place was pervaded by an air of clean- 'em? liness, such little desagrements as expared to overlook.

No. 5 Pymm's Buildings was one of a row of half-a-dozen houses similar to itself in size and outward aspect, situated in a quiet court abutting on a main thoroughfare in the busy and populous district of Soho. All the houses in Pymm's Buildings accommodated a dressed in black, and was closely veiled more or less numerous tribe of lodgers, the lower floors being generally arranged in suites of rooms for the conwere usually divided into separate since that April evening when M. Karsleeping apartments. And it was in ened the terrace at Beechly Towers, they beheld the black-clothed figure, this place and amid such sordid surroundings that the whilom owner of Beechly Towers hoped to find for a litand cry of the ten thousand hounds of policedom, each and all of whom were doing their utmost to run him to earth. His idea had been to bury himself in the heart of some densely populated district heart day—anguish, anxiety, and the months which had elapsed since that day—anguish, anxiety, and the day—anguish anxiety anxiety anxiety anxiety anxiety anxiety anxiety anxiety anxiety a tle time a secure shelter from the hue where one man is but as a grain of sand among ten thousand others, and in so far it may be surmised that he had than in the days gone by; but a sud- hav efound me out in this place," ans- eyes piercing the obscurity like two been successful.

ful Margery, was the only one who was a deer may fill when first it hears the made aware of her departure. The girl pleaded so hard to be allowed to accompany her, that at last Clara was Gerald returned yet?" she said to her fain to make her a promise that she him?" would send for her as soon as she was out that Margery was now here, and ordinary. her mistress found the value of her serself, had been imposed upon at every turn; but the shopman or peripatetic later a knock at the door made every vendor who succeeded in "besting" one start. Margery hastened to open Margery, as she termed it, must have it. Outside stood Picot carrying a been very wide-awake indeed. The girl he said, addressing himself to Clara, me. would haggle for half an hour over a with a low bow, and then favouring "How! Not accept! But this is folly." said Barnes, and he kept his word. always rose to the level of the occasion.

her way down-stairs, to encounter M. have the bonte to accept them." Picot on his way up! Then it came out | "I shall be charmed to do so," ansthat the mountebank rented a room at the top of the house which he looked not take him elsewhere. Had Mrs. that Henri is quite well?" Brooke been aware of this fact at the time, she might perhaps, have hesitated before deciding to take the rooms. And must come and take tea with me; feeling of trust in the mountebank-the the occasion. same sort of trust, although in a lesser him on the staircase, she never felt a fique!" moment's doubt that her secret, or as _ "I think I would rather not see much of it as he might know or sus- Henri go through any of his performpect, was safe in his keeping. It be- ances, monsieur.' came, of course, necessary to explain "Mais, madame!" with an expressive to him that it was she and her husto him that it was she and her husto he afraid of Oh the grand artists band to strike the fatal blow; but and caught almost all the rats and the grand artists band to strike the fatal blow; but and caught almost all the rats and the grand artists band to strike the fatal blow; but and caught almost all the rats and band, and not any one clse, whose forto be afraid of. Oh, the grand artiste when you left me, you evidently did so their great work came to a stop. boy and spoken kindly to him and had while, you will not forget that he is laden him with gifts, and about whom to come some afternoon and take tea! Henri often spoke when his father and with me." he were alone. He had never thought | "Ah, madame, he talk about you evof asking any one what her name was; ery day.-But I go now. I hope that from Clara how terribly the circum- quite well?" stances of herself and her husband were changed, he expressed neither curiosity nor surprise in the matter. He adieus and bowed himself out. as to impress it on his memory, and ed and enthusiastic houses. hen went contentedly on his way.

The furnished lodgings rented by Mr.

"Ain't he polite!" said Margery as Picot closed the door. "But what a pity then went contentedly on his way.

rooms on the first floor and two on berish." the second. As it chanced, the rooms on the ground-floor were at present said Clara for the second time, as she plain sewing, the result being that on your way in the dark?" an average she pricked her finger once every three or four minutes. But, in- lost, I don't." Half a minute later she thing drop. But I wants no wages and I extended my walk farther than I intended. I must be a caged bird now as to help to pay for the cup. A Heigh-holf.

I ain't a big eater—leastways. I think tended. I must be a caged bird now for the next four-and-twenty hours. That summons is intended for me," work of transformation the watch started on its journey to Russia, where it arrived safely, to the great delight. crust o' bread and drippin', a few cold will you not have something to stranger, was standing on the landing.

