

Correspondence.

Intended for last week.

CRAWFORD.

The busy season is now over and no doubt everybody will be prepared for the great Diamond Jubilee.

A lady and a gentleman from Mount Forest were visiting at Wm. Boyce's for a couple of days last week.

Crawford must have some attraction as Mr. Hector McDonald, of Walkerton, is occasionally seen around here.

Miss Maggie Boyd paid a visit to the old home a couple of weeks ago and returned again to Walkerton.

As the Boyce and Ledingham wedding were so well represented in your last issue it will not be necessary for me to give any particulars only it was an enjoyable wedding. But, as life is uncertain last Sunday evening Mr. Wm. Boyce's home was some what changed when they received the sorrowful news that their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Brown, of Cedarville, was dead. This is the first break in the family of eight girls and three boys. The community sympathizes with them in their sore trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown were visiting friends in Glenelg Centre lately.

Miss Aggie Boyce was home from Toronto to attend her sister's wedding and returned again last week.

Mr. Duncan McLean, of Atherden, accompanied by Miss Kate McKinnon, of the 8th, took a trip to Bruce and Sauguenay last Saturday to visit among friends.

A number from the 8th were guests at the Ledingham party last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nichol, of Hamilton, were up for a week visiting at the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Allan McDougall, of this place.

We were glad to see Mrs. Taylor formerly of here, but now of Chesley, in Church last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Anderson has purchased a new buggy which will be more comfortable riding in hot weather than a cart.

MERRITT.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hunter was visiting in Bentinck for a few days the latter part of last week.

Quite a number of the young people of this part held a picnic up at Hayward's Falls last Thursday. The day being fine a pleasant time was spent.

Mrs. Wm. Petrie and Miss Alice Brown, of Holstein, were guests at Mr. Andrew Henry's a week ago last Sunday.

Mr. Andrew and Miss Aggie Hunter were visiting at Mrs. Laughton's last Sunday.

We noticed in the Greenside News a couple of weeks ago about us taking up the news on the 20th. We would ask them to remember that we chose our ground first.

Mrs. Geo. Watson, of Farewell was the guest of her parents here Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dailey last Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Shenk visited her parents here Mr. and Mrs. James Matthews last Sunday.

Mr. Chas. Gadd is supplying all wants all wants in tinware on this line at present.

BALSAM VALLEY.

The weather of the past week has been fine and the crops are improving a little and the prospects are very good if the weather continues so.

Turnip sowing and fencing is the order of the day. Mr. Sam McMurdo, of Prot-n, is at present building the genuine Russell fence for Mrs. McKeelnie, of this place. This is a fence worthy of taking notice of and it reflects credit on the builder and the farm as well.

Still another fence but of a different style which D. McIntyre accompanied by O. Konold is building and is up to date with the Russell fence. They are expert builders and will take large contracts this summer.

Miss Sara and May McCormick are at present on a visit to friends in Minto.

Also Sara and Kate Ferguson are ysting at their friend's in and around Hariston.

Mr. and Mrs. Nester, of Durham, visited at D. McIntyre's last week.

Mr. Peter Ferguson has purchased a new bike from one of the leading merchants of Durham. Pete is already an expert rider.

Mr. D. McIntyre spent Sunday at Malcolm McMillan's near Buessan.

A number from this part took in the Irish Lake picnic and report a good time.

A certain young man from Flesherston Station, en route to Irish Lake Picnic came this way for his best girl, but made a slight mistake in the place he called at.

Mrs. D. Ferguson, of Durham, was visiting at G. Haw's last week.

Mr. Sam Parlow, the enterprising implement agent, of Durham, was around here taking orders for binder twine. He secured nearly all the orders.

FLESHERTON STATION.

Mr. Andrew McAuley paid Buffalo a visit on Saturday. He reports the stock market good.

Mr. Henry Piper had quite an accident one evening last week, while leading a cow along the road east of this burg. He met a young man and his sweetheart. The cow got scared, pulling Harry over the bank into the creek and got away. Harry started after her with a pair of wet feet saying "I will get even with Tom yet."

Mr. E. Seargent has purchased the trotting mare lately driven by Mr. Fred McArthur and is training her for Dundalk races. Nasty will make warm for some of them.

Mr. Wm. Gardhouse, of Eaton Bros. Brewery, Owen Sound, was in town this week delivering his summer orders. Billy is a great hustler and a general favorite among the boys.

Mr. James Watson of Priceville spent Sunday at his father-in-law's Mr. David Henderson.

Misses Annie James and Mand Watson, were the guests of Miss Jennie Watters on Sunday.

Our friend Mr. Wm. Reid experienced the danger of tobacco smoking a few days ago. After taking his regular evening smoke he placed his pipe carefully in his pocket after which he started out for an evening stroll but did not get very far when he found that his clothes were on fire, as a large ditch was near at hand we believe that the fire was soon put out.

Mr. George Williamson is preparing for the building of a new meat house. George is a hustler.

Our advice to a certain young man who visits our Valley occasionally is to attend to his duties on Sunday nights, or one of the Priceville youths may take his place, even if he does only leave her half way the first night. Practice makes perfect, L.
