June Brides. LOVE AND ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Priceville en fete.

On Wednesday of last week the romantic little village of Priceville, nestling peacefully on the banks of the Saugeen, was roused from its usual quietude, and never in its history did it assume such a gala appearance over a similar event.

The occasion was the marriage of Miss Katie McArthur, the loyely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don. McArthur, to Mr. M. Calder of Underwood, one of the prosperous business men of Bruce County.

The fact that the bride and her family were widely known and highly respected, gave much interest to the occasion, and when it was known that the bridegroom was worthy of the fair young bride, there was nothing to restrain the Jerseys. enthusiasm.

Mr. Thom, Pres. minister of Flesherton was the officiating clergyman, and at 5 p. m. the bride leaning upon the arm of her father was introduced, and in the presence of the large assemblage the old yet ever new yows were taken, and another couple launched on life's voyage.

The lovely June bride was attractively attired in white satin, trimmed with white lace, silk ribbon and orange blossoms, with flowing veil. She carried a two sisters, Miss Maggie and little Miss Minnie acted as bridesmaid, and maid of honor respectively, the former in ribbon, also carrying a beautiful bouquet, while Miss Minnie carried a basket of beautiful flowers.

The bride's wedding garments wor much admiration for the taste and skill displayed in their get up, and reflected credit on her sister Maggie, who was the artist.

The groomsmen were Mr. Angus Gilchrist, of Bruce, and Mr. Alex. Mc-Arthur, brother of the bride,

The procession homewards could scarcely be measured, seeing from the · church to the house, (nearly a mile) was a string of vehicles about 100 in number and many more on foot. Piper McKinnon, of Bruce, Grand Piper, Sons of Scotland, assisted by Piper McDonald, led the way with appropriate music.

The wedding dinner was a superb affair not more gratifying to the teste than to the eye. The table was a paradise of flowers and seldom indeed does a wedding company sit down amid such a bower of beauty. A 12 story bridal cake looked down on a menu, captivating and abundant, and many were the expressions of approval and delight. The bride was waited upon by her sister Florence.

A Bentinck Bride.

A very pretty wedding took place at the charming country home of Mr. Wm. Boyce, Crawford, on Wednesday eyening the 2nd inst., when his daughter, Jessie Bell, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Robert Hudson Ledingham, of Bentinck, the Rev. Mr. Couch, of Elmwood, officiating. The bride looked sweet in a becoming costume of white muslin trimmed with lace and ribbon. Her sister Alice acted as bridesmaid while the groom was supported by his cousin, William Ledingham. Miss Macfarlane, of Durham, played the Wedding March. After the ceremony about 90 guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper. The tables were nicely decorated and everything was served up in first class style. The wedding cake (an elegant production of the bride's deft cooking) was acknowledged by all to be par-excellent. A toast to the happy young couple was heartily given and responded to in a happy speech by Mr. James Wilson. -The government have closed a After supper the company spent a jolly ceived showed the high esteem in which day night. the young couple were held.