"Gentlemen don't often go on their knees nowadays. Still, I have had them isted in other respects Clara was pre- do that to me more than once. I remember that when Mr. Tubbins, the eminent brewer, did so, he was so very stout that he could not get up again

"My! I'd have stuck a pin into him; that would have made him jump," cried the girl with her strange laugh. At this juncture the door opened and Mrs. Brooke came in. She was plainly Since Margery's arrival she rarely ven-tured out of doors till dusk, and then stairs. All three started to their feet only when she wanted to do a little ranged in suites of rooms for the con-venience of families, while the top floors for her. Any one who had not seen her to the door and opened it. long ago; they looked larger and shone opinion in the matter.' with a deeper and more intense lustre "It seems incredible that you should dimly outlined on the landing, his den knock at the door, an unusual foot- wered Gerald as the tw oshook hands. points of flame; but for the moment no fall on the stairs, or the voices of When Mrs. Brooke quitted Beechly strange men talking in the court below. Towers secretly and by night to join would fill them on a sudden with a sort her husband in London, Margery, faith- of startled terror, just as the eyes of baying of the far-away hounds.

"The evening is so fine that he has or yourself." settled in her new home. Thus it fell probably gone for a longer walk than | "You know that I am in hiding; you what it had cost before her arrival. the haunting dread that he may be there are worse ills in life than pov- He is a tall, lank, bony fellow, Poor simple-minded Clara, who believ- recognised and arrested at any mom- erty." ed everybody to be as honest as her- ent! How will it all end?" She sighed "Part of my errand to-night is to tell and went into the other room. Presently she returned, and a few moments bunch of flowers. "Bon soir, madame," "Bon soir, Monsieur Picot. Entrez s'il vous plait.' What was Mrs. Brooke's surprise "Merci, madame," he answered as he about the third day after her arrival advanced into the room. "I have here a at Pymm's Ruildings as she was on petit bouquet-a few flowers-which Henri has sent for madame, if she will wered Clara as she took the flowers. 'How fresh and sweet they smell! I am much obliged to Henri, and to you upon as a permanent home, and occu- also, monsieur." The mountebank made pied as such when his avocations did another low sweeping bow .- "I hope "Parfaitement bien, madame."

"The first time he has a holiday h yet, somehow, she had an instinctive will not forget to have a nice cake for

"He will be enchante, madame. Ah degree, that she had in Margery; and if madame could see him on the trapeze after the first tremor of alarm which |-could but see him jumpez from one shot through her when she encountered bar to another-it is splendid, magni-

cot was one of the most incurious of so clevare as I was at his age. He will should change my mind, and that of be what you call in England great man be what you call in England great man be what you call in England great man be dead to "la belle madame," who had kissed his | "I am very glad to hear it. Mean-and even now, when he understood monsieur your husband finds himself "Quite well, thank you, monsieur."

was vraiment desole-he was heart- It here becomes needful to explain broken to think that such should be that just then Henri was engaged to the case; but that was all. He did, in- a certain hippodrome as one of a troupe deed, a little later, ask the landlord the of juvenile acrobats who, under the name of his new lodgers; and when he pseudonym of "les freres Donati," and was told that they were known as Mr. under the tuition of a celebrated "Proand Mrs. Stewart, he repeated the name | fessor," were performing a number of to himself two or three times over, so well-nigh incredible feats before crowd-and Mrs. ": Stewart" comprised three the poor man talks such a lot of gibuntenanted. The sitting-room had two went to the window and drawing aside windows and was a tolerably sized the curtain peered into the darkness. apartment. In it about eight o'clock on a certain autumn evening, were I cannot belo feeling to the window and drawing aside the curtain peered into the darkness. ago he received a gold medal for his that a body of ore as pure as this is always teals the same thing, and, have inventions. apartment. In it about eight o'clock on a certain autumn evening, were I cannot help feeling dreadfully unseated Miss Primby and Margery. The easy." Then turning to Margery, she so kindly spared you a necessity so former, as usual, was engaged on some said: "Here is a list of things I want painful?" kind of delicate embroidery; while the you to fetch from the grocer's in Medlatter was trying her hand at a little win Street. Do you think you can find this evening or what she herself would have termed "in a nucker" She had by away and Clausged themselves slowhave termed "in a pucker." She had had the ill-fortune to break a cup while washing up the tea-things.

