. Robertson, Chesley, has taken a large contract of cutting logs from A. L. Smith of the Welbeck Mills, and is a busy man at present thereof.

The Tiffany and Bagan, Woodcutting Co. are transforming J. Walsh's bush at present into an immense woodyard. They expect to complete their contract this week.

Another face and form augments the cosy hearth of Mr. A. Campbell. It is a bright-eyed baby girl and arrived last week.

LOTHARIO.

TOP CLIFF.

The melodious notes of the frog are once more heard in the marshes.

We have to offer an apology to some of the performers at the recent entertainment. The club swinging was done by Miss M. McCannel, and the dancing contest was between two boys. As it read in our account one might think they were both done by one person. We regret also missing mention of a song by D. McIntyre, of B. V.

To gain parents' consent does not always say that your case is won, as was clearly shown by a young lady of this vicinity who when a young man attempted to imprint a sounding token of his regards for her on her ruby lips was completely out classed. He had gained her mother's permission first, but he had to acknowledge that for once he came out second best even with that assistance.

Mr. Hugh McDonald has purchased a Lion Open cutaway Disc Harrow. From the length of the name one would surmise that it should work to perfection.

On the evening of Monday, the 12th inst. after the lecture given at Ebenezer on the slums of old London was over young lady from this district was standing at the bottom of the steps waiting for her companion to drive up when she was rudely tossed almost completely off her feet by a young man, who, coming down the steps had missed his footing and came tumbling down and a gaping rent was the result, unintentionally of course, but we warn the youth not to be so careless or in such haste next time.

Mrs. Court is at present laid up with malaria fever, but under the skilful attendance of Dr. J. F. Boyle, of Priceville, we hope she will soon be around again.

A few of the younger generation attended the lecture given at Ebenezer church by the Rev. Mr. Sauvage, and report it to have been a very interesting as well as useful one. The subject was "Missionary work in the slums of old London."

Mr. James McDonald is engaged at Mr. Archibald McQuig's for the spring seeding.

Mrs. McDonald, known as old lady McDonald, is at present very ill. She is in her 63rd year.

Mr. Alexander McEachern has purchased a fine horse from Mr. Stevenson, of Egremont, at a reasonable figure.

BOOTHVILLE.

Spring though almost here is still delaying.

We are pleased to record the marriage of Malcolm McGillivray, of Yeovil, to Miss Bella Ferguson, of this place. Congratulations.

Hugh McMillen has purchased the farm of Donald McDonald for the sum of $2,300.

Lauchlan McDougall has purchased the Brown farm.

Mrs. Hugh Atcheson after a lingering illness passed to the greater majority on Thursday the 11th inst. The funeral was well attended despite the bad roads.

Geo. Atcheson, formerly of Dromore, has moved into this village.

Dugald McCall moved into Proton last week.

The Secretary of the Reform Association, of Egremont, has got a set of plow harness from C. McMillan, of Dromore. The order was given immediately after the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight and has no connection with Dominion politics.

George Haas has been very sick, but is slowly improving.

We expect to be able to record a couple of weddings shortly.

GLASCOTT.

Changeable weather of late: snow storms, rain and frost at nights.

Ploughing is now in full swing, and no doubt by the time this reaches the press seeding will be rapidly pushing forward. Fall wheat is looking well and promises to be a good crop.

School has closed for the Easter holidays.

Miss Rosena Dittner returned from the city about a week ago and is going to enjoy herself around the parental home for a time before returning.

Mr. S. Martin moved his belongings to the Irish Lake last week where he will try farming for a time and can compare the result with our burg, which has in no means been encouraging for the past two years.

We are sorry to report that our worthy Post Master, Mr. R. English, is at present having a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels and is in rather a critical state, but we hope through the skilful treatment of Dr. Smith, who is in attendance, that he will soon be around again.

Mr. Robert Smith, of South Bentinck, has been around this week seeing after the interests of his farm, which Mr. Martin lately left.

Mr. Mat Aitkens has left the farm and gone to Berkeley for to reside for a time.

Messrs R. and Wm. Moran have also left their late rented farm here and gone over to Holland tp, for to test the soil there. There are several other changes taking place, but space will not permit to mention in full.

Mr. Jos. Boyle has secured the service of John Livingston for a month or more in seeding. John will speed the plough and sow the seed in quick time.

Miss Maggie Dittner will leave next week for Toronto where she has been for the last number of years in employment.

Thos. J. Brodie has returned from O. Sound for the holidays.

Auctioneer Noble passed through here on his way for to dispose of Wm. Duncan's chattels. We understand he has had over fifty sales since last fall.

House cleaning, feeding calves and setting geese is the order of the day with the good house wives.

HOPEVILLE.