"I know not what to say.—When I remember the past, and when I look well-known footfall characters, and when I look that Curzon should transform these and it contains practically nothing but fries, of Rahway, N. J. Two of the legs. well-known footfall on the stairs caus- round and think that this is now the unpromising articles into a timepiece. "O mum, do you think Mrs. Stewart ed a cry of gladness to burst from her will let me stay when I tell her? She lips. "At last!" she exclaimed as she out his hands with a gesture more exstarted to her feet and hurried to the pressive than words. Why, of course not, Margery. It door, "How glad I am that you are Before more could be said, there came task than this to daunt Jules Curzon. was an accident, it cannot be helped." safely back," she added, as her husband a peculiar knock at the door-three He set to work on the unpromising ma-"Oh, thank you for saying that, entered the room. "You were away taps in quick succession, followed by a too long that I grew quite frightened." fourth, after a longer interval. At watch that was quickly despatched to they were all thumbs, and I lets every- "The evening was so pleasant that the sound, Clara and Miss Primby em- the tsar.

A DEAD RECKONING.

CHAPTER X.

The two went on with their work for a little while in silence, and then Margor shand, and Miss Primby were settled in their new bome. The rooms recommended by the Frenchman had proved more to Clara's liking than any shad seen elsewhere, and she at once engaged them. The furniture and fittings were to a great extent after the cheap and tawdry style so much affected by the inferior class of French lodging-house keepers; but as the whole place was pervaded by an air of clean—

The two went on with their work for a little while in silence, and then Margor shad to her nicee "that Monsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said. "When I entered the house, killing me. When, oh, when will it is killing me. When, oh, when will it be said. "When I entered the house, will left him on watch outside. He now comes to tell me that a policeman in plain clothes is on guard outside the court, and that another is stationed und!"She said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said. "When I entered the house, little while in silence, and then Margor she said softly to herself. "This life is killing me. When, oh, when will it be said. "When I entered the house, left him on watch outside. He now comes to tell me that a policeman in plain clothes is on guard outside the court, and that another is stationed und!"She said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur Picot puts me greatly in mind of the said to her nicee "that Mionsieur

"It was a mercy that I sent him about his business. He turned out to Miss Primby sat down with a be no nobleman at all, but only a hair-

Again there was a brief space silence. This time it was broken a knock which sounded all the more startling because no one had heard and looked at each other. Then, at a might have been excused for failing to the statuesque, colourless face and the recognise her again. It was not mere- statuesque, colourless face and the inly that she looked older by more years scrutable eyes of M. Karovsky. than the months which had elapsed "Karovsky—you!" cried Gerald as he dancing light had died out of her eyes of a revenant, if I may be allowed an "Incredible? Peub! I had to see you; "Incredible? Peuh! I had need to see you; and I am here.'

"Will you not be seated?"

made a sign to her aunt, and the two She took off her bonnet with an air ladies passed out through the folding of weariness and sat down. "Has not doors into the room beyond "Pardon," said the Russian as he funt. "What can have become of glanced around, "but this place seems doubtless also know that a large re-"It makes me wretched when he ward is offered for my capture?"- The one of the many musical Indian names stays out longer than usual. And yet, other nodded .- "While such is the case, so plentiful there. The audience plainvices in a score different ways. For in- poor fellow! what a life is his. To be it is impossible for me to touch a stance. Margery did all the marketing shut up in one miserable room from penny of my income. My wife's aunt and did it for little more than half morning till night; never to venture has lost her property by a bank failout till after dark, and then only with ure. We are very poor, Karovsky; but Mayor George Barnes secured the floor.

As Karovsky drew up a chair. Clara

> you that I have instructions to place certain funds at your disposal. You can had been started to change the name leave this place to-morrow, if it please of the town, but for good reasons the "Thanks, Karovsky; but I cannot ac-capt a penny of the money you offer "It may seem so to you; but that does not alter the matter.' "It is unaccountable," said the Rusfar safer than here.'

"Idoubt it. One reason why I am | "Now a muskrat has a long, rough here is because I believe this spot-in scaly tail, which drags behind. Year the heart of one of the most populous after year, and age after age, those rats quarters of London-to be as safe a dragged their tails over those porthiding-place as any I could find. My ages until deep creases were worn in other reason is that were I to go the hard rock. In time, water comabroad, I feel as if I should be throw- menced to run through those creases, ing away my last faint hope of ever and it kept running through until a being able to prove my innocence to the deep broad channels was formed. In amazement. "How! Your"--"My innocence of the murder of Baron von Rosenberg." "Pardon; I fail to comprehend."

learly and emphatically that, let the kept on until the third fall, the Dick consequences to myself be whatever & Banning site, was formed they might, mine should not be the But just then the white men came A Big Bed of Pyrites Being Worked Near fore me, I should choose the one which knows where the good work would have perior, about one and one-half miles stealing nearly 200 black silk cravats. you yourself would in all probability ended. have chosen had you been in my place. "Now that is how this place came to Schrieber, and about the same distance Such being the case, it was perhaps a name of their town. not unnatural conclusion for you to arrive at that it was I, Gerald Brooke, house with thunderous applause show-With that the mountebank made his Karovsky, to believe in the truth of case. who was the assassin.—But I ask you, ed that it indorsed his statement of the 000 or $4,000 in stripping the vein, type of the former the professional what I am now going to tell you. had no more to do with the death of Von Rosenberg than you yourself had." "Es-il possible!" exclaimed the Russian in a voice scarcely raised above a Made a Watch Out of Rubbish for the Czar whisper. For a few moments he sat staring silently at Gerald; then he went on: "Not often am I astonished A mechanic who constructed a watch at anything I hear; but you Gerald for the Tsar of Russia from apparently Brooke, have astonished me to-night. hopeless rubbish proved himself a masThe evidence against you seemed so ter of his art and fairly won the conclusive, that I never doubted Von ter of his art, and fairly won the re- Sulphur Ore Company of Davis, Mass., and an overpowering desire, but the Rosenberg fell by your hand. Yet more ward he received. His name was Jules have purchased the mine, and will at medical experts and others apply an than once I said to myself: "What an Curzon, and he was a Pole who had once commence active operations. This infallible test. The professional takes leave behind him such a condem-

"From day to day I live in love that copper nails, some wood clippings, a cost of shipment to the lowest possible tion is frequently the symptom of the beginning of a mortal organic affection. the real criminal will be discovered and brought to justice; but with each day piece of broken glass, an old cracked amount; and if the expectations of the beginning of a mortal organic affec-mistress would not like it." his slouched hat, his overcoat, and the He said something rapidly in a low it kept good time, and had to be wound not like it." but you don't know how sorry muffler which had shrouded the lower voice to Karovsky, to which the latter up only once in three or four days. I am, mum. Mariar—her on the boat—always used to say as I was a great book and sat down in an easy-chair about right there which had shrouded the lower replied in the same language. Then the Russian gave a nod as of dismissal, and closing the door, turned and confronted Gerald with a grave face and dishim a pension.

Clara could not repress a smile.

am by no means sure that I should have cared to call that count my unon the table, her frame trembling slightly. Was the blow she had dread-

Miss Primby sat down with a gasp. "Well, let them come," went on Gerdresser's assistant, whose father had left him a little money. But certainly be better so. I am tired of this life of hide-and-seek. Why not end it here and now?" "No .no!" cried his wife. "Even at this, the eleventh hour, there must surely be some way of escape." "Even if I were eager to escape, which am not, I know of none. "Madame is right," said the Russian in his impressive tones. "There is still one way of escape." "And that is?" -- said Gerald inter-

But before Karovsky could reply. Margery, breathless and dishevelled. burst into the room. "O Muster Geril! -O mum," she exclaimed, "the polis is in court-four or five of 'em. and I evening; and O, what an exquisite one observed him.

(To be continued.)

THE GLORY OF RAT PORTAGE.

Ex-Mayor Barnes Tells How the Town Got Its Name and Why the Citizens Love It. In the mining convention recently scarcely a fit home either for madame held at Rat Portage, Prof. Goodwin of Kingston advised that the town change its name from Rat Portage to some ly showed its disapproval of the idea. Before the close of the session exdroll and humorous to a high degree. He said that in times past movements people were so attached to it that they defeated all such movements. "I will tell you how the town got its name,"

"Long years ago, ages ago in fact, around Rat Portage there were numsian, with a lifting of his black eye- erous water bodies connected by narbrows. "But why remain in these row necks of rock. These bodies of wretched apartments? Why not go water fairly swarmed with countless abroad-on the Continent-to Ameri- numbers of muskrats. When they ca-anywhere? The world is wide, and passed from one lake to another they there are places where you would be had to use these rocky necks as port-that way we secured the falls and water Karovsky stared at him in wide-eyed power between the head of the lake and what is now the Winnipeg River. "The rats kept portaging, the paths kept deepening, and in time, there was lots of time in those days, our second "When we parted last, I told you water power was formed. The thing you had prescribed, Von Rosenberg was chief glories is our water power here. from the great lake. found dead, shot through the heart, and that's why the people here love the

GREAT INGENUITY.