Our neighborhood has a new auctioneer in the person of Dugald McPhail. He had rather novel proceedings at a sale down south in Proton in the Irish settlement. A farmer had bills out for a sale on the 13th and an auctioneer's name to it who lives in Luther, but our farmer had not seen the Luther auctioneer but sent him word. Some of the farmer's neighbors met the auctioneer and he sent word to the farmer that he could not go to his sale as he was otherwise engaged that day. So the farmer on hearing this came up and engaged Mr. McPhail. So when the time of sale came the two auctioneers put in an appearance and both claimed the right to sell the goods. After a long argument the Luther man got the sale with the assistance of some of the Irish settlement people.

Mr. James McMurdo has been siding up his house and Mr. Wm. Glenester, the brick layer here has been ornamenting some of the houses with brick chimneys.

Geo. Deans and James McMurdo the framers have started at George Gilk's barn.

Mr. Donald McDonald has purchased a farm in Melancthon.

Some of our village people went to Cedarville Friday night, the 18th to a hoe down in Dan McEachern's new tavern.

Mr. Pat Bulger, of Proton, moved last week to Priceville to keep tavern in the crown hotel. This is the 3rd brother in the business.

Mr. Curry, the Mt. Forest egg man commenced his rounds and has been here.

Peter McArthur has gone to Mount Forest.

Wm. McGruthen had a brother come to see him.

Another snow storm on the 17th. This has been a very good season for maple sugar making here. There are two firms in our village at the business. McArthur & Burnett also McArdle & Allens. They all tell of doing well in their undertaking.

TOM.

PRICEVILLE.

Sunday's high winds dried the roads up fine. We will soon have the dust flying. If it continues fine there will be a lot of grain in the ground this week.

The sugar making season was very favorable this spring. There has been more syrup made this year than for many years and those who didn't try it are now sorry they didn't since it has proven to be such a good season.

Miss Mary McAuley left for a couple of weeks' travel to Chicago last week.

Misses Hattie Stonehouse and Kate Livingstone are gone to Hamilton, and Misses Christie and Ann McPhail are off to Toronto.

Master Jno. McIntyre is engaged with Otto Konold for the summer.

Mr. John Mather is laid up with erysipelas in his face.

Mr. M. L. McIntyre, V. S. has purchased the house from Neil McKinnon occupied by Messrs McDougall and Muir.

Mr. Patrick Bulger, of Cedarville, has bought out Joseph McDonald, of the Crown Hotel, and moved in a week ago Monday.

The Post Office moved to N. McKinnon's store last week. There will soon be letter holes on all the doors in town.

We notice that in week before last's Review that the figures were reversed in the age of Robert Watters. He died in the 81st year of his age instead of 18th.

The A. O. U. W. had a good meeting last Thursday night. About half a dozen young men united with the order.

Mr. Arch. McKinnon, of Durham, was the guest of Angus McLauchlan last Thursday.

Our village has quite a show of school teachers during the Easter holidays.

Miss Annie Simpson is home from the city at present.

The Communion Services in the Presbyterian church last Sunday was conducted by Rev. Mr. Neely, of Hornings Mills. He is an able speaker and was highly appreciated by the many who were out to hear him.

Fair Day was very cold and dull with a little snow falling.

DORNOCH.

A very severe snow storm has struck our village this Monday morning, and as a result people are enjoying a holiday from their active seeding operations.

Miss Belle Skene, our popular teacher is under the weather. We hope soon to see her able to be out again.

Miss Lizzie Dargavel, teacher of Sullivan, is at present enjoying the comforts of the parental fireside.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mortley, of Chatsworth, spent Sunday with friends in our Vill.

School Teacher is spending her Easter vacation at her home in Traverston.

Our esteemed host of the Bull's Head assisted by our worthy barber are busily engaged erecting a new patent fence around the valuable property of the former. We are sorry to hear of the intended departure of the latter to the town of Williamsford.

YELLOW VALLEY.

Miss Maggie McDonald who spent a few days with Mrs. Bulger, of Dundalk, returned home last week.

Miss Martha King paid our Valley a flying visit lately.

Mr. Radley and daughter, of Flesterston visited Mrs. Robt. Reid last Wednesday.

Miss Maude Watson, of Priceville, spent Saturday with her grandmother, Mrs. Henderson.

Mr. Thos. Nichol spent Tuesday in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Watson spent Sunday with Mr. D. Henderson, of this place.

It is said that a certain farmer who lives not far east of Priceville has proposed saving the road side for pasture by placing logs along the way. We would like to know who the young men were that moved the logs into the man's field one dark night lately.

We beg to differ with the Priceville correspondent to the Chronicle in saying that a certain young man was out searching for one of his hens on a dark night lately as we are aware of the fact that the said young man keeps his fowl safely housed in one of the rooms, in the upper part of the house.

What we would like to know: If the young man who was disappointed on Sunday night lately intends coming back again?

Who the young couple were that took part in the taffy pull lately?

Your Sweetheart

Likes it.

The reference is to the sweetheart of the man who wears a Shorey suit. They all like it which is a certain argument in its favor. But the most convincing argument is that all of the material used by this firm is sponged and fully shrunk, and a guarantee of workmanship is given with each suit.