The tsar, hearing of his marvellous inventive genius, determined to put posit of equal purity in America. It men's cravats, it is a useless or absurd "That I know no more than you do." him to the test, and accordingly for- is expected that ore docks will have to article she affects. The unconscious warded to him a box containing a few be built and a tramway from the mine kleptomaniacs often make no effort to up. But it would have taken a harder taters, and the teapet after everybody eat?"

You must not like that. Maranswered as he proceeded to lay aside the moment the light fell on him.

Then those inside saw that a man, stranger, was standing on the landing, who seemed to retire further into the shade the moment the light fell on him.

The mid companied the old cup. Yet the moment the light fell on him.

The mid companied the old cup. Yet the moment the light fell on him.

The mid companied the old cup. Yet the moment the light fell on him. it arrived safely, to the great delight

Sash and Door Factory.

Having Completed our New Factory we are now prepared to FILL ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY.

We keep in Stock a large quantity of Sash, Doors, Mouldings, Flooring and the different Kinds of Dressed Lumber for outside sheeting.

Our Stock of DRY LUMRE is very Large so that all orders can be filled.

Lumber, Shingles and Lath always In Stock.

N. G. & J. McKECHNIE

KAK-DRS.KAK-DRS.K. LATER EXCESSES IN MANHOOD

MAKE NERVOUS, DISEASED MEN

KTHE RESULT of ignorance and folly in youth, overexertion of mind and body inducat the blossom of manhood, while others are forced to drag out a weary, fruitless melancholy existence. Others reach matrimony but find no solace or comfort there. The victims are found in all stations of life:—The farm, the office, the workshop, the pulpit, the trades and the professions.

RESTORED TO MANHOOD BY DRS. K. & K. MRS. CHAS. FERRY, CHAS. FERRY

SYPHILIS EMISSIONS STRICTURE CURED

Wm. A. Walker of 16th Street says:—"I have suffered untold agenies for my "gay life." I was indiscreet when young and ignorant. As "One of the Boys" I contracted Syphilis and other Private diseases. I had ulcers in the month and throat, bone pains, hair loose, pimples on face, finger nails came off, emissions, became thin and despondent. Seven doctors treated me with Mercury, Potash, etc. They helped me but could not cure me. Finally a friend induced metotry Drs. Kennedy & Kergan. Their New Method Treatment cured me in a few weeks. Their treatment is wonderful. You feel yourself gaining every day. I have never heard of their failing to cure in a single

CURES GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED

Capt. Chas. Ferry says:—"I owe my life to Drs. K. & F. At 14 I learned a bad habit. At 21 I had all the symptom of Seminal Weakness and Spermator hoea, Emission were draining and weakening my vitality. I married at was a least speriment of my family doctor, but it was a least experience. In eighteen months we were divorced. I then consulted Drs. K. & K., who restored me to manhood by their New Method Treatment. If elta new life thrill through my nerves. We were united again and are happy. This was six years ago. Drs. K. & K. are scientific specialists and I heartily recommend them."

IMPOTENCY CURED

We treat and cure Varicocele, Emissions, Nervous Debility, Seminate Weakness, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis, Unnatural Discharges, Self Abuse Kidney and Bladder Diseases. 17 YEARS IN DETROIT, 200,000 CURED. NO RISK

READER! Are you a victim? Have you lost hope? Are you contemplating marNew Method Treatment will cure you. What it has done for others it will do for you.
CONSULTATION FREE. No matter who has treated you, write for an honest opinion Free of Charge. Charges reasonable. BOOKS FREE—"The Golden Monitor" (illustrated), on Diseases of Men. Inclose postage, 2 cents. Sealed. RVATE. No medicine sent C.O.D. No names on boxes or envelopes. Everything confidential. Question list and cost of Treat-C

KORS. KENNEDY & KERGAN, No. 148 SHELBY ST. KAKENRS · KEKEDPS · KAKEDRS · KAK

A NEW INDUSTRY.

Schreiber - A Basis for Manufacture of Divided Into Three Classes by a Paris

A year or two ago a body of pyrites was struck. Last year the Messrs. Moriron ore and sulphur.

QUEEN AND PEOPLE.

Of all Victoria's ministers she liked When the eyes ache, close them for Disraeli most and Gladstone least. Dis- five minutes. When they burn bathe

Queen of England. "You are, madame," returned Gladstone, "and I am the people of Eng-

She signed the bill. But that is one a shocking expression to-day. of the reasons, why she has no love, Mama-Was it very naughty, En and never had any love, for the fore-most of the democrats in England. | treson ? Emerson—It was ungrammatical!

DEGREES OF KLEPTOMANIA.

for men. In the course of the trial kleptomania was discussed and shop thieves divided into three classes-conscious, semi-conscious and unconscious, Conscious theft, it was declared, may be premeditated or unpremeditated; erecting buildings, and cutting a wag- shoplifter with her big pocket; of the gon road to Schreiber. Quite recently latter the woman who suddenly yields they had an expert go over the property to an irresistible temptation. Semi-conwho examined it and pronounced it to scious thefts are the result of "tembe the greatest bed of pyrites that he porary modifications in the intellect had ever seen. A correspondent saw | with momentary diminution of the morit recently and was very much im- al sense," and these are frequently committed by most respectable women, pressed with the size and value of the "under determined conditions of sanpyrites is used in the manufacture of all she can lay her hands on and seeks found. It contains over 50 per cent. ing stolen it, and satisfied her craving, of sulphur, and is absolutely free burn- makes no attempt to profit by the ing. There is said to be no other de- theft. Frequently, as in the case of

and it contains practically nothing but fries, of Rahway, N. J. Two of the legs

HYGIENE OF THE EYE.

raeli made her Empress of India, and them in water as hot as can be borne she made him Earl of Beaconsfield. He with a dash of witch-hazel in it. After flattered, Gladstone dictated. It is said | weeping bathe them in rose-water, and that once Victoria objected to signing lay a towel wet in rose-water over them for five minutes. When they are "But you must, madame," urged the bloodshot, sleep more. When the whites are yellow and the pupils dull, "Must, sir? You forget, I am the look after your diet; you are bilious.

IN BOSTON.

Emerson-Little Browning Jones used

The Rev. Coreal, has been Montreal, in so bishop Fabre.
Two of the I ren are suffering four of his attacked by the few weeks.

THE VERY L

interesting Itam Great Brital

Mr. J. M. S of Rat Porta over Mr. M. I

Owing to lit pointed a recei and Niagara

The Legislat

The Guelph

$100 towards t

nual pienie, w

ance agent hi timizing a lar that city.

Thomas Mcl

All Perts of Assorted for

The by-law thousand doll Cornwall raily tawa on Thur seventy votes. The Millard was struck by on of Brandon had most of h was badly bur The gas pip house at Fort by some enemy lieved, and the sion that serio Mr. Tarte an the House of and, France engineer, to ex ments with a Montreal harb There has be ceived at Vano since Friday. Banff and Ant very high, was portions of the Extensive pre for a grand red Highlanders' le military forces

13th Battalion. part in the cer Sam Lindsay, ious bank burg! arrested in Mor en back to Har tor Murray, of force. He will escape from ju convicted of a GREA It has been de to build a new

There is no to the Queen inter The Prince o new type of h Mrs. Oliphant, died on Friday sixty-nine year Luke Patric member of the mone for South Japan's protes tion of Hawaii serious matter The London arge sum of mo

Thessaly. A set of the Greek philosophe 1488, was sold in eight hundred p By the invital g 700 of the london witnesse at the Lyceum The Horticulti shire. England, statue to Charl bury, his birthp Capt. Boycott lifty years of ag through being th to the 'boycott" It speaks volu who had the carr programme that first to last were tretemps The design for erected to the lat Paul's cathedral, the Prince of W his Royal Highn The admission miers to the Pr ed by the Lond recognition of th ies to share in th Oxford Univer red the honorary Archbishop Mac Canada, and upo Lewis, Archbish It is stated in frid Laurier's ac was due to the Queen, who desir presentative of

Prince Charles of Princess Maue receive an British navy; as living in Englar In the Imperio

Mr. John Redmo ment to the add the effect that d land suffered co tically. It was f hundred and thir During a jubile bley Park a favo tornado struck th several buildings. among the 900 chi ing part int he fe injured in the ru A deputation Duke of Abercorn Ireland, waited up of Londonderry the new Atlantic promised to carefu

Sir Wilfrid Lau viewed the Canad the British Empl misfortane to go t